

DEMPSEY WINS IN FOURTH

President Harding Signs Peace Resolution

State of War Is Ended

Signature Is Affixed During Holiday Trip At Residence of Senator Frelinghuysen

Raritan, N. J., July 2.—The resolution of congress declaring war with Germany and Austria-Hungary at an end was signed here late today with President Harding.

Court Orders R.R. Crossing Near Chemawa

Application of the Marion county court for permission to construct a crossing at grade with the tracks of the Oregon Electric railroad just north of Chemawa was granted in an order issued by the public service commission today.

Officers Named For New Unit

Orders for the appointment of officers of the new field hospital unit mustered in a Lebanon recently have just been out from the office of the Adjutant general of the Oregon National guard.

Drunkenness Is Cause of Arrest of Two Salemites

Two men who gave their names as B. Warner and Claud Johnson were arrested by police last night and charged with being intoxicated. They were held in jail pending their arraignment before Judge Earl Rice.

Dempsey to Stage Big Party Tonight

Jersey City, N. J., July 2.—Jack Dempsey is going to put on a "big party" tonight to celebrate the ending of his long training grind and his expected victory over Georges Carpentier—provided his massive jaws come out of today's battle in good working order.

Frenchman Game Says Dempsey; Champion Worthy Says Georges

Ringside, Jersey City, N. J., July 2.—Georges Carpentier took his defeat gamely and praised Dempsey as a great champion. In his dressing room after the fight Carpentier dictated this statement: "I staked my all to win in the second round. I hit him hard but could not drop him. I tried again in the third but a right to my neck seemed to daze me. I do not know how he got through my guard in the fourth."

Demand for Local Fruit Stimulated

All Varieties Moving Freely Except Logans; Co-operative Packs Already Sold
Demands for Oregon canned fruits are already becoming apparent. Due to scarcity of fruit between the Rocky Mountains and the Atlantic coast, it is the opinion of most local packers that there will be no trouble in finding a market for all fruit, with the exception of loganberries, packed in this vicinity.

Association Is Formed by Deaf of State

Adoption of a constitution and by-laws for a state association of the deaf was accomplished this morning at the conference held at the state mute school which was called for the purpose of effecting such an organization. Elections of officers will probably be held Monday.

Albany Man Passes Away

Winfield Scott Wallace of Albany, age 75 years, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lena Fox, in the Hazel Green district. He was here on a visit. The deceased is survived by Sereida Knox, Salem; Henry Wallace, Albany; Lena Fox, Salem; F. Wallace, Jefferson; Mrs. C. F. Wallace, Albany; Oscar Wallace, Trenchholm; Mrs. Macel Graff, Hood River; Mrs. Alice Walker, Raymond, Wash.; and Russell Wallace, Mill City. All are children.

The body will be shipped to Albany this evening for interment there tomorrow.

Another Big Egg Is Found

Rhode Island Red blood leads in the production of big eggs so far in the impromptu contest that has centered at The Journal office. The latest claim for championship is made by Mrs. Elsie Siler of 574 North 15th street for one of her hens that she says has laid a dozen eggs of the two-in-one variety during the past year. For proof she presented one today that was larger in one dimension than the egg brought into the office yesterday by D. Tuel. The egg contained two yolks and measured 6 1/2 by 7 1/2 inches. Mrs. Siler says that her hen is a good consistent layer.

90,000 See Fight

Ringside, Jersey City, N. J., July 2.—Announcement was made after the contest that 90,000 persons had witnessed the battle. The receipts totalled $1,500,000.

Babe Ruth Adds 2 More Homers

New York, July 2.—Babe Ruth crashed out two home runs today, bringing his total up to 30. The first was clouted in the seventh inning of the first game with Boston, while the other was made in the first inning of the second game.

Roads Opened For Two Days

The Salem-Silverton and the Salem-Turner roads which have been closed because of paving for the last few weeks, will be opened to accommodate automobiles travelling in those directions, Sunday and Monday, according to Roadmaster James Culver this morning. The barricades will be taken down tonight, and will be replaced Tuesday morning.

