

VETERANS WARN SOCIALISTS TO GO SLOW

Harding Pledges Support

President Urges Congress to Declare for Disarmament and Promises Aid

Washington, June 29.—It is "wholly desirable" to have the expression of a favorable opinion on the part of congress in relation to world disarmament "and it would seem to me ample if it should be expressed in the broadest and most general terms" President Harding wrote today to Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, the republican leader in the house.

Dempsey Ends Training For Fight Today

Atlantic City, N. J., June 29.—Today is the beginning of the end of Jack Dempsey's two months training grind. The champion is all through with his workouts in the open air arena and the last workouts this afternoon probably will be staged behind barred gates in the old airplane shed back of the training camp. The work will be light and probably will not include boxing.

Stores Must Hire Extra Clerks For Bargain Day Rush

With every indication pointing to the fact that their present sales stores will be unable to cope with the business rush to come on Bargain Day, next Friday, many of the 67 stores which have Bargain Day signs displayed have already made arrangements to augment their sales forces and managers of other stores are preparing for a similar move. Belief that large crowds will jam the local stores all day Friday, was expressed today by the committee in charge.

Gardner Tells What He Heard In Phone Conversation Between Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 29.—An account of telephonic eavesdropping on a conversation between Mrs. Anne U. Stillman and Fred Beauvais was spread upon the records of the Stillman divorce case today. Edward J. Lawler, landscape gardener at James A. Stillman's estate in the Pocantico hills, was understood to have related what he heard one evening, when Beauvais in his room on the estate, talked over the long distance telephone to Mrs. Stillman in New York. The witness it was said, held the receiver of another cut-in line to his ear.

Dried Loganberry Market Offers Negligible Outlet For Surplus of Production

Pickers Needed

From 2,000 to 2,500 pickers are still needed to care for the loganberry crop around Salem, according to estimates made by growers and cannerymen this morning.

Haywood Promises To Return

Chicago, June 29.—United States District Attorney Clyne today announced that he has received a radio message from William (Big Bill) Haywood which stated that he was leaving Moscow on July 12 and would surrender to the federal authorities as soon as he landed in this country.

Warehouses Burned

Pendleton, Ore., June 29.—Five warehouses, a large grain elevator and about 100,000 sacks of wheat were destroyed by fire early today at Myrick, five miles southeast of here. The loss was estimated at $150,000. The blaze started from a grass fire.

Ulster Premier Refuses to Meet With De Valera

Belfast, June 29.—Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, declined today the invitation extended him by Eamonn De Valera, the Irish republican leader, to meet De Valera in Dublin. The invitation was contained in a letter to the Ulster premier and four other eminent Irishmen outside of De Valera's party asking them to meet him at the mansion house in Dublin on Monday for a conference.

Wagner Gets 60 Days For Bootlegging

Sixty days in the county jail was the sentence imposed on Ralph "Monk" Wagner, convicted "bootlegger," by Judge Percy Kelly, of the circuit court, this morning. Wagner was found guilty by jury of unlawfully selling intoxicating liquor on evidence furnished by "Red" Pendreagat and A. B. Gates. Anti-Saloon league "stool pigeons."

Grand Jury Is Asked To Stop Fight

Clergymen File Complaint and Are Told To Present Facts To Jurors Friday

Jersey City, N. J., June 29.—Rev. Harry B. Wyatt, representing the clergyben's community club of Jersey City today laid before Prosecutor Pierre Garvan a bill of complaint to stop the Dempsey-Carpentier bout here Saturday.

Repetition of Omaha Flood Again Feared

Omaha, Neb., June 29.—A hastily constructed dike protecting hundreds of acres of farm land north of Omaha broke under pressure of flood water from the Missouri river this morning and immediately a torrent of water began rushing into the lowlands, making a repetition of last year's flood danger almost a certainty.

Damage Case Is Heard by State Supreme Court

Arguments in the case of Florence Rostad, a minor, against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, were heard by the supreme court Tuesday afternoon. The case is up on appeal from Multnomah county.

Seattle Police Get 1,200 Quarts of Beer In Raid

Seattle, Wash., June 29.—More than 1200 quarts of beer and a complete brewing outfit were seized by police who today raided a house on Eighth avenue on the edge of the downtown business district here. Officers said the seizure was the largest beer confiscation in the northwest since the advent of prohibition.

No Pictures of Salem's Roses To Be Found

No pictures of Salem's roses are available at any of the photographic shops of this city, according to T. E. McCroskey, who made an attempt to secure some this morning to be used in a write up by Fred Orness, publisher of a newspaper in Mt. Vernon, Washington.

Georges Alone Not Worrying At Manhasset

Manhasset, N. Y., June 29.—As the day for the world's championship bout draws near everybody in the challenger's camp is getting nervous except Georges and he alone appears to be worrying about as much as a school boy getting ready for a picnic. He wants to go and is having lots of fun making preparations.

Hun Officers Face Trial On French Charges

Leprie, June 29.—Lieutenant General Karl Stenger and Major Benno Crunius, the former commander of the Fifty-third German infantry brigade in 1914, were placed on trial before the German supreme court here today on charges preferred by the French government. More than fifty witnesses were summoned.

Clerk's Books Being Received

Books and accounts of the different school board clerks are being received by the office of the county superintendent for auditing, in compliance with the law passed by the 1921 legislature. According to the letter just sent to the different districts, besides the clerk's record book, the warrant book showing warrants issued, warrants paid and cancelled, a statement of warrants outstanding from June 30, 1920, to June 30, 1921; a statement of outstanding warrants prior to June 30, 1920, with the numbers must also be turned in.

Convention Hall Invaded by Fifty Former Soldiers

Radicals Invited to "Step Outside and Fight for Beliefs," Engdahl's Remarks Bring Statement From Disabled Doughboys of Willingness to Use Machine Guns Against Disloyalty and Treason

Detroit, June 29.—Fifty delegates to the convention of the Disabled American Veterans of the world war invaded the socialist national convention before noon today and warned the socialists that the veterans are ready "to fight again to defend the flag against sedition, disloyalty and treason."

Naval Bill Hits Snag In Lower House

Washington, June 29.—The house refused today to recede in its opposition to a senate amendment to the naval appropriation bill carrying five hundred thousand dollars for a pier extension and ninety thousand dollars for a rifle range at the Puget Sound navy yard.

Body of Mrs. Fisher To Be Shipped To Pendleton Tonight

Mrs. May Fisher, who has been in Salem by a month and a half, died at the age of 49 years yesterday about six miles south of this city. She has been in poor health for the past three years, traveling over the country in an effort to improve her condition. She is survived by her husband, C. C. Fisher; her mother, Mrs. F. J. McBrien; a daughter, Mrs. Roy Coffee of Salem, and two sons, Russell and Claude Stanton of Portland.

Hugh C. Wallace Bids Farewell to Diplomats Today

Paris, June 29.—Hugh C. Wallace, the retiring American ambassador, bade goodbye to his associates in the council of ambassadors today. He expressed regret on breaking the agreeable associations he had formed.

Lady Churchill Dead; Former New York Girl

London, June 29.—Lady Randolph Churchill, who was Miss Jennie Jerome of New York, died here today. She recently underwent an operation on her right foot which was injured in a fall.