

Society

COMMUNITY spirit in Salem is thriving and when the efforts of her citizens are rewarded she will have attained an enviable attribute of the small town—no strangers in the midst—which, for a city of its size, will be, perhaps, a unique accomplishment. Who hasn't thought back to those days in a town just enough smaller than Salem that about special endeavor, everyone knew everyone else? And who hasn't wished that he might sometime again find a town like that? Through community meetings to which strangers in the city are specially invited, Salem is working toward this goal of acquaintance. All organizations are uniting their efforts to supply the opportunity for old residents and new residents. One community gathering of this kind was held not long ago in the commercial club reception hall and another was set for Wednesday, May 18. This meeting will be held in the armory where there will be room for most of Salem's people and during the evening, mingling together socially in a time. Salem's unselfish community spirit cannot help but bring her good and bring to the new resident contentment in his new location.

The gentle sweetness of her music, quiet and beautiful throughout the concert in the armory last night by Mme. Matzenauer, contralto, directed by Charles Carver, bass, and Frank La Forge, piano. The appreciation of the audience which filled the armory was evident in the attention and the sincere response to every number.

Credit is due the Salem Music Bureau for its successful work. About fifty women from Portland, Salem and surrounding towns attended the sessions of the Home Missionary conference board of the Methodist Episcopal church, Thursday, when local officers of the Home Missionary Society of the Salem Methodist churches acted as hostesses. The attendance was one of the finest the conference board has ever had.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Prunk entertained on Monday night at their home with a dinner party, honoring the occasion of their fourth wedding anniversary. Covers for fourteen were laid at the table made prettily with its center decorations of pink carnations, streamers of pink and white leading from this to place cards in pink, marking each cover. The color scheme was also detailed in the dinner. Following dinner, conversation passed a social hour. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith, Mrs. Horace Sykes, Miss Nell Sykes, Miss Inez Fitts, Albert Egan, Lester Pearmain, Bud Welch, Jeanette Sykes, Russell Smith, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Prunk.

In the fourth season of its career the Apollo club will give its second and final concert of this season on Wednesday night, May 4, at the armory. Immediately after the first concert of the season, given last January, the club earnestly went to work on the program which will be sung on May 4, and which, in the judgment of some of the members, will carry a more genuine appeal to the musical public than has any program previously given. Most of the numbers, it is said, are well-known favorites, which, when rendered ensemble with male voices, enhance the beauty of the selections many fold.

As soloist for the next concert the Apollo club has engaged Miss Virginia Rea, a brilliant coloratura soprano. Although of distinct French type, Miss Rea, who is making an extensive concert tour this season under the direction of the International Concert Bureau, is proud of the fact that she is of an old American family, dating back in this country to Revolutionary times. Miss Rea's later successes in concert and opera showed the wisdom of avoiding the short, spectacular career of the child-wonder, and she now possesses the versatility and firm musical foundation which enables her to sing the most difficult arias with that natural ease and perfection which is the achievement only of true art.

Flawless technique, mastery of diction, phrasing and expression, would count for little, however, were it not for her voice, naturally brilliant in tone, range and flexibility.

Members of the Monday night dancing club are anticipating a large dancing party which they are giving next Tuesday night. This affair will be informal and will be the closing dance of the season.

A birthday party for her little daughter, Marjorie, on her third birthday was the entertainment yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Earl Pruitt when she invited a number of children and their mothers. Games on the lawn were enjoyed and delicious refreshments including a birthday cake were served. Those present besides the tiny honor guest and her mother were, Mrs. George Coe and daughters, Mrs. Lorets and Dorothy, Mrs. John Carpenter and daughter, Helen, Mrs. Earl Kent and daughter, Alice, Mrs. Horn and sons, Sivitor and Sergeant, and Little Mildred White.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knighton are entertaining at their home. Mr. Knighton's mother, Mrs. R. M. Knighton, of Beuna Vista, who is spending two weeks in the city.

Mrs. Francis E. Neer (Lola Wilson) and her two small daughters, Katherine and Natalie, of Davis, California, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Neer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson. Mrs. Neer will spend most of the summer months in Salem.

