JASSON LEE MEMORIAL M. E. CHURCH—Corner Water and Jefferson streets, Thomas Acheson, pastor. Due to the faithful efforts of our church officers and the spiritual tone of all our services, every department in the organization is growing steadily. We most cordially invite the public to worship with us at the following services on Sunday, May 15: A prayer-meeting for workers and others who can come will convene at 9:15 a. m. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. with Charles Hareman as superintendent. Our school is well organized. We have classes for all ages. Strangers always welcome. Two services will be held at 11 a. m. The Rev. C. D. Day will bring a timely message to the members of the adult church. The pastor and his staff of workers will meet the young people of the community for the formal organization of the junior church. This meeting will be held in the primary department room in the church basement. We are especially interested in young people between the ages of eight and sixteen. The junior choir will lead the singing. There will be a formal reception of young people to the junior church. Parents who are interested in the religious welfare of their children are invited to cooperate with us. Epworth league meets at 7 p. m. These meetings are full of interest and spirit. Plan to be present. At 8 p. m. Dr. Huddleston, returned missionary from the Philippine islands, will bring the message of the evening. This will be a great service. Plan to be there. Good music and a good time at all the meetings.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—Church street, between Chemeketa and Center. Sabbath school meets at 9:45 a. m., J. H. Albert, superintendent. A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the church and congregation to join the Bible school. Preaching by the pastor, Ward Willis Long, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Topic for the morning, "The Dynamic of Evangelism." Subject for the evening, "The Discipline of Crisis." Those without a church home and strangers in the city will find a welcome among us at all services. The Intermediate C. E. meets at 5 p. m. Senior C. E. at 6:30 p. m. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. You are urged to renew your interest in the mid-week service.

WEST SALEM METHODIST EPISCOPAL—A. Hawthorne, pastor, Sunday school 10:30 a. m., Edward B. Ashurst superintendent. Epworth League 7 p. m., Ruth Patton leader. Public worship 9 p. m. with sermon by the pastor. Weekly prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 8. Everybody welcome.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL—Liberty and Center street, W. C. Kantner, minister, 10 a. m. Sunday school with classes for all, under competent teachers. W. I. Staley, superintendent, 11 a. m. "The Man Who was Too Busy." 7 p. m. Christian Endeavor, Miss Esther Mason, leader, 8 p. m. "Jesus Christ and the Electrical Age." This will be followed by a three reel motion picture, "The Benefactor." It is an interesting history and illustration of the life work of Edison, the celebrated inventor. Everybody will want to see this picture.

CHURCH OF GOD—1346 N. Church street, J. J. Gillespie, pastor, Sunday school 10 a. m. Mrs. Nora Van Lydegraf, superintendent. Good spiritual teachers for all the classes; and the Sunday school is increasing in numbers and interest. Preaching services at 11 a. m. Subject "The Acts of the Apostles." Young peoples meeting 6:30 and preaching following at 7:30 p. m. Regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7:45 p. m. Come and join in the service of God with us, it will do you good.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL—Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, minister, corner Church and State streets, 9:15 old time class meeting, 9:45 Sunday school, Alpheus Gillette, Supt. 11 a. m. sermon by Bishop Edwin H. Hughes of the Boston area, 3 p. m. service at Old Peoples' home, 13th and Ferry, 7 p. m. Junior, intermediate and senior leagues, Miss Florence Davies leads the services, 8 p. m. sermon by Bishop Charles W. Burns of the Helena area, Thursday 7:30 p. m. church night, 7:30 to 8:05 an address followed by the devotional period.

FIRST M. E.—Not often is the Methodist church, and all others interested, accorded the privilege of hearing the bishops of our church, except one at the annual conference. But Sunday, May 15, we will have two with us and Wednesday the 18th two more. Bishop Edwin H. Hughes of the Boston area, will occupy the pulpit of First church in the morning and Bishop Charles W. Burns in the evening. Then, on Wednesday forenoon, the formal inauguration of Rev. E. C. Hickman as president of Kimball school of Theology, will occur with Bishop Thomas Nicholson of Chicago, the principal speaker. On the evening of the same day Bishop Homer C. Stuntz, former missionary bishop but now of the Omaha area, will deliver an address of special interest to students as well as people in general. The public is most cordially invited to come and enjoy these addresses, from men of great minds.

EVANGELIST BELL will speak tomorrow evening at 7:30 in Union hall, Court street near High. His subject will be "The Third Angel's Message." It is the warning from God against the worship of the beast of Revelation, and his image; and connected with it is the greatest judgment ever pronounced against men. To be forewarned is to be forearmed. Prof. L. C. Colcord of Portland, will be with us again. Come and enjoy his service of song.

NAZARENE—Nineteenth and Marion streets, one block of Center on Nineteenth, Chemeketa car Sunday school at 9:45, W. B. Hardy, superintendent. Classes for all ages with good Christian teachers who teach the Bible. Preaching at 11 and at 8 o'clock. Subject for morning message, "The Bible, Standard of Christian Unity." Evangelistic service in the evening. Young people's bible study at 7 p. m. and at 7:30 two prayer meetings, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the regular weekly prayer meeting. This is the best of all. Large attendance and deep interest in spiritual growth is being manifested. You are invited, A. Wells, pastor, Florence Wells, deaconess.

ST. PAUL'S—Chemeketa and Church streets. Services for Whitesunday, which is one of the five great festivals of the Christian year, 7:30 a. m. low celebration of the holy communion; 9:45 a. m. church school; 11 a. m. high celebration and sermon, "The Birthday of the Church," preceded by a short children's sermon; 7:30 p. m. evening prayer and address, "The Pentecostal Blessing." Everybody welcome. Chas. H. Powell, rector.

