Salem Vets To Try For Senior Vice-Commander

That they will seek to place one of their number in the senior vice-commandership of the department of Oregon was practically the decision last night of the delegates who will represent the Marion post at the convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars to be held in Portland May 8-9.

The meeting of the delegates was held after the regular meeting of the Marion post in the army and at which the action of the delegation on Saturday when delegates from Portland and different valley towns will meet in an informal conference to discuss the convention, was decided. The delegates from the Marion post will undoubtedly support the majority Portland candidate for the commandership.

After the conference Saturday the delegates and members of the local post will meet at a luncheon in the Marion hotel on noon.

Owing to the inability of LeRoy Hewitt to attend the Portland convention Lydie J. Page was elected as a delegate, and because of the increased number of members, since the last meeting, Bolton Hamble was elected as an additional delegate. The remaining representatives are Carl Abrams, Major H. O. Miller and Commander Hagsmann.

Installation of the officers elected at the previous meeting took place. W. E. Robbins was installed as quartermaster in place of Carl Abrams, and Fred Robertson was placed as chaplain in place of W. E. Lamb.

New members sworn in last night were: Walter Knight, P. P. Reigelman, G. E. Lewis, John D. Humphrey, Warren Wilborn, Clinton M. Cameron and Rex Stewart.

After business was conducted a big feed was served by Trustees Miller and Pomeroy.

Albany to Play Local Nine Here On Next Sunday

If Jupiter Sorenator can get the better of his unwelcome cousin, Jupiter Pluvius, next Sunday, the Salem Senators will meet up with Albany baseball men at 3 o'clock at Oxford park.

This became known this morning when Jack Hayes, of the local team, announced that final arrangements had been made. Albany, he says, has a very creditable organization, and he predicts a close game.

One week from Sunday the Senators will journey to Albany where a return game will be played on the Albany field. Recent rains have held up practice of the local nine.

Marshall Field Will Exclude Marsh, Ruling

Springfield, Ill., April 21.—Henry Anthony Marsh, reputed son of Henry Field of Chicago and the London chorus girl, Peggy Marsh, is not entitled to inheritance of any of the Marshall Field millions, the Illinois supreme court decided this morning in ruling that the Marshall Field will specifically exempt from inheritance any illegitimate offspring.

House Ransacked By Burglars But Very Little Stolen

Had the results of their efforts matched the industry of thieves who yesterday ransacked the home of one Mrs. Pennington, who resides on the Jefferson road near Salem, Mrs. Pennington would have been badly victimized. Actually, however, she is short but about 70 cents in cash, a little fruit and a half loaf of bread.

Returning home after a day spent elsewhere, Mrs. Pennington found that her house had been entered and had been thoroughly gone over by thieves. Nothing was left untouched, according to her report to Sheriff O. D. Bower. The thieves have not been apprehended.

Chickens Missed, Gypsies Ordered On By Salem Cops

"There is a band of gypsies camped near my home," Arthur Marshall, 455 South Church street, notified the police last evening. "Also," continued Mr. Marshall, "I have been missing chickens from my home recently."

Officer White, detailed to investigate, found the gypsies. They agreed to be orderly and to move on today, according to the police-figured this guy could get away with a big safe

"REMEMBER THE WATER WHO USED TO SERVE US IN THE DUTCHMAN'S?"
 "YEAH! WHAT ABOUT HIM?"

"THEY'VE ARRESTED HIM FOR STEALING A PIANO!"
 "AN OUTRAGE. I CALL IT. I DON'T THINK HE'S GUILTY!"

"BUT HE'S CONFESSED! HE BROKE DOWN AND SAID HE STOLE THE PIANO IN A MOMENT OF WEAKNESS!"

"IN A MOMENT OF WEAKNESS! FOR THE LOVE OF MIKE, WHAT WOULD HE HAVE TAKEN IF HE HAD YIELDED IN A MOMENT WHEN HE FELT STRONG?"
