

News Notes of Salem and Vicinity Briefly Told

Coming Events

April 8—Realtors luncheon, Marion hotel.
 April 7—Fanciers and Breeders association, Commercial club, 8 p. m.
 April 8—Floral Society, Commercial club, 8 p. m.
 April 9—Salem Woman's club, Commercial club, 2 p. m.
 April 14—Benefit bouts, auspices of Co. F, armory.
 April 15—Margaret Matzauer, contraalto, armory.
 April 17—Blossom day.
 April 22—Popular concert, Salem Symphony orchestra, armory, 8:15.
 May 4—Apollo club in concert with Virginia Rea, soprano, armory.

Court House Notes

Circuit Court
 Divorce complaint filed by Eurenia A. Griffin vs John D. Griffin.
 Answer to amended complaint filed in the case of George Feurer vs John R. Colgan.
 Decree issued in the divorce case of Thomas E. Powell vs Flora Powell.
 Second semi-annual report of M. B. Kromling, executor of the estate of Mary Ann Dodge filed.
 Orders filed in the court were: Final order of the estate of Alice Smith; order of final settlement of the estate of Luella Darby; order discharging Louis Bechtel, administrator of the estate of Annelise Kays; order approving final account of the estate of O. M. Mourer; order confirming sale of personal property by the estate of T. W. Dodson.
 Inventory and appraisement made of the estate of John B. Boyell.
Marriage Licenses
 Frank J. Stark, 24, Portland and Hattie A. Hammelman, 19, Woodburn.
 Frank McElfresh, 34, Tenino, Wash., and Floy Buren, legal, Salem.

Daily Statistics

Born
 PENCE—At their home 1825 North Commercial street, in this city, to Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pence, on April 3, a boy, named Galford Ray.
 PAWFOR—At their home 1340 Court street in this city to Mrs. Henry R. Crawford, on April 3, a girl, named Harriet.
 SHEPARD—To Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Shepard of this city, on April 2, a girl, named Mary Elizabeth.
 David Bach of Mt. Angel, one of the first business men of that city who has some time since retired, was looking after business matters in Salem yesterday.
 Mrs. L. B. Hixon and daughter, Miss Julia, returned yesterday from Albany where they had been visiting with friends and relatives on several days.
 Miss Clara Baltimore was in town yesterday on her way home to Albany from Silverton where she had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Rue.
 The regular meeting of the Marion County Veterans' association will be held in Woodburn on Monday, April 7th. All patriotic citizens are invited to attend.
 Mrs. W. W. Scott came over from Silverton last evening to be with her daughter who is receiving treatment in the Deaconess hospital.
 Dr. F. G. Franklin of the Willamette University staff visited in Albany during the week end, returning yesterday.
 Mrs. Harry Bancroft returned yesterday from Albany where she spent the week end with her husband, Dr. Bancroft.
 For sale, stereotyping mats, 10c per bundle. Used as a light and out weather proofing cardboard. Capital Journal office.
 W. H. Haberly of the Waldo Hills was a business visitor in the city yesterday.
 Miss Boneta Tusting visited friends in Brownsville over the week end.
 Love, the Jeweler, Salem.

Bringing Up Father — By George McManus.

H. H. Corey, public service commissioner, and C. J. Green, engineer with the commission, left Monday night for Boise, Idaho, to attend a hearing before the Idaho commission on the valuation of the Idaho Power company. This company operates extensively in eastern Oregon and the result of this hearing will govern future rates to Oregon patrons.

Graduates and former students of the state school for deaf here are planning a reunion to be held at the state institution early in July, it is stated by Superintendent Tillinghast. The reunion is expected to attract some 150 or more deaf people to the school for three days during which it is proposed to perfect a statewide organization through which to further the common interests of the members.

John Ludowitzke of Silverton passed through the city last evening from Eugene where he was called on account of the critical illness of his daughter, Anna, who died yesterday morning. Mrs. Ludowitzke will arrive in Silverton with the body today and interment will be made in the Silverton cemetery.