CHRISTIAN AND MISSIONARY ALLIANCE—Next meeting will be held on Wednesday afternoon, May 13, instead of on Thursday, at 622 South Commercial street. Mr. Fee will conduct Bible study as usual beginning at 2:15 o'clock. A very cordial invitation is extended to all.

FIRST BAPTIST—William T. Milliken, pastor. Men and women hold separate prayer services at 9:30 a. m. Bible school at 9:45. H. E. Hewitt, superintendent. Morning worship at 11. Sermon, "Does the Bible Teach that there will be a General Resurrection?" Evening worship at 8, sermon, "Sanctification by the Blood." All departments of the B. Y. P. U. meet at 6:50. Senior leader, Pansy Milliken, Topic, "Soul Winning, the end of Endeavor." Second division, Myrtle Jensen, leader, Topic, "How to Enjoy One's Work." Intermediate division, leader, Alma Farmer, Topic, "A Gospel Church." On Monday evening the normal class meets at 7:30. B. Y. P. U. training class at 8:15. Each holds for just 45 minutes. Visitors welcomed at all services.

FIRST UNITED BRETHREN, Yew Park—Bible school at 10 o'clock a. m. Classes for all ages; competent teachers. The school will close at 10:45, at which time a program will be given in honor of the fathers and mothers, consisting of songs, recitations, and a speech by Mrs. Dora Corby. Said program has been principally arranged by the junior Christian Endeavor society. Senior C. E. will meet at 7 p. m., preaching at 8. Subject, "Paul's Nephew." Mid-week prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. Choir practice on Friday evening, C. W. Corby, pastor.

FIRST CHRISTIAN—Center and High streets, J. J. Evans, pastor. The orchestra of the Bible school, under the leadership of Miss Martha Swart, will give a concert at the evening church hour, occupying the full time instead of the sermon. A very fine program has been arranged and music lovers will find a most delightful hour awaiting their presence. The pastor will speak at the morning hour on "Meeting the Issue," a discussion of the challenge the world is making of the church and what the church expects of the world. The church school begins at 9:45 and all ages will find congenial classes in the various departments. The young people meet at 6:30. The Sunday school recently organized by the Brotherhood of the church at Salem Heights community house meets at 3 o'clock.

HIGHLAND FRIENDS—Bible school at 10 a. m. Clifford Ross, Supt. Our school is growing in interest and numbers. Classes for all ages under the care of competent teachers. Morning worship and preaching at 11. C. E. meeting at 7 and preaching at 8 p. m. subject of evening message, "The Parable of the Sower," the second in a series on the Parables of the Kingdom. This is a very important subject, as these parables are dispensational and teach something of what is to take place in the world during the church period. Special songs by the male quartette. Mid-week prayer meet ing on Thursday at 8 p. m. I. G. and Ida J. Lee, pastors.

COURT STREET CHRISTIAN—Corner N. Seventeenth and Court streets. Looks like it was going to be a fine day today. The finest way in the world to make it the finest day is to go to the Bible school. Be prompt and the first one there. Try it once. Get up early wash your face in cold water, move likely and you can get there by 9:45 a. m. You feel better all day, try it. Be one of 250 today. Come hear all about Old folks day, Big family day. Children's day, etc. Big plans for these days. Stay for that big sermon by the pastor, "Christian Unity Coming." An up to date theme. The Spirit of Christ is rising above the pride of denomination or sect. Come hear about it. Junior following the Lord's supper. We will have a baptismal service at the First church, corner Center and High streets, right after the morning service. The pastor has an appointment at the Chemawa Indian school 2:20 p. m. Intermediate C. E. at 5:30 p. m. Young people's society meets 7 p. m. Interesting topic for discussion this week. The society is planning a Hard Times social next Friday night. Come but if you have on anything not in keeping with hard times you will be fined. Song service and sermon 8 p. m. "Is It Nothing to You." Don't forget the Thursday training school 7 to 9 p. m. Something fine every minute of the time. Come and you will come again. You have a cordial welcome to all these services. Come let us go up to the house of God today. R. L. Putnam, pastor.

LOST SLEEP WITH PIMPLES ON CHIN

Nose and Neck. Face Terribly Disfigured. Cuticura Heals.

"I was troubled for several months with small, red pimples, which feasted and turned white. They were in blotches around my chin and nose, and also on my neck. My face was terribly disfigured and I lost many nights' sleep. "I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and decided to try them. After two or three treatments I noticed the pimples began to go away, and after using two cakes of Soap and three boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Bonolyn Burr, Box 44, Long Beach, Wash., July 14, 1920. Make Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum your every-day toilet preparations and watch your skin improve. Sample Each Free by Mail. SCANDINAVIAN—15th and Mill streets. This is a great day in the Scandinavian religious life. Let us make it a great day in our church in Salem. Attend the service at 11 o'clock. Rev. Lind will preach. Sunday school at 12 o'clock. Rev. C. D. Hassel, superintendent.

UNITARIAN—Corner of Cottage and Chemeketa streets. Services are held in this church every Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The sermon of the acting pastor, Rev. Frank Fay Eddy, will be upon "New Maps for the Soul." Soloist, Miss Frances Ward. The Unitarian church stands for a religious interpretation which is rationally philosophic and open minded to all the truths demonstrated by science. A cordial invitation is extended to all who are inclined toward religious liberalism.

Teacher Accepts Cut.
Brownsville, Or., May 13.—Rev. M. S. Woodworth, instructor of eighth grade pupils in the South Brownsville school, is the first of the grade teachers to accept the 10 per cent reduction in wages named by the school board recently and agree to teach here next year for $90 per month. Whether the other seven instructors will also accept the cut remains to be seen, but it is understood that several of them will not accept.