Members of the Young People's Alliance of the 17th and Chemeketa street Evangelical church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. St. Aubert Tuesday evening for their monthly business meeting. As the annual conference of the Evangelical churches is to be held in this city next month, this is the last meeting of the Alliance during this conference year, so all the unfinished work and business of the society is now being completed. New members were taken into the society. After the adjournment of the meeting the Alexander Paul, recruitment secretary of the United Missionary Society, will appear tonight in the ball. From Eugene they will go directly to Seattle, and on Monday night will give the concert.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stroupe and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stroupe, of Portland, motored to Salem last Sunday and spent the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Martin, at their home at 1665 Waller street.

Mr. and Mrs. Barclay Newman, of Eugene, arrived in Salem Friday and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Newman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Launer. Their friends will be pleased to hear that they will remain in the city for a few days.

MISS VIRGINIA REA
Soloist in Apollo club concert, May 4 at the armory lie Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. James Imhah, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Adams, Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Kugel, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bunn, Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee, W. F. McCall, Miss Edith Ross and Frank Long of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen, Ralph Allen of Sioux City, Iowa.

Right Reverend Archbishop Christie, D. D., will be in Salem tomorrow and will speak at St. Joseph's Catholic church at 10:30 mass. He will be entertained at dinner at St. Joseph's rectory.

Of interest to the people of Salem is the wedding which took place in Eugene Friday evening, April 8, when Miss Lela Baker became the wife of Dan E. Marsters. Mrs. Marsters formerly lived in Salem and was identified as the Ladd and Bush bank. She is the daughter of Mrs. L. May Baker, of Eugene. Mr. Marsters is a business man of Eugene and the couple will make their home in that city. They are spending a short honeymoon on the McKenzie river.

A meeting for the reorganization of the Marion County Nurses Association was held on Saturday night at the home of Mrs. J. H. Brewer when Mrs. Mullen, Mrs. Dorothy Whip and Miss Ora Montague were hostesses. This organization was discontinued during the war when many of the members were overseas in active service. Officers elected were Miss Grace Taylor, president; Miss Nell Conk, secretary; Mrs. Arthur Stillman, treasurer. A program committee was named consisting of Miss Vera Cook, Miss Gladys Steele and Miss Florence Cauthorn. On the board of directors are Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. Mullen, Miss Mina Cook, Miss Ora Montague, Miss Florence Cauthorn and Miss Dorothy Whip. Meetings will be held once a month and it is thought that the organization may be extended soon to include the nurses of Polk county.

The class of interior decorating and modern history of art, a section of the Salem Arts League, gathered on Wednesday at the suburban home of Mrs. Monroe Gilbert for an afternoon of mutual profit. Those present were Miss Vivian Hargrove, Miss Catherine Gunnell, Mrs. John Clifford, Mrs. William Babcock, Mrs. L. R. Burdette and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert.

Mrs. Florence Bell entertained on Thursday night at her home with an evening honoring Miss Vivian Browne who took this opportunity to announce her engagement to Orley Leffingwell, the wedding date being set for May 28. The party took the form of a miscellaneous shower and many pretty and useful gifts were received by Miss Browne. Miss Browne, who is a well known and popular young woman of Salem, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Browne and is employed in the automobile department at the statehouse. Mr. Leffingwell, who also has a wide circle of friends in the city is also employed in the automobile department.

Mrs. Bell's home on this occasion was decorated with bouquets of sweet peas and ferns. She served a delicious luncheon assisted by Miss Georgia Broyles. All of the invited guests are employed at the statehouse in the automobile department and they were the honor guest, Miss Vivian Browne, Miss Jessie Miller, Miss Alice Book, Miss Irene Bradford, Miss Mary Chadwick, Miss Evelyn Stevenson, Miss Vera Oehler, Miss Dorothea Steusloff, Miss Helen King, Miss Mildred Gill, Miss Maud Savages, Miss Edith Welborn, Mrs. E. Bergman, Mrs. Harry Hutton, Mrs. L. A. Kezer, Mrs. Sam Burkhardt, Mrs. H. E. Browne, Mrs. M. Matthews, Miss Margaret Mayer, Miss Georgia Broyles.