Kidnaped Woman Is Set Free

Socialist Lecturer Is Liberated by Captors Has Them Placed Under Arrest

Ogden, Utah, July 2.—Kate O'Hare, socialist lecturer, who was forcibly taken from Twin Falls, Idaho, last night, was released at Montello, Nev., several hours later and at once had nine of her alleged kidnapers arrested by a deputy sheriff there, according to the assistant chief dispatcher of the Southern Pacific at Ogden, who was in touch with Montello by wire.

Asks for Protection. Twin Falls, Idaho, July 2.—Mrs. Kate Richard O'Hare is at Montello, Nevada, where ten of the men who yesterday kidnaped her, according to a telegram from H. H. Friedheim said he received from her this morning. Mrs. O'Hare has appealed to the governor of Nevada for protection, according to the message.

First Park Service To Be July 10

The Sunday afternoon religious services planned to be given in Willson park June 3 has been postponed for one week, according to the chairman of the committee on arrangements, due to the fact that many expected to take part in the exercises are obliged to be away on account of the Fourth of July celebration the following day.

Teacher Says Fascination For Todd Led Her To Invest In Timber Claim Project

Undergoing a grilling cross-examination by attorneys for John W. Todd in the case brought against him for the recovery of $9000 by H. H. Vandervort, Esther C. Wheeler, formerly an employee in Todd's office and school teacher, testified how she became fascinated with the personality of her employer who induced her to invest $500 in the timber claim proposition which he and C. L. Bryon were then promoting.

Frenchman, Down Twice In Minute, Takes Count When Champion Swings To Jaw

Challenger Outclassed and Badly Punished From First Bell; Few Blows Landed by Invader Fail to Stop Gruelling Aggressiveness of Opponent

Ringside, July 2.—Georges Carpentier finished flat on his face, his leg and arms outstretched in the fourth round. Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion knocked him out a few seconds after the round opened, sending him heavily to the canvas with a short right hook to the chin. The actual time of fighting in the fourth round was one minute and sixteen seconds. Previous to the knockout, Carpentier was floored with a left to the body and a right to the chin. Carpentier took a count of nine before springing to his feet where the grim, determined Dempsey measured him with a punch to the chin which ended the battle. Dempsey stood over the fallen French idol until the count was finished and then tenderly picked up the bleeding and dazed Frenchman and dragged him to his corner. Dempsey gave Carpentier an unmerciful beating. He opened up a cut under the Frenchman's eye and battered him so viciously around the head with vicious rights and lefts until Carpentier's face was swollen and bleeding. Carpentier fought gamely back at the champion but he was outclassed.

Pastor To Enter Plea on Tuesday

Rev. Mr. Royston Has Admitted Guilt, Is Claim of Officers—Has Arraignment
Arraigned before Judge Uaruh in the justice court this morning after he had admitted, according to the police, that his relationship with Miss Frankie Edwards had been criminally intimate. Rev. Fred Royston, 33-year-old minister, took his statutory time in which to enter his plea. He was removed to the county jail and will formally plead next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Bank and Cops Warn Against Check Artists

Local banks and city police have issued a warning to merchants and others to use care in cashing checks from unknown parties during the day, due to the opportunity than is provided for check artists to escape over Sunday and Monday.

Sudden End Surprise

The sudden manner in which the main bout was staged with postponement of the last preliminary caught the spectators by surprise. There were cheers when the American champion was introduced but the crowd, the arena around, cheered itself hoarse as Carpentier was hailed as champion of the Old World, idol of his country and a soldier of France. As calm and unperurbed a fighter as ever entered the ring, the French birdman kept his eyes turned up, watching planes circling overhead with a noisy staccato at the very moment the boxers appeared. There was not the usual rush to the ring after the knockout—that championship rush that carries all before it. What rush did start soon was checked by a heavy detail of police around the ring.

Carpentier Cheered

The throng, which during the bout rose and sank in their seats in a wave which rippled from ringside to rim, stood in their places after the knockout. The crowd cheered the conqueror but it also cheered the vanquished. The Frenchman's supporters clung around his corner until he was revived and staggered from the ring—the "battle of the century" over.

