Of Interest To Women

Rose Queen Is Favorite In This City

Miss Dorothy Metschan, who has been chosen as Rose Queen of the Rose Festival in Portland, is well known in Salem where she has visited often and is a favorite in the younger set. She is a niece of Mrs. L. F. Griffith and Mrs. Frank Meredith and is at present a student in Mills college, at Oakland, California. Miss Metschan is a member of a prominent Portland family and is a young woman of great beauty and charm. Her friends in Salem are pleased to know that she has been chosen to fill this place of honor.

New York Girl Champion Typist

Miss Winifred Holt, known as "The Lady of the Lighthouse," the home of the New York Association for the Blind, and two girl pupils of "The Lighthouse," visited the White House in Washington. The girls, Jennie Williams and Veronica E. Mazieka, both blind, have been trained in sewing and weaving so that they are self-supporting. The girls presented Mrs. Harding with a "Polly Prim" apron, a book cover and purse, made of silken brocade woven in Hardi; "blue" and silver. Miss Holt's visit to Washington inaugurated the $2,000,000 campaign for the relief of the blinded men, women and children of America, France and Italy. President Harding endorsed the campaign. The photograph shows Mrs. Harding (left) receiving the gifts from the pupils.

Miss Otto Married In Southland

Interesting to her friends in Salem is the account of the wedding of Miss Amanda Otto to W. E. Marlon on last Tuesday in Oakland, California. Mrs. Marlon, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Otto, of Portland, and has many friends in Salem where she has visited often. The Portland Oregonian has to say about the wedding:

"The many friends of Miss Amanda Otto and W. E. Marlon were greatly interested in their marriage, news of which was received in Portland on Wednesday. Miss Otto and Mr. Marlon were married on Tuesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Peterson of Oakland, Cal., the Rev. Morrison of the First Congregational church officiating. Mrs. Peterson formerly was Edna West, at one time a resident of Portland and a friend of the bride. As Amanda Otto the bride was well known to a large circle of friends here and is sincerely beloved and admired for her sweetness and charm of manner that has endeared her to all who know her. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Otto of Jarrett street and is a member of a well known and prominent family. She has a number of relatives in Lincoln, Neb., where the family formerly lived. "Mr. Marlon formerly was assistant city editor of The Oregonian and is now secretary to the Portland civil service commission. Mr. and Mrs. Marlon went to Los Angeles on Thursday and will remain in California for several weeks."

Plea Made To D. A. R. That Each Give Four Babies To The Nation

New York, May 9.—Daughters of the American Revolution, take an active part in America's Evolution.

Thus Kathryn Smith Johnson, of Los Angeles, charges her sister D. A. R.'s, who have been in convention in Washington.

Give four children to the Republic, the California member urges each feminine descendant of pioneers.

Don't permit the sturdy strain of our native stock to die out; advance Americanization by increasing; conserve their early fortitude. So the Western delegate offers her resolution.

Various comment has grown out of the suggestion of Kathryn Smith Johnson, coming from fellow members. Clubwomen, mothers and women by whom the care of children has been taken up as a social problem. Among these last is Mrs. Oliver Harriman, a mother and a philanthropist, who approves the resolution.

Mrs. Harriman Favors Plan "I think the idea is a splendid one," said Mrs. Harriman recently "It is a good thing to realize and put into words the responsibility that is due the republic.

"To rear children in America, ideals is a fine ambition for women and it is the thing that makes life happiest.

"There is no real life for a woman without children. That is all a woman's life. It is an excellent idea to make wives feel this responsibility to the country, as well as to themselves and to their families. I hope the resolution is adopted by the D. A. R."

Some members of this organization agree with Mrs. Harriman's views and other do not.

Source of Envy. Mrs. Simon Barnuch, regent of the Knickerbocker Chapter of the D. A. R., heartily endorses the resolution.

"I agree with the idea that the descendants of the pioneers should help to perpetuate their race. I am happy to say that I am the mother of four glorious sons in 'self. "Every woman envies the mother of children. We may occasionally feel sorry for the very poor woman with a large family, but as a usual thing the childless woman covets the little ones of the happy mother.

"Her joy will come afterward to the mother of many. These will be recompensed later for the woman who has endured hardships for her offspring. They bring the greater measure of happiness.