Anna Seamster, of 1926 Center street, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Edith Seamster, to Edward W. Shafer, of Portland, Mr. Shafer is a former Woodburn boy who is now interested in the baking business in Portland. The couple were married Tuesday, April 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Horton, at 1933 Stark street.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

games. Music rendered by Frank Launer, pianist, and Ivan Bishop, violinist, was greatly enjoyed by everyone present. The hostess served a dainty lunch later in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stroupe and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stroupe, of Portland, motored to Salem last Sunday and spent the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Martin, at their home at 1665 Waller street.

Mr. and Mrs. Barclay Newman, of Eugene, arrived in Salem Friday and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Newman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Launer. Their friends will be pleased to hear that they will remain in the city for a few days.

Right Reverend Archbishop Christie, D. D., will be in Salem tomorrow and will speak at St. Joseph's Catholic church at 10:30 mass. He will be entertained at dinner at St. Joseph's rectory.

Of interest to the people of Salem is the wedding which took place in Eugene Friday evening, April 8, when Miss Lela Baker became the wife of Dan E. Marsters. Mrs. Marsters formerly lived in Salem and was identified as the Ladd and Bush bank. She is the daughter of Mrs. L. May Baker, of Eugene. Mr. Marsters is a business man of Eugene and the couple will make their home in that city. They are spending a short honeymoon on the McKenzie river.

A meeting for the reorganization of the Marion County Nurses Association was held on Saturday night at the home of Mrs. J. H. Brewer when Mrs. Mullen, Mrs. Dorothy Whip and Miss Ora Montague were hostesses. This organization was discontinued during the war when many of the members were overseas in active service. Officers elected were Miss Grace Taylor, president; Miss Nell Conk, secretary; Mrs. Arthur Stillman, treasurer. A program committee was named consisting of Miss Vera Cook, Miss Gladys Steele and Miss Florence Cauthorn. On the board of directors are Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. Mullen, Miss Mina Cook, Miss Ora Montague, Miss Florence Cauthorn and Miss Dorothy Whip. Meetings will be held once a month and it is thought that the organization may be extended soon to include the nurses of Polk county.

The class of interior decorating and modern history of art, a section of the Salem Arts League, gathered on Wednesday at the suburban home of Mrs. Monroe Gilbert for an afternoon of mutual profit. Those present were Miss Vivian Hargrove, Miss Catherine Gunnell, Mrs. John Clifford, Mrs. William Babcock, Mrs. L. R. Burdette and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert.

Mrs. Florence Bell entertained on Thursday night at her home with an evening honoring Miss Vivian Browne who took this opportunity to announce her engagement to Orley Leffingwell, the wedding date being set for May 28. The party took the form of a miscellaneous shower and many pretty and useful gifts were received by Miss Browne. Miss Browne, who is a well known and popular young woman of Salem, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Browne and is employed in the automobile department at the statehouse. Mr. Leffingwell, who also has a wide circle of friends in the city is also employed in the automobile department.

Mrs. Bell's home on this occasion was decorated with bouquets of sweet peas and ferns. She served a delicious luncheon assisted by Miss Georgia Broyles. All of the invited guests are employed at the statehouse in the automobile department and they were the honor guest, Miss Vivian Browne, Miss Jessie Miller, Miss Alice Book, Miss Irene Bradford, Miss Mary Chadwick, Miss Evelyn Stevenson, Miss Vera Oehler, Miss Dorothea Steusloff, Miss Helen King, Miss Mildred Gill, Miss Maud Savages, Miss Edith Welborn, Mrs. E. Bergman, Mrs. Harry Hutton, Mrs. L. A. Kezer, Mrs. Sam Burkhardt, Mrs. H. E. Browne, Mrs. M. Matthews, Miss Margaret Mayer, Miss Georgia Broyles.