L. C. Denison the Salem contractor who has been engaged to build the gymnasium at Independence, will begin work of construction this week and he intends to complete the work as soon as possible.

Several from here will go to Airlie Thursday to attend the dedication of the new Evangelical church at that place. The services will continue from Thursday until Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. E. Thomas has moved to Stayton. Mrs. Thomas had lived in Salem for a number of years, and prior to coming here she lived in Stayton.

Wanted experienced cashier and candy salesgirl. Experienced person only need apply. The Spa.

Henry Krop was in town yesterday on his way back to the Mt. Angel college from Albany where he had been visiting his parents during the vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cowden and Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Risteisen of Silverton motored over to Salem last night and attended the show at the Oregon.

J. W. Baggett, proprietor of the Central Howell store, died at his home at the store yesterday morning after an illness of several weeks. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

Old newspapers, 10c the bundle. Used as carpet mats, for packing, etc. Capital Journal office.

Deputy Sheriff Percy Webb of Roseburg was in Salem Saturday on business pertaining to his office.

Mrs. M. Dolan and daughter of Silverton visited in Salem Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Smith of Astoria were Salem visitors Monday afternoon.

Anton Fischer of the Waldo Hills was in town on business last evening.

M. M. Sayre and G. R. Moser of Silverton were in town on business Monday afternoon.

Henry Liechty of Central Howell was in town on business yesterday.

E. O. Royal of Albany was visiting friends in Salem Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. J. Beault of Albany was visiting friends in Salem over Sunday.

Miss Ida Babcock visited her brother in Oregon City during the latter part of the week.
 Allen Carson of Salem was a week end visitor with friends in Eugene, returning today.
 Ernest Aegerter has been visiting his parents in Scio.

Sam H. Brown, the fruit man from Gervais, was in Salem on business yesterday. Mr. Brown reports some damage done to fruit in that neighborhood yesterday morning, but to no great extent. The small fruits had not reached a point of blossom where the frost could harm them, he said, and he looks for a good crop of loganberries this season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Largent, and the Misses Maude, Mary and Edna Largent were in town from Silverton yesterday afternoon. The Misses Largent returned to Eugene to resume their studies in the University of Oregon. Miss Maude Largent will graduate this spring.

Arnold Hill, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hill of Independence, has been confined in the Deaconess hospital for several days receiving medical treatment. He has been afflicted with an internal trouble.

Dave Love of Independence, was in town on business Monday. Mr. Love has been in Moser, Ore. looking after his farming interests. He also owns a large farm near Independence.

Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent, returned Monday from Spokane where she attended the Inland Empire Teachers convention.

Mark Latham was in town Sunday evening on his way back to Eugene. He had been spending the Easter vacation with his parents in Silverton.

Jack Hayes and "Duckey" Holmes of the Salem Senators were in Corvallis Saturday to play with the O. A. C. baseball team.

Mrs. J. T. Hunt and Mrs. B. L. Steeves and daughter left Saturday for a few days' visit at Seaside.

Mrs. Manda Parker of Roseburg was brought here Saturday by an attendant at the state hospital and confined in that institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Epping of Scio were visiting in Salem during the latter part of the week.

Fred Hessing, one of the big livestock breeders of Mt. Angel, was in town on business yesterday.

Miss Ida Matthews of Albany was a week end visitor in Salem.

CARD OF THANKS
 We wish to thank our many friends and comrades for their kind sympathies and floral offerings during the illness and death of our husband and father, Mr. John Zimmer.—Mrs. John Zimmer, Mrs. Walling and family, Mrs. Jim Obenchain and family.