"We should have proper training for motherhood. Not the promiscuous street corner knowledge of parenthood, but careful training given in our churches.

"Mothers should rear their children carefully, be good mothers, assist little ones to good citizenship."

But just because one is D. A. R. does not necessarily signify that one agrees with other national members who may happen to offer resolutions.

Mrs. Oredo M. Bostwick, member of the Washington Heights Chapter of the D. A. R., expresses herself as greatly opposed to the adopting of any such resolution.

"I think that such action is an impertinence to all the members and to every American woman," said Mrs. Bostwick.

"Family life and the size of a family are personal matters—they cannot be regulated by adopting resolutions.

"I realize that our foreign population seems to have more children than the native-born Americans and those descended from the early settlers, but I do not think good American woman is shirking her duties.

"Who is this Kathryn Johnson? Is she married or single and how many children has she?

"Women are intelligent enough to realize that they should have children and rear them properly, but to say that every woman should have four is ridiculous.

"No woman wants any interference in her own personal affairs—she resents it.

"To hear about this makes me wish I had gone to the convention in Washington. I certainly would have something to say against such a resolution.

"The American race won't die out. Our women are as good mothers, as responsible in their views on duty to country and family as any in the world. And they are patriotic enough not to want the newcomers to our shores to become the only perpetrators of our race.

"But the suggestion that each woman pledge herself to bring four children into the world, regardless of circumstances, is simply outrageous. Such resolutions and ideas belong in the sacred confines of the family circle and not elsewhere.

"I have been a mother twice, and have lost one child," Mrs. Bostwick added. "I believe every American wife will wish to have children and that we do not need to worry about the future of our country."

Mrs. Bostwick is, besides being a D. A. R., a member of the Holland Dames and first vice-president of the Washington Headquarters society.

Whether or not the descendants of revolutionary pioneers shall each give to the country four more who may date back their ancestry to 1776 has not yet been passed as a resolution, or unanimously agreed upon as a principle.

The idea is not without its merits, but it is a fact that its apparently arbitrary regulation of families might antagonize many who cherish views of independence, especially regarding numbers of offspring.

What's New On The Market

With the fishermen's strike on the Columbia there may be a shortage of salmon. The strike is the result of the price announcement of the canneries at the opening of the season of nine cents a pound for fish in the round (undressed fish.) The strike, however, is not against the fresh fish markets which are paying a little higher price, but it has prevented a large number of fishermen from putting their nets in the water and therefore affected the supply. The strikers claim that it cost close to $1000 to put their nets in the Columbia and about $275 to put them in at Oregon City, and therefore, with such an initial expense, they cannot afford to fish at the prices offered by the canneries.

The best time for home canning of salmon will be when the fish shortage is over with the present difficulty passed, and the season in full swing making prices lower. This should come between July 15 and August 15.

Fresh peas are up to 20 cents a pound because of a slight scarcity. Tomatoes, because of the necessity of repacking to cull out the bad ones, have also risen and are now 30 cents a pound. Bunched vegetables, including radishes, onions, rhubarb, remain at former prices of three for a quarter. Strawberries dropped on the wholesale market today so slightly that the retail price is not affected.

A few days of good weather will see vegetables increase in quantity and quality and lower in price.

Spokane, Wash. — Lewiston-Pomeroy trapshooters won the high score of 933 in the Inland Empire telegraphic trapshooting tournament which closed yesterday.

"We should have proper training for motherhood. Not the promiscuous street corner knowledge of parenthood, but careful training given in our churches.

"Mothers should rear their children carefully, be good mothers, assist little ones to good citizenship."

Women Magistrates

Mrs. E. J. Baldwin

Every city of any size now has its women attorneys, but the election or appointment of women to the bench is still rare enough to attract wide attention. San Francisco boasts of Mrs. E. L. Baldwin, who is the "ex-officio judge" of the juvenile court. Mrs. Baldwin has a reputation of tempering justice with mercy in deciding the cases before her. A regular judge passes upon Mrs. Baldwin's decisions.

A TRIAL WILL CONVINCE YOU.

NOTHING that we could say would so thoroughly convince you of the value of Chamberlain's Tablets as a personal trial. We can tell you of thousands who have been permanently cured of chronic constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver, but this will have little weight with you as compared to a personal trial. That always convinces.