Anna Seamster, of 1926 Center street, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Edith Seamster, to Edward W. Shafer, of Portland, Mr. Shafer is a former Woodburn boy who is now interested in the baking business in Portland. The couple were married Tuesday, April 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Horton, at 1933 Stark street.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

The guest last Tuesday evening of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Mitchell, Miss Irene Dodd and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Putnam. Mr. Paul, Miss Dodd and Mr. and Mrs. Putnam were guests at the Mitchell home north of this city for dinner at six o'clock on Tuesday. Miss Hattie Mitchell, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, is at the present time attending the College of Missions at Indianapolis, Ind. She is under appointment to Africa. Mr. Paul has just come from there and brought greetings from their daughter. At 8 o'clock Mr. Paul addressed a group of Life Work recruits at the court street Christian church and held a conference with Miss Dodd, who is also a volunteer for the mission field. Mr. Paul, who has been a missionary in China for years, is traveling recruiting young people for missionary work.

The Loyal Woman's class of the first Christian church met on Thursday afternoon at the church parlors for a business and social afternoon. A program, consisting of the following numbers, proved interesting: Readings, Miss Evelyn Wilcox and Miss Mildred Clement; piano solo, Miss Dorothy Byers; reading, Miss Myrtle Hitchcock; vocal solo, Doris Slier; reading, Mr. Evans, accompanied by Miss Trista Wenger. During the social hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. W. Harritt, Mrs. J. C. Campbell, Mrs. Flora Clark, Mrs. H. Nash, Mrs. Charles Steele and Mrs. Christian. There were about fifty women present.

The Ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church sponsored an interesting party in the church parlors on Wednesday night. An interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which also aided the treasury of the society, was worked out when each person was served in the pockets of a miniature apron or pair of trousers, pennies corresponding in number to the inches in the individual's waist measure. Community singing passed part of the evening and Le Roy Myers sang a number of solos. Refreshments were served by the aid society social committee.

Mrs. William Hawkins, whose home is in the country near Salem, is visiting in Salem at the home of Miss Mary Burghart.

About 38 members of the Women's Foreign Missionary society were entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. H. Vandervort. After the regular business session an interesting program was enjoyed. Mrs. Blaine Kirkpatrick had charge of the afternoon.

Honoring Mrs. F. H. Howarth, of Seattle, Mrs. Ralph Jacobs entertained, Wednesday night, with two tables of Five Hundred. Dining room decorations were in red and white, and in the living room dogwood and fern were arranged. Those who enjoyed this evening were Mrs. F. H. Howarth, Mr. and Mrs. George Riches, Mr. and Mrs. Z. G. Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Jarry Wenderoth, Mrs. LeRoy Leedy, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs. Mrs. Riches assisted in serving the luncheon. Mrs. Howarth, who was the house guest at the home of Mrs. Jacobs, left Salem Thursday.

The second popular concert of the Salem Symphony orchestra will be given next Friday evening, April 22, at 8:15 in the armory. This will be the last of the season's concerts and the program is composed entirely of old-time songs, familiar to all music lovers and favorites. Three soloists, Miller Brevier, flute; Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, voice, and W. H. Mills, cornet, will appear. The Salem Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Dr. John R. Sites, has had an especially successful season.

Overture to "Pique Dame" Fran von Suppe
Flower-Song Otto Lange
Traumerel Robert Schumann
Agnus Dei Lamb (Lamb of God) George Bizet
Flute Solo, Mr. Miller Brevier
Funeral March* Ludwig van Beethoven
Menuet a l'antique Ignaz Paderewski
Hungarian Dance No. 5 Johannes Brahms
Songs (selected), Mrs. Carlton Smith
Prize-song from the "Meister-singer" Richard Wagner
Cornet Solo, W. H. Mills
Bridal-Chorus from "Lohengrin" Richard Wagner
Waltz from "Faust" Charles Gounod
Coronation-March from the "Prophet" Giacomo Meyerbeer
* Marcia funebre sulla morte d'un eroe (Funeral-March on the death of a hero); third movement from Beethoven's Piano Sonata op. 26 arranged by Theodore M. Tobani.