Blows Weaken Georges

The continual bombardment of heavy body blows from Dempsey's fists was rapidly weakening Carpentier. The Frenchman began to sag noticeably at the knees and after about fifty-five seconds of punishment, crumpled up on the floor from the vicious right to the body and left to the chin. Carpentier was not unconscious but in sore distress as he lay curled up on his side. Referee Ertle began the count as he stood alongside the prostrate Frenchman, while Dempsey, leaning against the ropes with a sardonic grin on his face, watched the rise and fall of the referee's hands. At the count of nine Georges rose to his knees and arose in a game but weakened fashion. The champion was upon him again in a flash and another crushing left to the midsection followed by a flashing right to the chin with all of Dempsey's weight behind it hurled Carpentier to the floor with his right hand, but he heard many feet from the ring. Again Carpentier lay on his side while the count went on and at the sound of eight he made a desperate attempt to regain his feet. He raised his body part way from the floor with his right hand, but the effort was futile, and two seconds later the European champion was counted out. The time of the final round was one minute and sixteen seconds.

Bank and Cops Warn Against Check Artists

Local banks and city police have issued a warning to merchants and others to use care in cashing checks from unknown parties during the day, due to the opportunity than is provided for check artists to escape over Sunday and Monday.

Sudden End Surprise

The sudden manner in which the main bout was staged with postponement of the last preliminary caught the spectators by surprise. There were cheers when the American champion was introduced but the crowd, the arena around, cheered itself hoarse as Carpentier was hailed as champion of the Old World, idol of his country and a soldier of France. As calm and unperurbed a fighter as ever entered the ring, the French birdman kept his eyes turned up, watching planes circling overhead with a noisy staccato at the very moment the boxers appeared. There was not the usual rush to the ring after the knockout—that championship rush that carries all before it. What rush did start soon was checked by a heavy detail of police around the ring.

Carpentier Cheered

The throng, which during the bout rose and sank in their seats in a wave which rippled from ringside to rim, stood in their places after the knockout. The crowd cheered the conqueror but it also cheered the vanquished. The Frenchman's supporters clung around his corner until he was revived and staggered from the ring—the "battle of the century" over.

Blows Weaken Georges

The continual bombardment of heavy body blows from Dempsey's fists was rapidly weakening Carpentier. The Frenchman began to sag noticeably at the knees and after about fifty-five seconds of punishment, crumpled up on the floor from the vicious right to the body and left to the chin. Carpentier was not unconscious but in sore distress as he lay curled up on his side. Referee Ertle began the count as he stood alongside the prostrate Frenchman, while Dempsey, leaning against the ropes with a sardonic grin on his face, watched the rise and fall of the referee's hands. At the count of nine Georges rose to his knees and arose in a game but weakened fashion. The champion was upon him again in a flash and another crushing left to the midsection followed by a flashing right to the chin with all of Dempsey's weight behind it hurled Carpentier to the floor with his right hand, but he heard many feet from the ring. Again Carpentier lay on his side while the count went on and at the sound of eight he made a desperate attempt to regain his feet. He raised his body part way from the floor with his right hand, but the effort was futile, and two seconds later the European champion was counted out. The time of the final round was one minute and sixteen seconds.

Round One

They were sent away at 3:18. Carpentier landed a light left and clinched. Carpentier landed a right. They fought at close range in a clinch. Dempsey was short with a left to the head. Carpentier (Continued on Page Five.)

Bulletins of Fight Heard By Big Crowd

Between 3500 and 4000 people gathered in front of the Capital Journal offices on Commercial street this morning to hear the results of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight as they were announced hot off the press wire. The street was jammed with listeners from the State street corner to half way down the block, growing in numbers, up to the time that the knockout was announced. When the word came that Carpentier took his ten counts the crowd broke forth in a wild demonstration of cheering, and did not disperse until after the Journal extra appeared on the streets a few minutes later. Every bulletin speaking of the American's attack was greeted with cheers. Crowds began gathering at the office a little after ten o'clock, when the first bulletins were received from the arena. Lingers still rad the flashes on the Journal bulletin board throughout the afternoon.

Teacher Says Fascination For Todd Led Her To Invest In Timber Claim Project

Undergoing a grilling cross-examination by attorneys for John W. Todd in the case brought against him for the recovery of $9000 by H. H. Vandervort, Esther C. Wheeler, formerly an employee in Todd's office and school teacher, testified how she became fascinated with the personality of her employer who induced her to invest $500 in the timber claim proposition which he and C. L. Bryon were then promoting.

Babe Ruth Adds 2 More Homers

New York, July 2.—Babe Ruth crashed out two home runs today, bringing his total up to 30. The first was clouted in the seventh inning of the first game with Boston, while the other was made in the first inning of the second game.

