Bringing Up Father — By George McManus.

S. H. Van Trump was in Silverton a few days ago in company with a grange organizer, J. G. McDonald. They were attempting to interest the farmers in that vicinity in the matter of organizing a grange in Silverton. There are now nine granges in Marion county, it is said, but the Silverton district has never been organized. In visiting among the farmers it is learned that there is a strong sentiment in favor of a grange and it is probable that a society will be organized in the near future.