Mrs. F. R. Bowersox, of Monmouth, arrived in Salem yesterday and will be the guest of Mrs. F. G. Bowersox over the week end.

Friends of J. C. Savags surprised him on Wednesday night by giving a party at his home in Waconda in honor of his forty eighth birthday. A pleasant evening was spent with cards and various games, followed by a musical program. Among those who participated were Arnette Collins, violin; Cecil Collins, piano; vocal selections by Daisy Colling, Walter Ebeling, of Portland, also favored the guests with violin selections. The program ended with a reading by A. (Continued on Page Four.)

Mrs. Lucy Roach, of Victoria, B. C., who has been the house guest of Mrs. S. E. Edwards since October, left last Sunday for her home in British Columbia.

Salem delegates to the state convocation of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen held in Eugene Wednesday, April 13, were Mrs. Mary S. Moores, Mrs. Eliza J. Downing and Mrs. Nellie

Varley. The national convocation of the brotherhood will be held in Denver, Colorado, in June and delegates from Oregon will be E. Seike, of Portland, J. E. Woodruff, of Pendleton, Mrs. Mary S. Moores, of Salem, and F. O. Taylor of Eugene.

The next state convention will be held in Salem in 1925.

Mrs. George Burnett entertained last night with a line party for six as a special birthday honor for Mrs. Marie Flint. A luncheon was served afterward by Mrs. Burnett at her home.

Mrs. F. R. Bowersox, of Monmouth, arrived in Salem yesterday and will be the guest of Mrs. F. G. Bowersox over the week end.

The second popular concert of the Salem Symphony orchestra will be given next Friday evening, April 22, at 8:15 in the armory. This will be the last of the season's concerts and the program is composed entirely of old-time songs, familiar to all music lovers and favorites. Three soloists, Miller Brevier, flute; Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, voice, and W. H. Mills, cornet, will appear. The Salem Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Dr. John R. Sites, has had an especially successful season.

Overture to "Pique Dame" Fran von Suppe
Flower-Song Otto Lange
Traumerel Robert Schumann
Agnus Dei Lamb (Lamb of God) George Bizet
Flute Solo, Mr. Miller Brevier
Funeral March* Ludwig van Beethoven
Menuet a l'antique Ignaz Paderewski
Hungarian Dance No. 5 Johannes Brahms
Songs (selected), Mrs. Carlton Smith
Prize-song from the "Meister-singer" Richard Wagner
Cornet Solo, W. H. Mills
Bridal-Chorus from "Lohengrin" Richard Wagner
Waltz from "Faust" Charles Gounod
Coronation-March from the "Prophet" Giacomo Meyerbeer
* Marcia funebre sulla morte d'un eroe (Funeral-March on the death of a hero); third movement from Beethoven's Piano Sonata op. 26 arranged by Theodore M. Tobani.

Mrs. F. R. Bowersox, of Monmouth, arrived in Salem yesterday and will be the guest of Mrs. F. G. Bowersox over the week end.

Friends of J. C. Savags surprised him on Wednesday night by giving a party at his home in Waconda in honor of his forty eighth birthday. A pleasant evening was spent with cards and various games, followed by a musical program. Among those who participated were Arnette Collins, violin; Cecil Collins, piano; vocal selections by Daisy Colling, Walter Ebeling, of Portland, also favored the guests with violin selections. The program ended with a reading by A. (Continued on Page Four.)

Mrs. Lucy Roach, of Victoria, B. C., who has been the house guest of Mrs. S. E. Edwards since October, left last Sunday for her home in British Columbia.

Salem delegates to the state convocation of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen held in Eugene Wednesday, April 13, were Mrs. Mary S. Moores, Mrs. Eliza J. Downing and Mrs. Nellie

Varley. The national convocation of the brotherhood will be held in Denver, Colorado, in June and delegates from Oregon will be E. Seike, of Portland, J. E. Woodruff, of Pendleton, Mrs. Mary S. Moores, of Salem, and F. O. Taylor of Eugene.

The next state convention will be held in Salem in 1925.

Mrs. George Burnett entertained last night with a line party for six as a special birthday honor for Mrs. Marie Flint. A luncheon was served afterward by Mrs. Burnett at her home.

