Judge Is Lenient Fines Kayser $500

John Kayser, Pratum Farmer, an alleged bootlegger, secured leniency from the county court yesterday when his case was heard by Judge William M. Bushey, who because of the testimony of Dr. Wrightman only fined the culprit $500, without jail sentence.

Dr. Wrightman testified that Mrs. Kayser was in a very critical condition due to the expected birth of a child and that the detention of her husband by the state might result in his death, consequently the jail sentence was asked to be recinded.

Kayser case is the last of the arrests made by S. M. Sandifer special agent of state and anti-saloon league operator and pretty well cleans up the county, according to District Attorney Carson who stated that most of the liquor now used in the county was brought in from Portland.

Eastern Papers To Cut Down Prices

Cleveland, Ohio, July 30.—Effective Monday, August 1, the price of the Cleveland News and the Cleveland Press, evening dailies, will be two cents a copy instead of three cents.

Highest Summit Is Prey of Aviators

Chamonix, France, July 30.—Mount Blanc, the highest summit of the Alps, was conquered today by an aviator.

The successful aviator was Durafor, a Swiss flier, who had previously failed in two attempts to land on the summit. Today, setting out from Lauzanne, he rose to a great height and ultimately effected a landing on the mountain peak, 15,782 feet above sea level.

Taking off from the summit Durafor made a favorable descent, finally landing at Chamonix.

Dalles Berry Prices At Top

The Dalles, Ore., July 30.—What is believed to be the highest price ever paid for northwestern cherries on eastern markets was reported from Chicago when a car of cherries shipped from The Dalles on July 23, sold yesterday for an average of 32½ cents a pound.

La Noel B. Davis is in Salem for a few days visiting with friends. He is returning from a six weeks' trip through the east, having been a delegate to World War veterans convention at Detroit, Mich. Oregon Guard First Among States Units

First place for relative strength and efficiency in the entire ninth corps area, comprising all western and northwestern states, went to the Oregon national guard at the end of the federal fiscal year, June 30, according to the official tables issued by the war department received Friday by the ninth corps area for 12 consecutive months. The state of Washington is in second place, Idaho a poor third and California a bad fourth.

Not only does Oregon get first place in its own army area, but scores high national credit by taking second place in the entire United States. At the beginning of the year Oregon was in ninth place and has advanced from that position month by month, passing such states as New York and Pennsylvania. Conscient stands in first place by a narrow margin.

Washington is the only other western state making a national showing and its national guard ranks fourth in the United States.

In addition to meeting all requirements of the government for 1921, Oregon's citizen army now has sufficient enrolled strength to qualify for 1922 without further enrollment. However, it was stated by Adjutant General White that the increase of the force will be carried out as far as federal authority will permit. The distribution of federal funds in Oregon during the present year in pay of men at armory drills and camps will total nearly $500,000.

Legion Will Meet Tuesday

Business of considerable importance and with regard to raising funds for the establishment of club rooms for the members of the local post of the American Legion will be discussed at the meeting of the organization Tuesday night in the armory at 8 o'clock.

The board of directors will submit their plans for the approval of the members in regard to the automobile contest to be held in September and the "circus" which is to be given some time later.

Harry C. Brumbaugh, secretary of the state bonus commission, will be present to explain the new state aid measure.

Old Resident Passes Away

Charles C. Schwab, for 17 years a resident of this city, passed away at his home at 522 North Sixteenth street last night at the age of 73 years, after an illness of several weeks. He was well known in the city as a marble cutter.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sarah L. Schwab; C. L. Schwab of Bend and F. W. Schwab of Tacoma, sons; Misses Nellie Schwab and Marie Schwab of Salem, daughters; and John F. Schwab of Peoria, Ill., a brother.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 10 o'clock from the Rigdon undertaking parlor. The remains will be sent to Portland for cremation there.

Witness In Murder Case Is Divorced

Joseph H. Klecher was granted a divorce from his wife, Elizabeth Isabella Klecher, December 5, 1919, on the grounds of desertion. The divorce was granted through default and failure of Mrs. Klecher to appear in court. Her last known address was 743, Oakland, Wisconsin. The couple had no children. The divorce papers state that Mrs. Klecher deserted her husband in 1916.

$2000 Suit Filed Against Mt. Angel

A second suit for damages was filed against the city of Mt. Angel this afternoon for the collection of damages.

Martin Horst, who filed suit with Clara B. Hougham, asking that the city be enjoined against the use of a certain stream as a terminal for the city's sewers, filed a complaint asking for $2000 damages, stating in his complaint that the stream was becoming polluted and endangering the life of his stock.

A suit for $10,000 was filed four days ago by Mrs. Hougham for the same cause.

Three Motorists Contribute Money to City Treasury

The city of Salem is $10 richer as a result of three arrests made by the Salem police last night. Three motorists were charged with parking their cars in an improper manner.

