

Society and Club News

Edited by
Adelaide V. Lake
Telephone 82

Of Interest To Women

Couple Is Honored By Reception

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gibson, whose home is on Wallace road, was beautifully celebrated on Wednesday, May 5, at their home. The affair took the form of a reception in the afternoon and many friends called to shower their congratulations upon this couple. Festivities continued through the evening, when an interesting program was arranged.

The bride and groom of fifty years ago were married again by W. C. Milliken, who pronounced the service as nearly as possible like the one which made them man and wife. Mrs. Gibson carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and fern and she was attended by her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Johnson. Attending the groom was his son, E. D. Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson are much beloved by all their friends and in token of this were presented with a reading lamp. The speech of presentation was made by Mrs. Ed Looss and the lamp was set in place by W. C. Franklia. Gifts and telegrams of congratulation were showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Gibson from relatives in Montgomery, Missouri, Montana, Louisiana and St. Louis, Missouri.

In the program which was presented Miss Carol Looss and Miss Emily Looss participated. Accompaniments were played on the organ owned by Miss Nellie Taylor and this is an instrument made in 1844. Old familiar songs were sung by all those present.

Mr. Gibson was born in Warren county, Missouri, on April 21, 1845. Mrs. Gibson, formerly Mary Adaline Creech, was born in Lincoln county, Missouri, on May 25, 1871, and lived there until the year 1888 when they came to Oregon. They have made their home in Polk county ever since. Their children are E. D. Gibson, Salem, C. R. Gibson, Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. H. L. Johnson, Condon, Oregon.

Out of town guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johnson, Dallas; Tom Faurner, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Jeff B. Kennedy, Portland; Mrs. O. C. Buchanan, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Lem H. Kennedy and son, Billie, Portland; Mrs. Mary Ferguson, Newport; Mrs. Nettie Vandagriff, Chemawa; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Johnson and sons, Richard and Marvin, Condon; Mrs. Harry Jones and daughter, Audrey, of Camas, Washington.

Salem guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Franklia, Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Kugel, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Basy, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Schindler, Mr. and Mrs. Ed O Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Moll, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarter, Mr. and Mrs. James Imiah, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Runcoer, Mr. and Mrs. C. Chaffee, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Groat, Mr. and Mrs. Al Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Belle, Mr. and Mrs. William Calder, Mr. and Mrs. William Bouffleur, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Grice, Mr. and Mrs. L. Grice, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Kimble, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kugel, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Verrier, Mr. and Mrs. William Hacker, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Canoy, Mr. and Mrs. O. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. F. Rosenquest, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Looss, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Utley, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Blodgett, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Grote, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Southwick, Mr. and Mrs. F. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Adams, Mrs. E. T. Adair, Mrs. E. A. Pratt, Miss Nellie Taylor, Miss Emily Looss, Miss Carol Looss, W. F. McCall, Yochia Looss, Albert Bouffleur, C. A. Campbell and Sam Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gibson, of Seattle, and Miss Blanch Gibson, of Gardner, were not able to be present for the golden wedding festivities.

St. Joseph's Church.
Will Sponsor Carnival.
A carnival to be given in Salem on the church grounds by St. Joseph's church is being planned for July 2, 3 and 4. The affair will be a benefit for the local church and parishes from Shaw, Silverton, Mt. Angel, Woodburn, Gervais, St. Louis, St. Paul, Dallas, Independence and Albany will be invited to participate. The carnival will be sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, the Holy Name society, Daughters of Isabella, Lady Foresters, St. Monica's Altar society and the Children of St. Mary. The band from Mt. Angel will be brought to Salem for the carnival and a pipe, vaudeville and other attractions will be provided.

Surprise Is Given For Mr. and Mrs. Will

Mr. and Mrs. George Will were surprised last night when a group of their friends found them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garland on the Portland road and they were made the honor guests at an impromptu party. The affair was planned because Mr. and Mrs. Will are leaving soon for a trip through the east to extend over the space of a year. They will return to Salem at the end of that time. Those present at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Will, Mr. and Mrs. Garland, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hubbard and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Townsend. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Federation To Convene This Week

Women from all over the state of Oregon will participate this week in the twenty first annual convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs which will meet in Pendleton May 31, June 1, 2 and 3. A complete program for the occasion has been announced by the committee which includes Mrs. Ida B. Callahan, president; Mrs. Anna Read, Mrs. Nettie Greer Taylor, Miss Eda Jacobs, Mrs. E. T. Wade and Edith Knight Hill.

