Outlook Dark For Strawberry Men

Crop Largest In Many Years With Market Lacking
 Production In District Around Salem Estimated at 1,200 Tons With Fruit In Excellent Condition: Price for Early Berries Below Normal Flood Season Mark

The strawberry crops of Marion and Polk counties bid fair to approximate 1200 tons this season. Indications are that the yield will not only be larger than that of last year, but that it will be of much better quality. Yet, for various reasons, the growers have no market for their fruit.

The situation, local fruit experts admitted this afternoon, is indeed grave.

Tulsa Quiet Today With Race Feeling Gone; Probe Begun

Force of Guardsmen Reduced; Whites Caught Looting Flame Swept Negro Section Arrested; Governor Orders Grand Jury Investigation and Hunt for Leaders Starts

Tulsa, Okla., June 2.—Adjutant General Barrett, commanding the state militia forces in Tulsa county under the martial law proclamation, announced this morning that 250 of the 450 guardsmen here will be sent home this afternoon.

Tulsa, Okla., June 2.—Thirteen white men were arrested by national guardsmen in the negro quarter today and sent to the city jail for investigation. It was said all men had in their possession property which apparently had been taken from houses which the flames did not reach but from which the negro occupants fled in fear. Many such houses were entered, according to guardsmen.

Tulsa, Okla., June 2.—Outwardly, Tulsa resumed its normal atmosphere today except for the presence, under a martial law proclamation, of approximately 500 Oklahoma national guardsmen sent here yesterday after many hours of rioting between negroes and white men, including a night of incendiarism in which virtually the entire negro quarter was destroyed with a loss of about $1,500,000.

As the situation rapidly quieted down the estimates of dead dwindled. Nine dead white men had been identified today and fifteen negroes were accounted for. The list of known wounded increased, however, and the total was unofficially estimated at about 240.

Grower Peddles Fruit
 "Money is tight, and there is but little inducement for investing at the present time," one authority explained this morning in speaking of the lack of a market. "Part of last year's crop, bought at high prices, has also been carried over. Many attempts to create a market have been made, but with no success as yet."

With the berry season scarcely on its way, with the strawberries plentiful and of excellent quality, one grower was this morning endeavoring to dispose of his fruit by making a house to house canvass and offering it at seven cents a box. Even at that price, he explained, his sales were few. The highest offer he received from local canneries, he said, was 6 1/2 cents. Practically no purchases are being made by the Salem concerns.

Little Picking Done

There are approximately 875 acres of strawberries in Marion county, and more than 300 acres in Polk county. Experts believe that the yield will be a little more than a ton of berries to the acre. Climatic conditions permitting, the strawberries will be unusually good this year, but a long dry spell would lessen their worth. On the vines they are said to appear the best in years.

Gooseberries Fewer

That there is little money at present available for "extras," and that strawberries apparently are considered a luxury, was the explanation given by one authority in speaking of the absence of a market.

The gooseberry crop this year will be but about 75 per cent as large as that of last year, one grower estimated this afternoon. Picking of gooseberries is just beginning. What price they will likely bring the growers, fruit men were unable to say.

Realty Men Unanimous For Listing Plan

By unanimous vote of those present the exclusive listing policy which has been under consideration for some time was adopted by the Marion County Realtors association at its meeting in the Marion hotel this noon. Over half the members of the board were present.

Under this policy any person giving an exclusive contract to a member of the association will have the entire organization working on the sale of his property within thirty days of the date of the contract. This policy it is claimed, will give the public better service, by quicker sales of property and time saved in placing it with different realty firms, as under the old plan.

A revision to the plan was also adopted by which realtors can take open listings but not submit them to the board. Another provision to the plan makes it possible for a property owner to list his property with any realtor and not have it turned into the association, stipulating such in the contract.

Veterans For Loan Feature Of Bonus Bill

The mass meeting of veterans held at the Armory last night deserve a most interesting phase of the Loan and Bonus question. It is of interest to the serious minded tax payer. A vote was called to determine how many desired the cash bonus. Not a man arose. Then a vote was taken to determine how many expected and were planning to take the loan. Every man present save one rose to his feet. This lone veteran declared he did not stand in need of assistance and was not going to take either option, but stated he believed in the loan feature if it will be thought, to stimulate business through the state, it will solve the housing problem in our cities, it will carry over and save the young veterans of our state who are trying to tide through their first or second year on reclaimed land or on a farm, which due to falling prices or crop failures in the past twelve months, has put the returned soldier in a bad way financially. This assistance at this time will save many a young farmer or homesteader, according to the best information obtained at the mass meeting last night. Reports were received from members who travel continuously all over Oregon and this significant fact was strongly emphasized by the several speakers who urged their comrades to get every possible voter to the polls Tuesday next.