Mrs. F. R. Bowersox, of Monmouth, arrived in Salem yesterday and will be the guest of Mrs. F. G. Bowersox over the week end.

Friends of J. C. Savags surprised him on Wednesday night by giving a party at his home in Waconda in honor of his forty eighth birthday. A pleasant evening was spent with cards and various games, followed by a musical program. Among those who participated were Arnette Collins, violin; Cecil Collins, piano; vocal selections by Daisy Colling, Walter Ebeling, of Portland, also favored the guests with violin selections. The program ended with a reading by A. (Continued on Page Four.)

Mrs. Lucy Roach, of Victoria, B. C., who has been the house guest of Mrs. S. E. Edwards since October, left last Sunday for her home in British Columbia.

Salem delegates to the state convocation of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen held in Eugene Wednesday, April 13, were Mrs. Mary S. Moores, Mrs. Eliza J. Downing and Mrs. Nellie

Varley. The national convocation of the brotherhood will be held in Denver, Colorado, in June and delegates from Oregon will be E. Seike, of Portland, J. E. Woodruff, of Pendleton, Mrs. Mary S. Moores, of Salem, and F. O. Taylor of Eugene.

The next state convention will be held in Salem in 1925.

Mrs. George Burnett entertained last night with a line party for six as a special birthday honor for Mrs. Marie Flint. A luncheon was served afterward by Mrs. Burnett at her home.

The second popular concert of the Salem Symphony orchestra will be given next Friday evening, April 22, at 8:15 in the armory. This will be the last of the season's concerts and the program is composed entirely of old-time songs, familiar to all music lovers and favorites. Three soloists, Miller Brevier, flute; Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, voice, and W. H. Mills, cornet, will appear. The Salem Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Dr. John R. Sites, has had an especially successful season.

Overture to "Pique Dame" Fran von Suppe
Flower-Song Otto Lange
Traumerel Robert Schumann
Agnus Dei Lamb (Lamb of God) George Bizet
Flute Solo, Mr. Miller Brevier
Funeral March* Ludwig van Beethoven
Menuet a l'antique Ignaz Paderewski
Hungarian Dance No. 5 Johannes Brahms
Songs (selected), Mrs. Carlton Smith
Prize-song from the "Meister-singer" Richard Wagner
Cornet Solo, W. H. Mills
Bridal-Chorus from "Lohengrin" Richard Wagner
Waltz from "Faust" Charles Gounod
Coronation-March from the "Prophet" Giacomo Meyerbeer
* Marcia funebre sulla morte d'un eroe (Funeral-March on the death of a hero); third movement from Beethoven's Piano Sonata op. 26 arranged by Theodore M. Tobani.

Mrs. F. R. Bowersox, of Monmouth, arrived in Salem yesterday and will be the guest of Mrs. F. G. Bowersox over the week end.

Friends of J. C. Savags surprised him on Wednesday night by giving a party at his home in Waconda in honor of his forty eighth birthday. A pleasant evening was spent with cards and various games, followed by a musical program. Among those who participated were Arnette Collins, violin; Cecil Collins, piano; vocal selections by Daisy Colling, Walter Ebeling, of Portland, also favored the guests with violin selections. The program ended with a reading by A. (Continued on Page Four.)

Mrs. Lucy Roach, of Victoria, B. C., who has been the house guest of Mrs. S. E. Edwards since October, left last Sunday for her home in British Columbia.

Salem delegates to the state convocation of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen held in Eugene Wednesday, April 13, were Mrs. Mary S. Moores, Mrs. Eliza J. Downing and Mrs. Nellie

Varley. The national convocation of the brotherhood will be held in Denver, Colorado, in June and delegates from Oregon will be E. Seike, of Portland, J. E. Woodruff, of Pendleton, Mrs. Mary S. Moores, of Salem, and F. O. Taylor of Eugene.

The next state convention will be held in Salem in 1925.

Mrs. George Burnett entertained last night with a line party for six as a special birthday honor for Mrs. Marie Flint. A luncheon was served afterward by Mrs. Burnett at her home.