From Salem delegates to the convention will be sent from the Salem Woman's club and the North Salem Woman's club. The latter organization has not yet announced its delegates but representing the Salem Woman's club the following will make the trip: Mrs. W. M. Hamilton, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. H. J. Bean, Mrs. Homer Gouley and Mrs. W. E. Kirk.

The program will open at noon on Tuesday with registration and placing of delegates and in the evening a formal address of welcome will be given by Mayor Hartman, of Pendleton, and the Pendleton club women will extend greetings. Other addresses and responses will occupy the evening. On Wednesday the business of the convention will begin when reports will be given. Mrs. Sarah A. Evans will speak on the "Scholarship Loan Fund." In the afternoon session one of the features will be an address on the subject "Practical Pointers on Legislation," by Mrs. Alexander Thompson.

Election of state officers will be held on Friday morning and will be followed by their installation. Many features of interest are included in the convention program which is one of the best ever prepared for the group of progressive Oregon women.

Silver Tea Given in Dallas.
Dallas, May 28.—The ladies of the G. A. R. were entertained with a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Al Crowder on Ash street Thursday afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated in snowballs and purple lilacs. A delightful social afternoon was enjoyed by those present, after which a dainty luncheon was served to forty guests by the hostesses, Mrs. Al Crowder, Mrs. Joe Marshall, Mrs. D. C. Getchell, Mrs. E. Smutz and Mrs. E. A. Adams.

Mrs. Mem Pearce Hostess for La Arca.
Mrs. Mem Pearce was hostess for the La Arca club which met this week at her home. The evening was spent at cards for which Miss Bertha Waldorf won high score and Mrs. R. C. Kriess low score. Flowers arranged artistically in bouquets were used in decoration. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Bertha Waldorf. The club will meet next with Mrs. Irene St. Jelen.

Mrs. Burnett Honors Mrs. Jennie Chapman at Party.
Mrs. George H. Burnett entertained on Thursday afternoon with a line party and luncheon in honor of Mrs. Jennie Chapman on her birthday. Six were bidden for the affair and all attended the matinee at the Oregon. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Burnett at her home following the show. Table decorations were done in pink and the birthday cake was adorned with ornamental pink roses.

Four of Them—Count 'Em

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Solso, of New Haven, Conn., has been the mecca of neighbors for many blocks around, curiously to see the quadruplets born to the couple, attracting the scores of visitors. The four children, three boys and a girl, are fine healthy specimens and Mrs. Solso was reported to be recovering rapidly enough to be able to leave her bed shortly. Since the birth of the infants, the proud father has stayed home from work to aid in caring for them. James weighs 5 1/2 pounds, Michael, 4 1/2, Salvator, 5, and Angelina, 5 pounds.

Mrs. White Entertains With Tea

Próminent among the social events of the past week is the tea given on Thursday by Mrs. Geo. A. White at her home when she invited a number of her friends to come informally. The rooms were pretty with their floral decorations. Red roses were used in the front room, combined with other flowers of spring, and in the dining room pink roses were used. A bowl of these blossoms formed the table centerpiece, tied with a tinsel bow. Pink candles in crystal sticks completed a pretty effect.

Mrs. White was assisted by Miss Margaret Coster and Mrs. O. E. Fletcher, of Portland, who acted as floaters. Mrs. John J. Roberts and Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, who presided at the tea table and Mrs. William Lytle and Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, who served in the dining room.

Those present were Mrs. William Everett Anderson, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. G. G. Brown, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. William Henry Burghardt, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. George Bingham, Mrs. Catherine Brown, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Miss Margaret Coster, Mrs. Percy Cupper, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. James Dusenbury, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Carl Gabrielson, Mrs. George Hug, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. J. W. Harblson, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mrs. William Lytle, Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Frank G. Myers, Mrs. Charles F. Powell, Mrs. D. F. Pound, Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., Mrs. Amos Strong, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. L. C. Sheldon, Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. C. D. Webb, Mrs. James Walton, Mrs. O. E. Fletcher, of Portland, and Mrs. George A. White.

