Natives Of Two States Will Picnic

Natives of Nebraska and Ohio will hold their annual picnic at the Salem fair grounds all day on Thursday, June 9. A big affair is expected on this occasion and plans are being made to accommodate hundreds of natives of these two states who wish to take this opportunity to observe a big reunion.

The war brought about a disorganization of the Nebraska society, which before that time was fairly well organized for social events. Last year no picnic was given. This year the organization will be of both Nebraska and Ohio and it is expected that the record of 400 persons, reached at the last picnic, will be badly shattered on Thursday.

Officers of the Nebraska-Ohio club are L. H. Suter, president, and Mrs. F. L. Danison, secretary-treasurer. Committee chairman for the picnic are: J. E. Pettycrew, arrangements; Mrs. Edward Young, program; Mrs. Colony, music and Mrs. Julia Pettycrew, dinner.

Each person is expected to come with a well filled basket and knives, forks, spoons, plates and cups. Arrangements for the program have not yet been completed, but some of the numbers are the following:

Professor James Liale, prayer; patriotic song, "America;" roll call by counties of Nebraska and Ohio; song, Mrs. Carrie Ghassa; reading, Mrs. Olive Palmer; five minute talk, H. R. Ryan; story, L. H. Suter; Bible selections, C. W. Hill; five minute speech, J. R. Horning; reading, Miss Inez Lowden; poem, L. H. Suter; speech, Mr. Mason; reading, Mrs. D. Saunders; speech, Mr. Newmyer; reading, Mr. Stolk; five minute speech, Professor Liale; song, Miss Annie Schucky. Mrs. Colony, chairman of the music committee, is arranging for additional selections.

What's New On The Market

Cherries appeared on the market this morning with a wide difference in the retail price. Some stores were selling as low as 10 cents a pound, while others had the price up to 20 cents. The cherries selling for 10 cents, however, were not as good as those at the higher price.

Cantaloupe was expected on the market today but did not arrive. Early next week will see the first of the season. The price is expected to be about 20 cents. Strawberries went down yesterday noon to three boxes for 25 cents, but the 10, 15 and two for a quarter prices are maintained for the best.

Due to a rise in wholesale price today which may have caused an increase to the consumer, eggs will be higher next week. The change will amount to about two cents a dozen.

Oregon fresh peas went down to one and one half pounds for 25 cents today. The price yesterday was one pound for a quarter.

While the wholesale price of lemons has doubled within the last week the increase in retail has been from 25 to 40 cents a dozen.

Due to a scrap between refineries sugar dropped in the larger centers yesterday. The reduction had but very slight effect here, sugar selling today for around
