Prospects For Fruit In Valley Said to be Good

Eugene, June 6.—Up to June 1, fruit crop conditions in Oregon are as follows, according to advices received by the Oregon Growers' Cooperative association.

Apples—Rogue valley has prospects for big crop, double that of one year ago. Umpqua valley will have the heaviest crop ever shipped. Willamette valley has prospects of big crop of good quality and large size.

Cherries—Umpqua valley about 50 per cent. Willamette valley estimates are from 50 to 60 per cent.

Pears—Rogue valley, about three-fourths of last year's crop. Umpqua and Willamette valleys, about same as last year.

Prunes—in the Umpqua valley, Italians promise above the ten-year average but spotted. Petites, setting less than normal. In the Willamette valley river bottom orchards promise fair crop with other orchards having light crop.

As a whole, Oregon will have an extra heavy apple, average pear crop, cherry crop somewhat lighter than last year, and about 50 per cent of a prune crop.

Hartley Parts With Silverton Cannery

Silverton, June 6.—The Silverton Producers Canning Company a corporation organized by the fruit growers of this vicinity, has taken over the Silverton Food Products Company and henceforth will be known by that name. The new firm is a cooperative concern and will can for stock holders only. Stockholders must also be growers. The company is organized with a capital of $100,000 and includes stock holders at Mt. Angel, Silverton Hills, Scotts Mills and South Silverton.

The plant is expected to be opened in about a week. J. R. Mero will be superintendent.

C. A. Hartley who founded the cannery two years ago has severed his business connection with the concern.

Hood River Potatoes Will Set Record

Hood River, June 6.—The Hood River valley potato acreage this year will probably set a new record for tonnage, if the season is good and the tuber tracts yield normally. In the Pine Grove district, where potatoes have been planted in tracts from which winter-killed apple trees were removed, the acreage indicates a crop of 20 carloads.

In the Upper Valley, the district's chief potato producing section, the acreage will be increased over last year, when more than 75 carloads were harvested and shipped. Growers of the Upper Valley, it is said, have learned how to handle their crops in producing tubers, and the harvest there this year will be one of the best in the district's history. It is expected.

North Howell

North Howell Ore., June 6.— Memorial day was fittingly observed by the residents of this section. A large number went to Salem and to other cemeteries surrounding, there being no cemetery here.

Wm. Oddie purchased a Ford touring car from the Willamette Garage at Mt. Angel, it was delivered this week.

Strawberry Crop Good

Eugene, June 6.—The strawberry crop in Lane county is heavy this year and the cannery of the Eugene Fruit Growers' association is working on the surplus over and above those sold in the local markets. The retail price of the berries is now 10 cents a box and it is predicted that the price will go even lower than that owing to the large acreage in bearing and the large quantity being brought to market. The quality of the berries this year is good.

Gooseberries are also arriving at the cannery in large quantities and the crop in this locality being heavy this year. Early cherries are expected to be arriving at the plant within a week or so, says J. O. Holt, manager of the association, and the Royal Annes and other standard varieties will be ripe about the latter part of the month. The crop in Lane county this season is fair.

Salem Ministerial Association Meets

Rev. A. Zimmerman, representative of the convertist Jew movement, will speak at a union meeting of the churches early in July, according to plans laid by the Salem Ministerial association at a special meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms Friday morning. Rev. Zimmerman is a converted Jew himself, who is speaking under the auspices of

Elks Will Hold Exercises For Flag Day Here

As part of the annual Flag day exercises of the Elks, Thomas B. Handley, corporation commissioner of the state, will speak on June 14 in Wilson avenue, it has been announced by Frank Wrightman of the local lodge, who has had charge of the program. The ceremonies will start at seven o'clock and will be followed by the first band concert of the season.

All fraternal and patriotic orders are invited to participate in the exercises, according to Mr. Wrightman. The program of the evening will include besides the main address, the ritualistic flag services of the lodge, history of the flag by E. M. Page, "Flag of my Heart," sung by Oscar Gingrich, a flag-raising under the call to colors and the conclusion with taps.

Those working on the program besides Mr. Wrightman are Brazier Small and Dr. Roy Pomeroy.

Advocate City Plant

Boston, June 10.—A movement is under way here to establish a municipal lighting plant. Such a public-owned enterprise would save consumers millions of dollars and enable the city to light its streets and parks and obtain power far cheaper than from private companies. The campaign for a municipal lighting plant is a protest against the exorbitant rates charged by the Edison Electric Illuminating Company and the Boston Consolidated Gas Company.

The strength of the United States Navy includes 11,534 officers and 129,305 men; Marine Corps, 1,097 officers and 21,543 men, and a nurse corps of 467.

Lighting causes 9.8 per cent of forest fires.

Making the Dumb to Speak

London, June 6.—Criminals who endeavor, by acting "dumb," to escape the penalty of the law will have a poor chance in future.

According to the bulletin of the National Anaesthetic Research Society the man who shames dumbness can be detected by the use of anaesthetics.

The society, whose work has been proceeding in America for some time, records the case of a man accused of murder who had refused to speak a word for two weeks. The doctors were not satisfied that he was dumb and made an experiment, which proved that he had been shamming.

First they gave him nitrous oxide, and afterwards excited his system with ether. The result was that he suddenly spoke quite loudly.

Cherrians Add Zest To Berry Fete, Is Report

Lebanon, Or., June 6.—The first Lebanon strawberry festival closed Friday night with perfect weather and the biggest crowd that ever attended. Zest was added to the programme by the appearance of some 60 of the Salem Cherrians, in uniform, headed by their band. They came at the invitation and as the guests of the Lebanon commercial club, and were entertained during the day by the club. This was the first time the festival has ever been visited by an outside organization in a body, and the officers of the festival and the commercial club, as well as the people generally, were hearty in their praise of the capital city men for their appearance here.

The decorated auto parade and industrial parade were excellent. First prize for the decorated individual car went to Mrs. H. R. Kirkpatrick, and the second was awarded to Mrs. W. E. Sears. The best industrial decorated car was entered by the Crown-Willamette Paper company, and the second by the Lebanon Cash Produce company. The "plug ugly" prize was given to James O'Hara.

The awards for the best commercial packed strawberries were given as follows:

Marshall, first, Clem & Goodwin; second, F. M. Sherman; third, Marguerite Baertlein.

Oregon, first, J. O. Scott; second, Maude Clem; third, Synthia Evans Wilson, first, Clem & Goodwin; second, George Buford.

Clark Seeding, all prizes to George Baertlein.

Group of four best, Clem & Goodwin.

More Acreage Signed Up By Association

One thousand acres of the best fruit lands with a radius of eight miles of The Dalles have recently been signed up with the Oregon Growers Cooperative Association.

This acreage is controlled by 80 of the leading fruit growers of that district, headed by Dr. G. E. Sanders, who will meet with the board of directors of the association.

The new members of the association in The Dalles district have financed a proposition by which the association purposes the large packing house at The Dalles formerly occupied by the Stadelman Fruit and Produce Company. John Frazier, who has

Distillate Is On Local Market Again

The Dalles, June 6.—Distillate, suitable for use in tractors, motor boats and all internal combustion engines of similar type, is again on the local market, after an absence of about a year. A. R. Rankin, special agent for the Standard Oil company in The Dalles, announced recently.

Edwin Keech of Turner was in Salem Sunday. Mr. Keech, who slipped home over the week end, is at present attending the university in Eugene.