Three Link Needle Club Meets.
The Three Link Needle club met on Friday afternoon at Odd Fellows hall. About sixty ladies were present to enjoy the social afternoon. The committee in charge was Mrs. Clarence Townsend, Mrs. C. G. Nichols, Miss Leah Nichols, Mrs. L. J. Simeral and Mrs. Carrie Chaffee.

Miss Findley Will Arrive Home Monday.
Miss Mary Findley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley, of Salem, will arrive in Salem Monday night to spend the summer. Miss Findley, who has been attending Columbia university for the past year, is accompanied on her trip across the continent by Miss Marian Nicholson, a fellow student, with whom Miss Findley has done her social service work. Miss Nicholson's home is in Los Angeles and she will spend a day in Salem with Miss Findley. Miss Findley was graduated from Willamette university last year and is working for her master's degree in religious education. She will return in the fall to complete her work.

Many Will Spend Vacation Out of Town.
Among those who plan to spend the week end and memorial day out of town are Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton and Mrs. A. T. Edmunds and sons Don, Joe and Lewis, who plan to go to Newkwin. Mr. and Mrs. William Cravatt, who will also go to Newkwin, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daise, who will go up the McKenzie and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gleason and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Knowland, who will be out of town.

Festival Is Staged At Liberty

The last day of school at Liberty was celebrated on Thursday with an all day festival. Many events were scheduled for the day and began with an exhibition of needle craft, drawing and basketry work. A program was given on the grounds and the school orchestra provided the music. For the racing events, Salem firms provided prizes. In the ball game staged between Liberty and Buena Crest, Liberty won by a four to one score.

A basket dinner was served at noon and in the evening the community hall was the scene of an entertainment. This consisted of a song by the glee club, violin solo, Miss Mildred Pugh; vocal solos, Miss Gertrude Aldrich and Claude Stevenson; address, H. C. Seymour, of O. A. C.; violin ensemble, by the pupils of Miss Elizabeth Levy; presentation of diplomas by H. H. Mumford.

About five hundred people were present for this occasion. The affair was planned by Professor A. N. Arnold, Miss Grace Hastings and Miss Margaret Peatlife, and splendid work was done by them in the arrangement of the program and the events and in the decorating of the school house, the grounds and the community hall.

Go to Eugene To Spend Week End.
Mrs. Armin Steiner will go to Eugene tomorrow and will spend Sunday and Monday there as the guest of Mrs. E. C. Simmons.

DR. O'NEILL'S EYE TALKS
GIVE YOUR EYES A CHANCE!

GIVE your eyes a chance to teach you the things you should know. If your sight is dim our optometrist can find the physical reason for its failure to respond to the light. We will make for you glasses that will fit your eyes.

"Appeal to O'Neill"
DR. C. B. O'NEILL
OPTOMETRIST
LADD & BUSH BANK BLDG.
PHONE 625

W. U. Final Concert Is Scheduled

The annual concert of the Willamette university school of music will be given on Friday evening, June 3, at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church. The music will consist of organ, vocal and piano numbers, played by students of the school of music and it promises to be one of the most interesting musical events of commencement.

