

News Notes of Salem and Vicinity Briefly Told

Coming Events

May 13—County Sunday school business meeting, Salem public library, 8 o'clock.
 May 14—Learn to swim.
 May 15—Edwin Markham lecture, high school auditorium, 8 p. m.
 May 17—Dramatic recitation, Willamette university, Waller hall, by Fred McGee and Martha Ferguson.
 May 18—Community get-together, Commercial club.
 May 27—Salem Symphony orchestra concert for near east benefit, armory, 8.15.
 June 15—Minnesota association picnic, state fair grounds.

Court House Notes

Probate Court

Order approving first semi-annual report of the administrator of the estate of Henry L. Koester.
 Order approving executor's semi-annual report of the estate of Lara Olson.
 Order appointing administrator of the estate of Mari L. Trask.

Party larceny thieves not only stole the gasoline out of Dr. John E. Sites automobile but also that of G. G. Shipley's car, in the same garage Wednesday night. Entrance was effected by breaking a window.

Twelve golf players of the Eugene country club will play with the Salem team here Sunday afternoon. Corvallis will also play in Salem on Sunday. May 15, Salem and Eugene will go to the Benton county seat for the final match.

The Central Howell school closes next Friday with a big dinner at noon and a school entertainment in the evening. The teacher and students are making plans for a big day and evening entertainment.

Mrs. Fred Tredgold of Silverton arrived in Salem today. Mrs. Tredgold will be here tomorrow and they will spend the week end at the home of her brother, N. C. Ebbas, and family on 21st street.

The funeral of A. Hirschberg was held in Albany at 10:15 this morning. The body was shipped to Albany by Rigdon and Son, and interment was made in the Albany cemetery.

J. T. Hunt and W. A. White were in Stayton and Aumsville on county road business yesterday.

Ray machines going to Albany to ball game Sunday and having spare room please call Jack Hayes at 155.

Senator Louis Lachmund, former Senator C. P. Bishop and Frank Deckerback were among Salem visitors in Portland Thursday.

Dean Geo. H. Alden of Willamette university and Miss Margaret Alden spent Thursday in Portland.

A program and dinner is being given tonight at the community hall by Woman's Progressive club of Salem Heights.

Don't bake these warm days, Gray Belle French pastry is nice for dessert.

R. K. Page, Salem attorney, was a business visitor in Eugene yesterday.

James R. Linn is on a trip to inspect his ranch near Bend with a party of Californians.

Robert Rahl, publisher of the Methodist Mail-Tribune, was a business visitor in Salem yesterday.

Attorney Roy Shields of this city is in McMinnville for a few days where he is trying a case.

H. V. Reed of Portland is in the city on business for a few days.

J. T. Chmook of Tillamook transacted business in Salem yesterday.

J. H. Lyons is in Salem on business today from Portland.

OREGON theatre

MARY MILES MINTER
 IN
The Little Clown
 "HOLY SMOKE"
 FOX NEWS
TODAY

Bringing Up Father — By George McManus.

N. C. Hubbs returned yesterday from a trip through Polk county where he was working in the interest of the Marion Auto company. He went to Perrydale over the hills, thence to McCoy, Amity and Hopewell and back home over some of the worst roads in the country. He traveled a distance of 67.5 miles and averaged 19.3 miles per gallon of gas, driving a Studebaker.

Walter L. Tooze will address the students of the Willamette university this afternoon, talking on the soldiers aid amendment which will be voted upon at a special state election next month.

A bicycle found recently on North Church street, was yesterday claimed at the police station by Austin Frazier, 1334 North Summer street. The wheel, he said, was stolen from the high school last Monday.

C. I. Lewis, assistant general manager of the Oregon Growers Cooperative association, and W. L. Staley went to Dallas today to deliver addresses to members of the organization there this afternoon.

White his car was parked at 966 South 12th street yesterday, some of its accessories were stolen, Harry Chodwick, 1223 Perry street, complained to the police last night.

George King of Salem will leave this week end for Oregon City where he will work as pavement inspector. He is employed by the state highway department.

His bicycle was either stolen or taken by mistake last night, R. J. Young, of this city, told the police. The wheel was taken from McCornack hall, he said.

Sunday school workers will hold a business meeting at the library at 8 o'clock this evening. Rev. W. T. Milliken will conduct a short devotional meeting.

Charles MacLeod Maurice, of Portland, representing the General Motors Acceptance corporation, of San Francisco, was in Salem today transacting business.

Geo. Markay of Everett, Wash., was in Salem yesterday looking after business matters.

A. D. Hutchinson of Fern Hill was a business visitor in Salem yesterday.

H. P. Evans of Portland transacted business in the city yesterday afternoon.

Handy rolls of white paper, useful for many purposes, 10 cent up. Capital Journal office.

Are you from "Missouri" AND HAVE TO BE SHOWN!
 If such is the case and you imagine your whiskers are too tough for the AUTO-STROP RAZOR you come in and let's talk it over.

THE AUTO-STROP RAZOR
 It strops, shaves and cleans without taking apart. Five Hundred shaves guaranteed from each twelve blades.
 We will loan you one of these wonderful razors on 30 days FREE TRIAL. Pay no money—just use the razor—if you can get along without it, simply return it to us. A postal will bring it to you.

Ray L. Farmer

Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent, left this morning for Pendleton to deliver an address to a meeting of parent-teachers associations being held there. She will return to Portland tomorrow to talk to the Oregon state teachers association which will convene there.

Clerk's annual reports and budget blanks are being sent out by the office of the county school superintendent to the various school boards throughout the county to be returned after the annual June meeting of the different organizations to that office.

Fred Lockley of the Oregon Journal spent Friday in Salem en route home from Corvallis where he was a speaker before the Oregon authors conference.

Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county superintendent of schools, visited the Scotts Mills schools this week.

L. G. Hayford, Salem real estate dealer, is attending the realty dealers' convention in Walla Walla, Wash.

A. W. Morris of the Morris Lumber company in Eugene, was a business visitor in Salem yesterday.

Attorney W. H. Holmes of Portland transacted business in Salem yesterday.

Picnic time is here, include some French pastry we make, in the lunch, The Gray Belle. 115*

Miss Minnie Pettyjohn is visiting for a few days at Walla Walla, Wash.

Phil Fischer of the Waldo hills was a business visitor in Salem yesterday.

A. C. Thomas, proprietor of the Stayton meat market, was a visitor in Salem yesterday.

Frank Miller and wife of Aurora were in the city on business yesterday.

The Snikpoh play which was to be given tonight at high auditorium is indefinitely postponed on account of sickness of one of the principals of cast.

Get other's prices then see us, we have the goods and guarantee to beat all competition. See H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 116*

Superintendent Ackerman of the state normal school at Monmouth was in Salem on business last evening.

W. H. Cockle of Independence is in Salem on business for the day.

Alex Merrifield was in town from Aumsville last evening.

Died
 WINELAND—At the residence, 1041 south 13th street, Wednesday, May 11th, George W. Wineland, age 76 years, Grand Army veteran, father of Howard M. of Lincoln, Neb., Fred L. of Belleville, Kans., Mrs. Lena M. Lisle of Salem, Mrs. Grace Carruthers of Alberta, Canada, and Mrs. Florence Patton of Blue Springs, Neb. The body is at Rigdon's. Funeral probably Monday. Announcement later.

HIRSCHBERG—In this city, Thursday, May 12th, A. (Duke) Hirschberg, age 61 years, brother of H. Hirschberg of Independence. The body was forwarded this Friday, morning by Rigdon & Son to Albany where funeral services will take place at 2 o'clock.

WEBB & CLOUGH CO.
 Funeral Directors.

W. T. Rigdon Lloyd T. Rigdon
W. T. Rigdon & Son
 Leading Undertakers

Seven Divorce Cases Heard In Court Today

Seven divorce default cases were brought before Judge George Bingham of department No. 2 of the circuit court today. In each of the suits the defendants had failed to appear and there was little testimony given with the exception of that of the plaintiff's substantiated by a few statements from important witnesses.

The case of Sarah M. Nerling vs. Harold Bert Nerling the decree was granted with a $1000 alimony after the district attorney, John Carson waived examination. The judge, however, questioned the plaintiff and her mother finding that little was known about Nerling before the marriage took place. Testimony given by the plaintiff was to the effect that while she worked in restaurants her husband loafed and consumed her wages in eating at the place of her employment.

YOUR GOING TO BE TICKLED WITH JOHNNY HINES IN TORCHY'S NIGHTHOOD AT THE OREGON SUN. MON. TUES

Other cases heard were: Thelma Lucht vs. Henry Lucht; T. J. Wood vs. Mamie Wood; Jessie M. Stratton vs. Harry C. Stratton; Mary E. Buckbee vs. Percy Buckbee; Phoebe Anna Payne vs. Henry B. Payne.

Special Merchants Lunch 35c
 OPEN 11 A. M. TO 8 P. M.
Nomking Cafe
 Upstairs at 162 1/2 N. COM'L St.
 American or Chinese Dishes.
 Open 11 a. m. to 1 a. m.
 MUSIC and DANCING
 Every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights
 JAZZ ORCHESTRA

Argentina has twenty-two public holidays during the year, Germany nineteen, Italy nineteen, Rumania twenty-four and India twenty-one.

Love, the jeweler, Salem.
 Baby chicks, 555 State St.

NOW PLAYING
TOM MIX
 In His Greatest Western Thriller
"PRAIRIE TRAILS"
 Also Latest News Laughing Gas
GRAND
 Where the Big Shows Play

"Is Religious Liberty In Danger In Free America?"

MEN IMPRISONED FOR WORSHIPING GOD ACCORDING TO THE DICTATES OF THEIR OWN CONSCIENCE. THE CELEBRATED KING CASE, OBION COUNTY, TENNESSEE CIRCUIT COURT.

This remarkable case in complete trial will be given in duplicate tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Seventh Day Adventist Church, North Fifth street and Gaines Avenue.

Citizens of Salem will be given an opportunity to see where Sunday Blue Laws lead to.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty." Let us keep religion out of the civil domain. Let us keep Oregon's statute book clean from Sunday laws.

DON'T FAIL TO COME—TOMORROW EVENING—BRING A FRIEND. ADMITTANCE FREE

OXFORDS Unusually Smart

In every woman's nature there is "Beauty Instinct" which is reflected in her "Good Taste" as we call it. It is the Woman of "good taste" who will most appreciate the graceful lines of the both pretty and practical Oxfords Cuban and Military Heels in Brown, Gray and White.

BUSTER BROWN SHOE STORE

125 North Commercial Streets
 SCIENTIFIC FITTING OF FOOT DEFORMITIES.

THE SEASON OF THE SKIRT

Fashion has smiled on the Skirt again. Perhaps it has been the friendly influence of the "Sport Coat" and the handsome Sweaters, but at all events the SKIRT has been newly developed into a garment of greater style, beauty and variety.

The models are so different and varied. We have just received a shipment of the new WOOL PLAIDS and STRIPES and a few CREPE-DE-CHINE Skirts, that are wonderful models of newness, charm and practicability sizes from 25 to 30 we have marked them close for fast selling.

It means quick action if you secure one of the Skirts. $12.95

MILLER'S
 Good Goods