That Outraged This Staid Pastor New York, June 28-Scant summer styles, as exhibited in these parts, have inspired the Rev. Dr. John Roach Straton, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, to pen a "poem" which was going through its second edition in the public prints today.

Writes Dr. Straton:

"Mary had a little skirt, The latest style, do doubt; But every time she got inside She was more than half way out."

In a prose foreword, delivered from his pulpit Sunday night, Dr. Straton declared he did not advocate a return to the old street sweeping style.

Mrs. Kaber appeared uncor cerned as she entered the crowded court room and seemed disinterested in the trial.

The corridors of the court hous were filled and the crowd in front of the building had increased to more than a thousand persons be fore Mrs. Kaber appeared.

Women Jurors Protested.
Attorneys for the defendant vigorously protested against the prospective of women being placed on the jury and immediately submited a motion to annul a special panel of 42 talesmen because five women were included. Judge Bernon promptly overruled the motion on the ground that the state constitution did not bar wo-
