Prune Crop Near Dallas To Be Small

Young Trees May Bear 50 Percent, But Old Orchards Hard Hit Says Brown

Practically no return from the older orchards and not more than a 50 per cent of normal yield from the young trees are the prospects which the prune growers in the vicinity of Dallas face this year, according to F. V. Brown, prominent fruit grower of that district, who has just made a partial survey of the orchards in the neighborhood.

There is no hope for the old orchards, Mr. Brown reports, all of them having suffered heavily and many being completely stripped of the green fruit. Few of the growers claim that the old orchard crops will be more than a total failure.

Warm weather will, however, probably save a large part of the crop on the younger trees, in which the cool days have prevented the proper development of plant food (sugar), Mr. Brown believes, and he predicts better than a 50 per cent crop if the weather clears within the next few days.

Mr. Brown's survey included growers from Salt Creek to the Mt. Pisgah orchards. Harry Woods, an extensive grower of prunes in that district, predicts a yield of 15 per cent of normal for his orchards, and Ralph Riggs, another large grower, estimates his crop at one-fourth of normal, or the smallest he has ever harvested.

Dave Peters, whose prune land holdings are extensive, reports that his trees have shed all of their fruit and that he will not attempt to run his dryer this year. He has already cancelled his order for fuel wood.

Springfield To Get New School

Springfield, Or., May 11.—Springfield is assured a new high school building. The proposal to bond the district in the sum of $40,000 for the erection of a new building was carried at the special election held here. The vote stood 154 in favor, to 94 against. The proposed building is intended to accommodate 200 students, which is about 75 more than the present enrollment. Each additional student means the expenditure of several hundred dollars with the business men of this city during the year.

Hill Divorce Case Settled Out of Court

Independence, Ore., May 10.—The divorce case instituted by Mrs. Hill several weeks ago in the Clackamas county circuit court against her husband, Verd Hill of this city, has been settled out of court and Mr. Hill will not appear in the case to be tried in Oregon City this week. In the agreement reached between the couple Mrs. Hill is to have a decree of divorce the care and custody of the minor child, $3000 in money and an appropriation of $5000 for the support of the daughter until she becomes of age.

Mrs. Hill instituted divorce proceedings in Linn county circuit court nearly a year ago asking for a divorce on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. The case attracted wide attention in Linn and Polk counties. The amount of money involved in the case aggregated approximately $40,000. The case was tried in Judge Bingham's court, and after trial lasting two or three days the judge threw the case out of court. Mr. Hill was obliged to pay the costs. Failing in the Linn county court she soon after started another case in the circuit court of Clackamas county.

Home Brew Found In Vacant House

Albany, Or., May 11.—Drop by drop, drip by drip, down the stairs, out the front door and even into the street malt ambrosia made its yeasty way and smelled to high heaven the while. Neighbors living around the house on East First and Penniwinkle creek took notice of the smell and told Sheriff C. M. Kendall about it. Sunday, therefore, the sheriff got the door to the vacant house open. Upstairs he found two 50-gallon kegs of home-brew. No one occupied the house, and there was no furniture about. It is suggested the home-bred, like Topsy, just grew.

Threats To Burn Homes Lead To Arrest of Man

The Dalles, Or., May 11.—Following threats to burn a number of houses near his ranch at Wapinitia, John Weberg was arrested by Sheriff Chrisman and lodged in the county jail pending investigation as to his sanity. Weberg is reputed to be dangerous and is said to have made threats to kill several of his neighbors, following altercations. Deputy Sheriffs McClaskey and Coleman accompanied Chrisman on the trip.

Body of Lost Woman Found By Fisherman

Astoria, Or., May 11.—The body of Mrs. Anna Goober, wife of Antone Goober, was found in the upper Necanicum river, near Hamlet, on Saturday by a trout fisherman who was whipping that stream. The woman had been missing since Thursday afternoon and is believed to have fallen overboard while working a log that had fallen across the stream.

