Three To George E. Chamberlain Lasker Chosen As Chairman; Five Others Selected

Senate Confirms Appointment of Former Oregon Senator In Open Session by Unanimous Vote This Afternoon; Other Nominations Go To Committee

Washington, June 8 .- Formal announcement of the appointment of A. D. Lasker, a Chicago advertising man, as chairman of the Shipping Board, was made today at the Others assured places on the board are Meyer Lissner of Los Angeles; T. V. O'Connor of Buffalo, N. Y., and Edward C. Plummer of Bath, Maine, all republicans; and Admiral William S. Benson, retired, serving now as chairman of the board; former Senator George E. Chamberlain of Oregon and Frederick I. Thompson of Mobile, Ala., democrats.

The nomination of former Senator Chamberlain was confirmed late today by the senate in open session by unanimous vote. The other nominations were referred to the committee in the usual manner.

The make up of the board is un derstood to have been finally decided at a prolonged conference this morning between President Harding and Mr. Laskar.

Mr. Laskar is an official of the Lord and Thomas Advertising Agency of Chicago and port owner of the Chicago National League baseball team. He was a supporter of Hiram Johnson for the republican presidential nomination last

Mr. Lissner, who is a lawyer, also was a Johnson supporter. He has been active in California politics since 1906 when he organized the non-partisan city central com mittee of Los Angeles. Mr. Plummer has had wide ex-
