House Total Loss by Fire; Contents Saved by Fighters

A house owned by Mrs. Jerry Graham, 1898 Waller street, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock. All of its contents was saved by fire fighters with the exception of a stove which was too large to get through a door. Efforts to determine the extent of the loss, or the amount of insurance carried, were unavailing, as Mrs. Graham is said to be in Canada at the present time.

Captain "Bill" Iwan, of the fire department, was unable to learn how the fire started, but it is believed to have had its origin in the kitchen.

If treated promptly by reliable doctors or at public clinics, venereal diseases can be cured, says the U. S. Public Health Service. Patent medicines bought without competent advice often do great harm. The same is true of the work of most doctors who advertise that they cure "men's" diseases.

Roseburg Man to Be Superintendent of Dallas Schools

Dallas, Oregon, June 10.—The school board of the city of Dallas has elected a superintendent for the city for the ensuing year, R. R. Turner of Roseburg, who is the present receiver of the United States land office. Mr. Turner is a native of Virginia, 44 years of age, and a graduate of Washington and Lee university at Lexington, Virginia. He was superintendent of the schools at Grants Pass for 10 years but some time ago resigned to accept the position as receiver of the land office at Roseburg.

Walter I. Ford, who has been superintendent of the Dallas schools for 12 years, goes to Portland.

The increased enrollment in the schools necessitates the hiring of two more teachers as well as two additional rooms and, to supply the need, the school board are planning on portable school buildings similar to those used in Portland.

Nevada, last of all the States, has passed a law to cooperate with the U. S. Public Health in the fight against venereal disease. And Congress has just cut out the appropriation for such cooperation after July 1 and has left all 48 States high and dry.

Auto Plunges Over Cliff; 2 Dead, Result

Portland, Ore., June 10.—Frank D. Wilson, injured when an automobile plunged over a 400 foot cliff from the Columbia river high way at Bridal Veil, Ore., yesterday, died at a hospital this morning. Mrs. Margaret Garland, who was in the machine with Wilson, was instantly killed in the accident. Deputy sheriffs yesterday searched for a supposed third victim as a result of Wilson's mumbled statement when picked up in dazed condition that two women were in the car with him, but failed to find another body. They finally abandoned the search, believing Wilson was delirious and that there was no third victim. Wilson was a Portland real estate dealer. His son today said he did not know Mrs. Garland.

Champ Denies He Will Marry

Atlantic City, N. J., June 10.—Jack Dempsey today is enjoying a full twenty four hours of rest. The heavyweight champion, becoming weary of the camp routine with boxing off the program decided to take a day off and motor over to Camden, N. J.

Some one started a report at camp yesterday that Dempsey intended to be married after his July battle and would retire from the rings as his intended bride was opposed to boxing. The champion issued a denial as did Manager Kearns.

"When I get through with Carpenter, I won't lose any time going home to the folks in Salt Lake, instead of getting married," Dempsey said. "I've already arranged for transportation on the first train leaving for the west after the match."

Famous Curb Market Of New York Doomed

The Curb Market on Board street, just below Wall street, New York City, the spot where daily for the past thirty-five years the hectic flourishing of fingers, has meant the exchange of millions of dollars, will be no longer, for on July 10 the New York Curb Brokers' Association will move into their newly erected building and thereafter all trading will be done indoors. The passing of the Curb Market will be a blow to New York's financial district inasmuch as it brought thousands of sightseers every day to watch the mad waving of hands which meant nothing to them and so much to others. The photograph shows the Curb Market in action. In the background can be seen the columns of the Subtreasury Building.