Roads Opened For Two Days

The Salem-Silverton and the Salem-Turner roads which have been closed because of paving for the last few weeks, will be opened to accommodate automobiles travelling in those directions, Sunday and Monday, according to Roadmaster James Culver this morning. The barricades will be taken down tonight, and will be replaced Tuesday morning.

Another Big Egg Is Found

Rhode Island Red blood leads in the production of big eggs so far in the impromptu contest that has centered at The Journal office. The latest claim for championship is made by Mrs. Elsie Siler of 574 North 15th street for one of her hens that she says has laid a dozen eggs of the two-in-one variety during the past year. For proof she presented one today that was larger in one dimension than the egg brought into the office yesterday by D. Tuel. The egg contained two yolks and measured 6 1/2 by 7 1/2 inches. Mrs. Siler says that her hen is a good consistent layer.

90,000 See Fight

Ringside, Jersey City, N. J., July 2.—Announcement was made after the contest that 90,000 persons had witnessed the battle. The receipts totalled $1,500,000.

Babe Ruth Adds 2 More Homers

New York, July 2.—Babe Ruth crashed out two home runs today, bringing his total up to 30. The first was clouted in the seventh inning of the first game with Boston, while the other was made in the first inning of the second game.

Kidnaped Woman Is Set Free

Socialist Lecturer Is Liberated by Captors Has Them Placed Under Arrest

Ogden, Utah, July 2.—Kate O'Hare, socialist lecturer, who was forcibly taken from Twin Falls, Idaho, last night, was released at Montello, Nev., several hours later and at once had nine of her alleged kidnapers arrested by a deputy sheriff there, according to the assistant chief dispatcher of the Southern Pacific at Ogden, who was in touch with Montello by wire.

First Park Service To Be July 10

The Sunday afternoon religious services planned to be given in Willson park June 3 has been postponed for one week, according to the chairman of the committee on arrangements, due to the fact that many expected to take part in the exercises are obliged to be away on account of the Fourth of July celebration the following day.

Bank and Cops Warn Against Check Artists

Local banks and city police have issued a warning to merchants and others to use care in cashing checks from unknown parties during the day, due to the opportunity than is provided for check artists to escape over Sunday and Monday.

Sudden End Surprise

The sudden manner in which the main bout was staged with postponement of the last preliminary caught the spectators by surprise. There were cheers when the American champion was introduced but the crowd, the arena around, cheered itself hoarse as Carpentier was hailed as champion of the Old World, idol of his country and a soldier of France. As calm and unperurbed a fighter as ever entered the ring, the French birdman kept his eyes turned up, watching planes circling overhead with a noisy staccato at the very moment the boxers appeared. There was not the usual rush to the ring after the knockout—that championship rush that carries all before it. What rush did start soon was checked by a heavy detail of police around the ring.

Carpentier Cheered

The throng, which during the bout rose and sank in their seats in a wave which rippled from ringside to rim, stood in their places after the knockout. The crowd cheered the conqueror but it also cheered the vanquished. The Frenchman's supporters clung around his corner until he was revived and staggered from the ring—the "battle of the century" over.

Blows Weaken Georges

The continual bombardment of heavy body blows from Dempsey's fists was rapidly weakening Carpentier. The Frenchman began to sag noticeably at the knees and after about fifty-five seconds of punishment, crumpled up on the floor from the vicious right to the body and left to the chin. Carpentier was not unconscious but in sore distress as he lay curled up on his side. Referee Ertle began the count as he stood alongside the prostrate Frenchman, while Dempsey, leaning against the ropes with a sardonic grin on his face, watched the rise and fall of the referee's hands. At the count of nine Georges rose to his knees and arose in a game but weakened fashion. The champion was upon him again in a flash and another crushing left to the midsection followed by a flashing right to the chin with all of Dempsey's weight behind it hurled Carpentier to the floor with his right hand, but he heard many feet from the ring. Again Carpentier lay on his side while the count went on and at the sound of eight he made a desperate attempt to regain his feet. He raised his body part way from the floor with his right hand, but the effort was futile, and two seconds later the European champion was counted out. The time of the final round was one minute and sixteen seconds.

There will be no issue of The Capital Journal on July 4th Independence