Miss Mabel Williams sponsored a birthday surprise party on Friday evening when she entertained in honor of Norris Merrill.

Today's Hat Hint

Paris dictation in millinery calls in a loud tone for the big hat for Spring, hence Marie Guy sends Joseph this black horsehair capeline trimmed with satin ribbon and plumage caught in ribbon knots which jut from either side.

The evening was spent in games and at a late hour refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Pauline Pierce and Miss Georgia Smeed. Those present were Miss Nellie Logsdon, Miss Martha Hunt, Miss Esther Smeed, Miss Georgia Smeed, Miss Frances Tucker, Miss Jenette Olson, Miss Ethel Jones, Miss Mabel Williams, Roy Hammer, Donald Fleming, William Verbeck, Clarence Hunt, Adner Olson, Russell Forrest, Raymond Olson and the honor guest Norris Merrill.

Mrs. Hiram W. East, formerly Miss Bernice Clark, and daughter, Catherine, are expected to arrive in Salem tonight from Hood River. Mrs. East will visit here for a week or longer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clark, 1160 South Commercial.

Lucien E. Becker, of Portland, concert pianist, will appear in a piano lecture-recital at the high school auditorium Thursday evening, April 21, at 8:15. This program is being presented by the high school music department as a means of furthering musical education and appreciation. Mr. Becker is widely and favorably known as a musician. He has appeared several times in Salem and on each occasion has been enthusiastically received. Last February he gave the second of the Sunday organ recitals. The public is invited to attend the recital Thursday evening. A silver offering will be taken to help defray expenses. It is hoped that a large audience will greet Mr. Becker.

Miss Meva Blackerby, of Silverton, was a week end guest in Salem at the home of Mrs. W. C. Young, coming on Friday. On Sunday she motored back to Silverton, accompanied by Mrs. Young who spent the day there visiting.

Mrs. B. J. Miles spent part of last week visiting in Portland with her children, Mrs. Will Knight and Roderick Cook Miles.

A pleasant surprise to the B. J. Miles family of this city was a telephone call on Sunday announcing that Dr. Clyde was in Salem. Dr. Clyde, who was pastor of the church which Mr. and Mrs. Miles attended in Iowa about fifteen years ago, came to Salem from Corvallis for the day in exchange of pulpits. He was entertained for dinner and over night at the Miles home.

Visitors on Sunday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles were J. H. Gahlager, of Portland, and Dr. Coffin, of Whittier, California, and Asa Sutton, of Newberg.

The Writers section of the Salem Arts league will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. J. M. Clifford, 110 Luther street.

Fished With Two Lines; Is Arrested

Oregon City, Or., April 19.—C. C. Caldwell of Marquam was arrested by Game Warden Meads Friday on charges of fishing with two lines and was found guilty of the charge by a jury in the justice court and was fined $56 and costs. District Attorney Stipp prosecuted the case and Caldwell was defended by George C. Brownell.

Caldwell immediately filed notice of appeal and asked the court to return his fishing tackle pending the appeal. He claimed that he wanted this for the use of his wife, but the request was denied as the tackle was held as evidence.

Cates Leaves News.

Dallas, Or., April 19.—A letter from Lew A. Cates states that he has severed his connection with the Marshfield Daily News, which he has been managing. Mr. Cates says that a sale of the property is being negotiated to Elbert Bede of the Cottage Grove Sentinel. Mr. Cates also says that he and Mrs. Cates expect to spend the summer in Coos and Curry counties.

CATARRAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have catarrhal deafness or are even just a little hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parment (double strength), and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone losing hearing or who has catarrhal deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.
