Woodburn Girl Weds On Sunday

A pretty home wedding took place on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Follet at Woodburn when the bride of Ferdinand Nelson, of Hubbard, Oregon, Miss S. E. Long, of the Congregational church, officiated. Attendance were Mrs. Jean Clow Nelson, Elmer Garrison, and a number of friends. The rooms were beautifully decorated with potted ferns, sweet peas and roses. Mrs. Garrett, of Portland, played the wedding march and little Miss Josephine Nelson was ring bearer. Besides the relatives a few most intimate friends were present. After receiving congratulations and parking of a delicious buffet luncheon the bride and groom departed for Portland where they will be home to their friends after 10 at 25 Fifth street. The bride, who is of unusual charm, has resided in Woodburn since childhood and she has many friends. Mr. Nelson has a wide circle of friends both in Woodburn and in Portland, where he is connected with the Northwest bank. Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. DuRette, Mrs. Janet, Mrs. Jean Clow Nelson, Elmer Garrison, Miss Estelle Grette, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rigdon, Woodburn; Mr. and Mrs. B. Poulsen, Rudolph Poulsen, Miss Anna Poulsen, Hubbard; Miss Helen Frey, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kraus, Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Scheurer, Grass Valley; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. What's New On The Market

One dollar a crate was the price on strawberries this morning with the canneries still holding off and an over supply on the market. It is hardly safe to say that the rock bottom price has been reached, though the house wife could not lose by commencing her canning operations with sugar down to its present price. Retailers, in some cases, are paying 75 cents a crate for berries and are over stocked. With this in view the price may be lower tomorrow. Lemonade this summer will be a luxury if the price of lemons continues to soar. Another increase this morning brought the wholesale price over 100 per cent to what it was 10 days ago. Sweet potatoes are nearing the end of the season. One local whole sale house announced this morning that it had received its last shipment. The retail price is two pounds for a quarter. A few seedling cherries are on the market at 10 cents a pound. They are not very good. In spite of the attempts to retain the former prices, eggs and butter are bound to rise. The highest buying price of eggs is 18 cents, and the general price is 17. This brings the retail price up to 21 and 22 cents. The apple season is closing with good winapes selling from 50 cents a dozen, to 5 cents apiece.