Articles Stolen from Church Are Found In Attic

Hubbard, Or., May 11.—This stove, canned goods and other things that were stolen from the Hopewell church last winter during the Bible normal were found in the house on the old "Kunsey" place east of here which was vacated by Charles Hamilton last fall about a month before the things were taken. These articles were stowed away in the parrot and are now in the hands of the party to whom they rightfully belong. Some of the canned goods and cured meats had already been used up before the cache was discovered.

Program For Annual Varsity Fete Complete

University of Oregon, Eugene, May 11.—Junior week-end at the University of Oregon, the big annual event which students all over the state look forward to, will come this year on May 19, 20, 21 and 22. The purpose of junior week-end is to establish a closer relation between the students of the University of Oregon and high school students throughout the state.

The program, in brief, follows: Wednesday — Preliminaries of state high school debate contest.

Thursday evening—Canoe fete. Friday (campus day)—Underclassmen tug-of-war, followed by burning of green caps; finals of debate contest; baseball game between Oregon and O. A. C.; Pacific coast tennis tournament; and in the evening the senior class play, "Nothing But the Truth," at the Eugene theatre.

On Saturday the finals of the tennis tournament will be played off and there will be a second game of baseball with O. A. C. At 1:30 p. m., on Hayward field, the Pacific Coast conference track meet will be held for the first time at the university.

Another feature of the week-end will be the first convention for editors of high school papers, which will be held under the auspices of the school of journalism. The events of the week-end will be filmed, and the films will later be sent out through the extension division to various parts of the state.

Waterloo Youth Indicted For Stealing Fowls

Albany, Or., May 11.—Sheriff C. M. Kendall arrested Ralph Waters of near Waterloo on a charge of chicken stealing. He was indicted by the recent grand jury. Waters was lodged in the county jail. He is alleged to have stolen a number of chickens at Lebanon from a farmer, in companionship with Ed Stricker, also of that place. Stricker was arrested recently by Sheriff Kendall and allowed his liberty on $250 bail, put up by his father. The trial will be held at the September session of the circuit court.

Fire Destroys Farm Home Near Gray's Station

Albany, Or., May 11.—Fire destroyed the home of Oscar H. Ehrlick, near Gray station, five miles south of Albany. Practically no clothes except those being worn by members of the family were saved from the flames, and but a little furniture was removed. Mr. Ehrlick places the loss of house and furniture at $4000 and unless it was a defective flue, is not able to give the cause of the fire, which was well under way, even to the attic, when it was discovered.

THE U. S. ROYAL CORD
A famous tire—and a famous tread. Acknowledged among motorists and dealers alike as the world's foremost example of Cord tire building. Always delivering the same repeated economy, tire after tire, and season after season. The stripe around the sidewall is registered as a trade-mark in the U. S. Patent Office.

How you can measure tire value in 1921

OFTEN it's surprising the number of different tire views that come out in a chance talk at the curb or in the leisure of a friend's garage. Almost every day you come across the man human enough to believe he can outguess the cut-price tag on "job-lots," "discontinued lines" and "surplus stocks." His opposite is the hard-pan car owner who sticks year in and year out to a standard brand as the only rational economy.

country to another to "find a market." There are 92 U. S. Factory Branches. Each one gets its share of U. S. Tires. There is a broad, constant, even distribution of U. S. Tires always going on from these Branches to the dealer. Buy a U. S. Tire anywhere—in a community of 500 people or even less—and you get a fresh, live tire of current production—with all the original service and mileage the factory put into it.

The owner of a medium or light-weight car stands on equal ground with every other car owner. Any United States Tire is a universal full money's worth—backed up with a leadership policy of equal quality, buying convenience and price for everybody.

Many will remember the scarcity of U. S. Tires last year. A hardship at the time, but a benefit now. There are no U. S. Tires to be worked off—no accumulations—no forced selling of any U. S. brand—no shipping of tires from one part of the
