Hughes Answers Hun Communication With Statement of Administration's Attitude of Statement of Debts; Responsibility for War Declared to Rest With Prussians

Washington, April 4 .- Formal statement of the United States as to German reparations is contained in an exchange of communications with German government officials made public today by the state department. They are in the form of memoranda transmitted through Loring Dresel, American high commissioner at Berlin,

The memorandum was in reply to a communication handed to Mr. Dresel recently by a German government official in which the frank admission was made that Germany was willing to pay but noped for a reopening of the quesion of terms.

To Support Allies. In the American reply it was nade clear that the United States purposes to stand by the governments of the allies in enforcing just reparation.

The state department emphadzed the statement that the communications were exchanged bufore the arrival in this country of inability to get his deputies into M. Viviani as special French envoy.

The German communication, dated March 23, was written by Dr. Walter Simons, Germany foreign minister and asserted it was "entirely clear" both to the government and people that Germany 'must make reparations to the imit of her ability to pay" but ought "examination by unbiased experts" to determine the extent of her ability.