Mrs. F. R. Bowersox, of Monmouth, arrived in Salem yesterday and will be the guest of Mrs. F. G. Bowersox over the week end.

Friends of J. C. Savags surprised him on Wednesday night by giving a party at his home in Waconda in honor of his forty eighth birthday. A pleasant evening was spent with cards and various games, followed by a musical program. Among those who participated were Arnette Collins, violin; Cecil Collins, piano; vocal selections by Daisy Colling, Walter Ebeling, of Portland, also favored the guests with violin selections. The program ended with a reading by A. (Continued on Page Four.)

Mrs. Lucy Roach, of Victoria, B. C., who has been the house guest of Mrs. S. E. Edwards since October, left last Sunday for her home in British Columbia.

Salem delegates to the state convocation of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen held in Eugene Wednesday, April 13, were Mrs. Mary S. Moores, Mrs. Eliza J. Downing and Mrs. Nellie

Varley. The national convocation of the brotherhood will be held in Denver, Colorado, in June and delegates from Oregon will be E. Seike, of Portland, J. E. Woodruff, of Pendleton, Mrs. Mary S. Moores, of Salem, and F. O. Taylor of Eugene.

The next state convention will be held in Salem in 1925.

Mrs. George Burnett entertained last night with a line party for six as a special birthday honor for Mrs. Marie Flint. A luncheon was served afterward by Mrs. Burnett at her home.

The second popular concert of the Salem Symphony orchestra will be given next Friday evening, April 22, at 8:15 in the armory. This will be the last of the season's concerts and the program is composed entirely of old-time songs, familiar to all music lovers and favorites. Three soloists, Miller Brevier, flute; Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, voice, and W. H. Mills, cornet, will appear. The Salem Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Dr. John R. Sites, has had an especially successful season.

Overture to "Pique Dame" Fran von Suppe
Flower-Song Otto Lange
Traumerel Robert Schumann
Agnus Dei Lamb (Lamb of God) George Bizet
Flute Solo, Mr. Miller Brevier
Funeral March* Ludwig van Beethoven
Menuet a l'antique Ignaz Paderewski
Hungarian Dance No. 5 Johannes Brahms
Songs (selected), Mrs. Carlton Smith
Prize-song from the "Meister-singer" Richard Wagner
Cornet Solo, W. H. Mills
Bridal-Chorus from "Lohengrin" Richard Wagner
Waltz from "Faust" Charles Gounod
Coronation-March from the "Prophet" Giacomo Meyerbeer
* Marcia funebre sulla morte d'un eroe (Funeral-March on the death of a hero); third movement from Beethoven's Piano Sonata op. 26 arranged by Theodore M. Tobani.

Mrs. F. R. Bowersox, of Monmouth, arrived in Salem yesterday and will be the guest of Mrs. F. G. Bowersox over the week end.

Friends of J. C. Savags surprised him on Wednesday night by giving a party at his home in Waconda in honor of his forty eighth birthday. A pleasant evening was spent with cards and various games, followed by a musical program. Among those who participated were Arnette Collins, violin; Cecil Collins, piano; vocal selections by Daisy Colling, Walter Ebeling, of Portland, also favored the guests with violin selections. The program ended with a reading by A. (Continued on Page Four.)

Mrs. Lucy Roach, of Victoria, B. C., who has been the house guest of Mrs. S. E. Edwards since October, left last Sunday for her home in British Columbia.

Salem delegates to the state convocation of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen held in Eugene Wednesday, April 13, were Mrs. Mary S. Moores, Mrs. Eliza J. Downing and Mrs. Nellie

Varley. The national convocation of the brotherhood will be held in Denver, Colorado, in June and delegates from Oregon will be E. Seike, of Portland, J. E. Woodruff, of Pendleton, Mrs. Mary S. Moores, of Salem, and F. O. Taylor of Eugene.

The next state convention will be held in Salem in 1925.

Mrs. George Burnett entertained last night with a line party for six as a special birthday honor for Mrs. Marie Flint. A luncheon was served afterward by Mrs.