Dedication Program For Airlie Church Arranged for Sunday

Airlie, April 5.—Next Sunday will occur the dedication of the new church which was just completed in this place, and the following program has been arranged for services during the week: Thursday evening Rev. A. P. Layton, of Corvallis, will speak. Friday evening, Rev. Kantner, D. D. of the First Congregational church in Salem, will give an address; and on Saturday evening, Bishop M. T. Maye, of Le Mars, Iowa, will have charge of the service. Bishop Maye will also preach on Sunday forenoon when the church will be dedicated. At 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon a fellowship service will be held, in which a number of visiting ministers will participate. Bishop Maye will speak again Sunday evening. Special music has been provided for each service, and a baked dinner will be served at noon Sunday.

Autoist May Sue City for Damages

Independence, April 5.—After L. N. Waldron, of Amity backed his car off over an embankment on the east side of the bridge on C street, which leads to the ferry landing, he feels that the city should buy him a new car. While he has not yet commenced suit for damages, he has intimated that he will. He alleges that the 12-inch curbing was not high enough to prevent the car from going over the embankment. Waldron had a new car and the only

TODAY — Norma Talmadge

IN The Branded Woman
 THURSDAY
Florence Vidor
 IN "The Jackknife Man"
LIBERTY

passenger in the machine with and grandmother of 16. The funeral will be held Wednesday at 3:30 o'clock from the family home under the direction of Rigdon & Son. Interment will be made in the Odd Fellows cemetery, Rev. Aldrich officiating.

Died
 M'GEE—At the family residence, 163 South 13th street, Saturday, April 2, 1921, Mrs. Ruby P. McGee, at the age of 68 years.

She was the mother of Frederick McGee of Macleay, Richard McGee of Grand Ronde, Mrs. Ruby Reinke of Oregon City, Mrs. Stevens of Portland, Mrs. Maud Ekins and Miss Lora McGee of Salem; sister of Frank Countryman of Colton, and Anson B. Countryman of Raymond, Wash.

Died
 JORGENSEN — Nellis Christian Jorgensen at his home 4 1/2 miles north of Salem, April 3, 10 a. m., at the age of 68 years. Funeral services at 2 p. m. Wed., April 6, at the Webb and Clough chapel. Interment at the City View cemetery.

Died
 W. T. Rigdon Lloyd T. Rigdon
W. T. Rigdon & Son
 Leading Undertakers

WANT
 A $6500 loan on 102 acres improved. Socolofsky, 341 State street.

Miss Nellie Burns visited her parents in Albany over Sunday.

Land Plaster
 We have a little more of the Empire Land Plaster to sell, better order now and be sure to have it—there is no better.

Shorts—Middlings
 We have reduced the price on this feed $5.00 per ton today, a dandy stock feed.
Cherry City Milling Company

NEW ARRIVALS

Bon Ton CORSETS

Jersey Jackets

Another Big Shipment of this very popular Jacket has reached us. The sizes are now complete and we advise early purchase before your size is sold.

This shipment includes the wanted colors—

Navy, Brown, Green and Black

Note the Low Prices—

$9.95

Whether your need is to fit the slender lines of budding girlhood, or the more mature and matronly figure, BON TON corsets will fulfill your desire. And in BON TON both comfort and smart style have been skillfully combined. Ask to be shown the new Spring models.

MILLER'S
Good Goods.

OREGON Theatre
 JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD'S
"Kazan"
 HAROLD LLOYD IN
"Now or Never"
 MATINEES 35c
 EVENINGS 50c
TODAY!

Cherro Flour

Thru the efforts of the valley merchants between Portland and Eugene, in four months' time the manufacturers of CHERRO FLOUR are now running their plant 10 hours daily on Cherro exclusively for family trade. Regardless of all other old hardwheat established brands of flour on the market.

This statement speaks for itself just one word—

QUALITY

The Rexall Store

ONE CENT SALE!

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 8, 9.

Circulars at Store giving lists of items and prices.

PERRY'S DRUG STORE

15 S. Com'l St.
 SALEM, ORE.