Man's Idea
Of Bible
Is Attacked
Fair Reformer Says
Translations Are Wrong; Command
to Obey Held False

By Earl C. Reeves,
London, Mar. 17.—Mere man did the translating of the Bible and he got it all wrong. In some very important particulars, Chiefly in the passages dealing with women's duties to her husband, and to her back seat in human affairs generally.
Miss K. Raleigh is putting the Bible's commandments for women right and putting woman-kind at large right concerning the imposition upon them which has endured through centuries, all because a man translator made a slip.
The New Word of the Law is in this:
"St. Paul did not—
"Command women to obey their husbands,
"Forbid women to preach, "Insist forever and aye, whatever the fashion of the country, that husbands and wives be "Say that they should never wear jewelry and fine clothes." Item number one, the most important mistake, Miss Raleigh with vigor.
"Wives were not enjoined by St.
Paul to 'obey' but to be considerate to their husbands. St. Paul used the Greek word to 'obey' when he was speaking of children and slaves. When he was speaking of husbands and wives he used a different word, which has been translated as 'subject to.' The correct translation of this word is 'be considerate to.'
Women were commanded to cover their heads in church moreover because it happened to be the custom of the time.
And as for the other errors:
"St. Paul did not forbid women to preach. The correct translation is that he meant women should not chatter in church, but if they wanted news they should ask for it in their homes.
"He did not say that women should never wear jewelry and fine clothes. He only bade them leave their jewelry at home and dress plainly when they were preaching or settling out on missionary journeys.
Moreover:
"God gave gifts to men in, in the proper translation, 'gifts to human beings' so that women were included."

Coloradan To Leave Estate
To Farm Fund

Denver, Mar. 17.—To give practically impetus to his great desire to see the 3,000,000 acres of tillable land in Colorado made available to homesteaders, Colonel Henry C.
Watson, of Kearney, Neb., wants to leave his estate, valued at close to $250,000, to the state of Colorado.
The state senate has already passed a measure authorizing the state treasurer to accept a legacy which is expected to take action soon.
Colonel Watson, farmer, economist, philanthropist, treeologist and specialist in growing alfalfa, addressed a joint session of the Colorado legislature here to explain his reasons for framing the unique will which will leave his fortune to the Centennial state.
In his address Colonel Watson emphasized that the outstanding condition of the will provides that the money will be loaned in $1,000 amounts to homesteaders.
"I think it would mark an epoch in the history of the west if I could help you get farmers to working on your 3,000,000 acres of school lands," he said.
Colonel Watson's community farm at Kearney, Neb., has attracted attention of economists throughout the country.

Eggs Are Used
For Poker Chips

Billings, Mont., Mar. 17.—An egg is an egg—in Montana—and it is also a poker chip with some of the ranchers and settlers on homesteads which have not, for the past two years, paid very liberally on the investment because of the unusual drought and accompanying light crops.
Every Montana plays poker, be it "stud" with the "rky the limit" or a little friendly game of penny ante. It's the nature of the Westerner to court chance and lay a wager on the turn of a card or a horse race.
But limited finances have been a handicap to many of "the boys" who were wont to while away the long winter evenings out on the ranch in a little friendly game of penny ante. But the state legislature got down to such low figures that interest in the game waned until a fortuitous mind among them recently hit upon a "circulating medium" in the form of "hen fruit" with which to stimulate the play.

Illinois Solons
Asked To Sanction
Rent Regulation

Chicago, Mar. 15.—Hundreds of Chicago tenants assembled this morning for the first time in a special train to visit the state legislature at Springfield in advocacy of a bill granting cities the right to set up rent commissions for reviewing cases where excessive rentals are alleged.
Several hours were filled with contributions at a mass meeting of tenants last night to pay the expense of the trip and check the bill had announced that the house had passed the bill, sanctioning providing for an investigation of a "plot to keep up building rents."