The program follows:
Organ solo, Allegro (Harris), Mabel Stanford
Vocal, Flying Singing-bird (Elgar), Willamette Girls Glee club
Piano, Elegy (Niellet), Ruth Rice
Vocal, Pipes of Gordens Men (Hammond), Everett Craven
Piano, Hunting Song (Mendelssohn), Mary Gilbert
Vocal (a) A June Morning (Mills); (b) Rain (Curran), Kathleen La Raut
Piano, Nocturne Op. 15 No. 2 (Chopin), Faye Finley
Piano, Polonaise A Major (Chopin), Laura Hoyt
Vocal, Spirit Flower (C. Tip-ton), Veona-Belle Williams
Organ, Adoration from Holy City (Gaul), Edith Brooks
Vocal, Serenade (Tosti), Lucile Jeffery
Piano, Polacca Brillante (Weber), Louise Findley
Vocal, (a) O Mother of Mine (Tours); (b) I Cannot Help Loving Thee (Clayton Johns), Loren Basler
Piano, Impromptu C Sharp (Rienhold), Kathleen La Raut
Vocal, duet, Calm as The Night (Goetz), Miss Williams and Mr. Craven
Vocal, Moths (Pallicot), Glee club
Organ, March Nuptial (Barnard), Byron Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Cravatt is Surprised on his Birthday.
Mrs. William Cravatt arranged a surprise for her husband on the occasion of his birthday when she invited a number of friends to a five hundred party on Thursday evening. Red roses and peonies decorated the rooms of their home in Court apartments and at the close of the evening refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. C. E. Knowland. The guests presented Mr. Cravatt with a handsome smoking set. First prize at cards was won by L. W. Gleason while consolation fell to Clare Wibbert. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Knowland, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daise, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Vibbert, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Page and Mr. and Mrs. William Cravatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Farmer Entertain With Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Farmer were hosts at a dinner party at their home on Saturday evening when covers were placed for eight. Decorations of spring flowers were used. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bynon, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Farmer. The evening was spent in conversation.

Spends Week end With Parents Here.
Miss Margaret Griffith, who is attending University of Oregon, is spending the week end in Salem with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Griffith.

Visits Theta House at O. A. C.
Miss Ruth Schultz is spending the week end on the O. A. C. campus where she is in Kappa Alpha Theta house. She is a member of this fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Kitts drove to Portland this week and spent two days there.

Couple Is Wed Today At Eleven

A very simple home wedding was solemnized this morning at 11 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Browne when their daughter, Miss Vivian Browne became the wife of Orle J. Leffingwell. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. C. H. Powell, of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

The bride was charming in a gown of white georgette and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and Cecil Brunner roses. Ferns and wild orange blossoms adorned the rooms. Only immediate friends and relatives were present to witness the service. Mrs. Leffingwell is well known in Salem where she has spent all of her life. She was graduated from Salem high school. Mr. Leffingwell is the son of Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger, of 770 Chemeketa street, and is also a graduate of Salem high school. He is employed in the automobile department at the state house, where Mrs. Leffingwell has been working, and both the bride and the groom are popular among Salem's younger set.

After a short trip to Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Leffingwell will be at home to their friends at the Court apartments.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Browne, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Adams, Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davis, of Eugene, and Miss Blanche Stevenson.

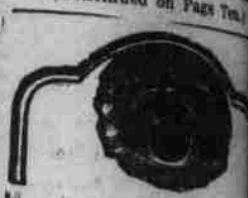

Church Circle Met on Wednesday.
The South Circle of the First Christian church met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. A. Penney. The regular business meeting and social afternoon was held.

Ask Them

—Ex-service men will tell you that it was a common thing among men who did not get normal rating on vision, for these men to say:
—"I never knew there was anything wrong with my eyes."
—If you have never had your vision examined, the time to do so is right now. Do not wait until actual distress brings you to a specialist.

Gives Birthday Party for Miss Fae Dunn.
Mrs. E. G. Wallace was hostess for a birthday party honoring sister, Miss Fae Dunn on Wednesday evening at her home on Union street. Games and refreshments were served. (Continued on Page Ten)

Ask Them
—Ex-service men will tell you that it was a common thing among men who did not get normal rating on vision, for these men to say:
—"I never knew there was anything wrong with my eyes."
—If you have never had your vision examined, the time to do so is right now. Do not wait until actual distress brings you to a specialist.

MORRIS OPTICAL CO.
Eyesight Specialists
204-11 Salem Bank of Commerce Bldg.
Salem, Oregon.
Oregon's Largest, Most Modern, Best-Equipped Exclusive Optical Establishment.

"SERVANTLESS HOMES"

By FLOYD W. PARSONS
on page 28 of to-day's issue of the

Saturday Evening Post.

Have you read it?
Better do so—
You'll find it very interesting, you're sure to learn enough of value to you to make it worth you while, too.

DR. O'NEILL'S EYE TALKS
GIVE YOUR EYES A CHANCE!

DR. C. B. O'NEILL
OPTOMETRIST
LADD & BUSH BANK BLDG.
PHONE 625