Bringing Up Father — By George McManus.

L. Garner, Mrs. E. F. Rogers and Laura Dodge, all of Tillamook, have been motoring for the past few days on a trip from home to Portland and the surrounding country. Mrs. Rogers reports fairly good roads between here and the coast, with but one detour at present on the Willamina road. Tillamook county roads are the best of all, however, she says.

Diplomas Presented By Olcott
Chemawa Graduates One of the Largest Classes in History of the School
 Graduation exercises were held at Chemawa for one of the largest classes ever graduated from that institution Wednesday evening. Governor Ben W. Olcott presented the diplomas to the Indian graduates.
 Delivering the graduation address Wednesday, Fred Lockley of Portland, traveler, editor and writer, urged the Indians to realize the great responsibility that was theirs upon graduation from the school. The Indian's needs are great, he pointed out, and consequently the responsibility of the Indian graduates is greater in proportion to their numbers than that of their white brethren.
 "Obstacles only show the material of which a man is made," he said, in encouraging the graduates to go out and meet life with a firm conviction and sense of duty. He emphasized the value of public service, pointing out the examples of Lincoln and Roosevelt and others who by their whole hearted devotion to the public good, have made them a place forever in the hearts of the race.
 Class exercises will continue today as part of the final program. Approximately one third of the students expect to remain in Chemawa for the summer, while others will leave at once for their various homes.

Bodies of Men From Overseas Come to Coast
 Included in a shipment to Portland of the bodies of 22 soldiers who lost their lives overseas were those of Thomas H. Elston of Amity, Chester A. Simmons of Gervais, and William S. Brown of McMinnville. The bodies arrived in Portland yesterday and will be delivered to their various destinations as soon as possible.
 Elston was a member of the 1st company, 23d engineers; Simmons lost his life while serving with company G, 322d Infantry, and Brown was a member of the 148th field artillery, battery B. Bodies included in the shipment were destined for Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Senators and Legion Team To Play Here
 Sunday's baseball game between the Salem Senators and the American Railway Express pine, to be played here, was cancelled upon word from Portland last night that the Expressmen would not be able to come here, and Manager Jack Hayes this morning announced that the Portland Legion team had been substituted for the Sunday date. The game will be played on the Oxford Park lot.
 With a long string of victories behind them the Portland Legionnaires are touted as one of the fastest nine in the Rose City.
 Lund and Edwards are slated to be the battery for the Senators. Rankin will officiate alone as umpire.
 Hayes, who injured his knee in sliding into the plate in last Sunday's game with Albany, will not be in the lineup this week.
 Word received this morning says that Mike Miller will be back with the Senators about July 1.

Galbraith Funeral Set For Saturday
 Cincinnati, Ohio, June 10.—The funeral of Colonel Frederick W. Galbraith, Jr., commander of the American Legion, who was killed in an automobile accident in Indianapolis, will be held Saturday afternoon in Music Hall, the largest auditorium in the city. This was decided upon today by Robert J. Bentley post, American Legion, of which Colonel Galbraith was a member, and after the widow expressed the wish that the post make all arrangements for the funeral. It is considered most likely that the burial will be in Arlington cemetery, Washington, D. C.
 It is expected that the funeral will be the largest ever held in Cincinnati. The entire 147th United States Infantry, troops from Fort Thomas, Ky., various service men's organizations, and all the civil clubs in which Colonel Galbraith was a leader, will participate.
 Mrs. Galbraith expressed the desire this morning to be allowed to remain alone with the body all day.

Contracts Let For Building More Bridges
 Contracts for the construction of 22 bridges viaducts and culverts on state highways will be let by the state highway commission at its meeting in Portland, June 28, according to notices being forwarded to contractors by the department here today. These structures are scattered over four counties as follows:
 Clackamas county—seven culverts in unit number one of the Gresham-Forest boundary section of the Mt. Hood Loop and three concrete viaduct structures and five culverts on unit number two of the Gresham-Forest boundary section of the Mt. Hood Loop.
 Crook county—Two 40-foot "A" frame bridges on gravity abutments on the Prineville-Jones Mill section of the Ochoco highway near Prineville.
 Malheur county—One bridge over the Malheur river on the Ontario-Wesler section near Ontario and three small bridges on the Ontario-Idaho section.
 Union county—One crossing of the Grande Ronde river near Perry.
