

German Billionaire Good Proof of Huns' Ability To Pay War Debt, Allies Hold

London, March 23.—England is vitally interested in Germany's first billionaire. France is even more keenly interested, and makes the fact that the post-war Germany can create a billionaire a part of her argument that "Germany Can Pay."

He is Hugo Stinnes, coal and industrial magnate, publisher extraordinary, and, if some reports are to be believed, virtual dictator of Germany today.

He came into international prominence in the sense that he first came prominently into the world news during the Spa conference when he stood up with sharpness and bluntness against the allied conference, then attempting regulation and increase of Germany's coal deliveries under the peace treaty.

Controls Sixty Newspapers. But before that he had been of daily growing importance in European news, for he was emerging from the comparatively nonentity of his financial dominance into the world of politics, through his purchase of newspapers throughout Germany. He is popularly credited with control of more than sixty newspapers.

It is no secret that the intelligence services of the allies has had him under review, so to speak, long before this. They promptly made further inquiries when he launched his newspaper buying campaign. And since that time the press of England has become a self-appointed watchdog of the doing of the German Rockefeller. His new combines of capital and glass, with a wide glass staircase beneath which waterfalls and lights alternately play, forms the central setting. Stately glass pillars supporting baskets of blown glass fruit serve as fountains and wide pools of water peopled by black swans alternate with the crystal floor. A section of this same crystal floor was so constructed as to permit the appearance of a massive clock with two bronze figures which strike the hour of twelve and the end of Cinderella's dream. Agnes Ayres portrays Cinderella, with Kathlyn Williams as the Fairy Godmother. (adv)

CINDERELLA IS BEAUTIFULLY SCREENED

Fairy Episode is Big Feature of Paramount Picture, "Forbidden Fruit"

Everyone knows the story of Cinderella and the Fairy Godmother, and now all the world may see the story presented with the lavish beauty for which Cecil B. De Mille is famous as producer, when "Forbidden Fruit" comes to the Oregon theater next Sunday.

The incorporation of the story of Cinderella in a vision episode in the otherwise modern story serves a two fold purpose: The vision serves to explain much of the subsequent action, and it gives Mr. De Mille's colorful imagination and artistry full play with incomparably beautiful results.

This episode was filmed in a stage setting constructed entirely of plate glass. A ball room floored and walled with heavy

New Craft Both Plane And Vessel

London, Mar. 22.—Details of a new type of seaplane which can both fly and cruise as a warship have been made public here. Two of these ships are being built for the air ministry. The vessels are said to be much like small ships with wings added. They are larger and stronger than any sea-going aircraft yet constructed, capable of riding the roughest waves, and each will carry a crew of seven with emplacements for five machine guns.

Honors All Debts Of Carranza Regime

Mexico City, Mar. 23.—Secretary of the Treasury Adolfo De La Huerta has announced that the government will recognize all of its debts with the banks of Mexico provided these obligations were incurred by the Carranza administration and not by the government of General Victoriano Huerta. It is stated that the government owes 20,000,000 pesos to the Banco Nacional and will pay only the debts of Carranza, discounting from the amount whatever sum was loaned to Huerta.

The Astoria Savings bank celebrated its thirtieth anniversary on March 1. The first certificate of deposit was issued to Maud Saffarng. It is still on deposit, amounting, with accrued interest to $30.92.

Father Says Son Kept In Restraint; Court Issues Writ

Farnsworth Held For Safe-Blowing

Estacada, Ore., March 23.—M. F. Farnsworth was arrested in Estacada by Sheriff Wilson and is accused of being implicated in the Estacada safe-blowing job on the night of February 26, when a safe there was "blown" by yeggs and about $200 in cash and Liberty bonds taken. The sheriff has evidence that Farnsworth was in Estacada on the night of the robbery and that he was a cook for the two men now held—James Steele and John Mabus—in a room where they were arrested in St. Johns. The sheriff has also discovered that James Steele, held as one of the yeggs who robbed the safe, was with Farnsworth in Estacada on the night of the safe blowing, and that the two men slept in a barn owned by a Mr. Oshorn there.

Reduction To Be In Lumber Rates

Albany, Ore., March 23.—H. C. Reeves, Oregon Electric railway agent, was notified by R. W. Plekard, general freight agent that the company had received information to the effect that the interstate commerce commission has approved the petition of the carriers to make reduced eastbound lumber rates effective March 31.

Dallas, Or., Mar. 23.—Sustaining the complaint of Will C. DeSelm, that Mrs. DeSelm and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reason Brunk, have been unlawfully restraining the child of the DeSelm in not permitting the father to visit it, Judge Belt has issued an order for a writ of habeas corpus summoning Mrs. DeSelm and her parents to appear in court. March 24 and show reason for the detention of the child.

The writ was asked by Mr. DeSelm, who alleges that he has been prevented from visiting his son, Clifford DeSelm, by his wife and her parents. The DeSelm's were formerly residents of Santiago, California, and Mrs. DeSelm came to Oregon, bringing the child with her, and was for some time employed in the state library at Salem. A few months ago she attempted to procure a divorce but failed to do so as the court decided she had not been a resident of the state of Oregon for one year prior to the commencement of the suit.

Boxing Is Upheld By 'Sky Pilot'

Topeka, Kan., Mar. 23.—The Bible upholds boxing, according to the Rev. Earl A. Blackman, known as the "fighting Kansas parson."

During a hearing on a boxing bill for Kansas before the state legislature the Rev. Blackman upheld the movement launched by the American Legion.

"You say you're a minister of the gospel?" queried a legislator, interrupting the "parson's talk." "Where do you get the text for the remarks you're making in favor of boxing?"

"The words of Saint Paul taken from First Corinthians, 9-26: 'I am a boxer and I hit hard and fast,'" was the reply like a shot. The legislator subsided.

Veterans of All Wars To Form Union

The newly organized Marlon Post of Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States promises to be one of the strongest patriotic bodies in the city. Nearly 100 have already signed up and many others are waiting for an opportunity to do so. It is unique among veterans' organizations in that all veterans of any war who have served the United States on foreign soil are eligible to membership, thus presenting a united front on all questions of patriotism best expressed in the word Americanism.

It will in no way antagonize other patriotic organizations but because of the community interests in their own ranks, will reinforce and support them.

The meeting which was planned for tonight has been postponed until Wednesday night, March 30.