H. H. Crawford of Boardman, Or., pleaded guilty and was fined $5 by city Judge Earl Race. Rob H. Camp of Portland forfeited $2.50 bail, and the same amount was forfeited by Charles S. Simon of Salem, when he failed to appear in court today.

T. E. McCroskey, Secretary of the Salem Commercial Club, Addressed the McMinnville Rotary Club Last Night on the "Civic Undertaking of the Rotary Club."

He stated that work of such organizations should be inspirational and educational. The McMinnville organization has started a city beautiful campaign and has also been instrumental in establishing a children's playground for that city.

Another Charge Lodged Against Woman Driver

Failure to stop and render assistance will also be charged to Mrs. Edith Grebe, of Spokane, Washington, against whom a charge of careless and reckless driving was preferred by Mrs. C. W. Finn, wife of the Portland-Salem stage driver who was run down by the Grebe car, Judge G. E. Unruh of the justice court announced this afternoon. Both complaints were signed by Mrs. Finn.

Mrs. Grebe, who was placed under arrest yesterday in Ashland, will be returned to Salem tonight by Constable Walter DeLong.

Officers claim that Mrs. Grebe, who struck the two men while they were repairing a tire on the Pacific highway near Salem last Sunday slipped quietly out of the city last Monday after she had promised to remain here until satisfactory arrangements had been made.

Finn is at present confined in a local hospital, suffering with a broken ankle. Mrs. Grebe, who was said to have driven on immediately after the accident told police that she was forced to run into her men by the untimely arrival of a third machine.

Relief to Start

Washington, July 30.—American relief for starving Russian children could begin forty eight hours after Americans imprisoned or detained in Russia were released and out of Russia, Secretary Hoover said today. There could be no assurance that the Americans had been released, he added, until they were out of Russia.

Mr. Hoover still was awaiting a detailed reply to his offer of aid, transmitted through Maxim Gorky and the state department had received no answer to Secretary Hughes' recent demand that the prisoners be released.

Couple Held For Police at Tacoma

A man and woman who gave their names as Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Smith were being held by the Tacoma police this afternoon following receipt of word from the sheriff at Tacoma, Wash., stating that Smith was wanted at Tacoma on a charge of grand larceny.

A warrant charging Smith with robbing two men of sums aggregating $125 is held by the Washington sheriff, according to the police. The man arrested here this afternoon declared he had no knowledge of the robbery and insisted that his apprehension was a mistake.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were traveling in an automobile when taken into custody.

Card of Thanks

Owing to the extended assistance lent us during the illness and death of Mrs. Roy Westley, we take this method of expressing appreciation to the kind friends and strangers who shared their sympathy, time, autos and contributed exquisite floral offerings at the funeral Thursday. Roy Westley and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Maplethorpe, Lucille Maplethorpe, Mrs. Eva Zeitan, Osborn Maplethorpe.

No Speaker For Monday Luncheon But One Promised

While no speaker has been obtained for the Monday luncheon of business men at the Commercial club, T. E. McCroskey, secretary promises to get one before 12 o'clock on that date.

Attempts were made to get President Kerr of Oregon Agricultural college but due to the illness of his son in Portland, Mr. Kerr was not able to keep the appointment.

Mrs. Z. J. Clarke Passed Away This Morning at Her Home Near Seio. She is a Sister of Geo. H. Dunstford and Mrs. J. T. Welsh of this City. The Funeral Will Be Held Monday Morning from the Family Home.

F. P. Putnam, United States government building inspector, was in town this morning inspecting the post office building, which he stated he found in very good condition.

F. H. Struble, county school supervisor, returned today from Corvallis, where he has been attending the summer session of the agricultural college.

Third Son Meets Death By Violence

The third son to meet with a violent death, Joseph Hammer, 19 year old son of William Hammer of Mt. Angel died at a local hospital yesterday morning from a fractured skull.

Hammer had been working on the site located on his father's ranch Thursday morning and when at lunch time he did not appear a search was made and the boy was found lying unconscious in the inside of the structure. He was rushed to the hospital where every attempt was made to restore him.

His brother was killed in an automobile accident sometime ago, while another was killed in an explosion.

Russians Agree to Release Prisoners

 Nikolai Lenine, the Russian soviet premier.

Washington, July 30.—American relief for starving Russian children could begin forty eight hours after Americans imprisoned or detained in Russia were released and out of Russia, Secretary Hoover said today. There could be no assurance that the Americans had been released, he added, until they were out of Russia.

Mr. Hoover still was awaiting a detailed reply to his offer of aid, transmitted through Maxim Gorky and the state department had received no answer to Secretary Hughes' recent demand that the prisoners be released.

The relief organization has been at work continuously in Europe so that a sufficient personnel could be mobilized at Riga to handle the work on short notice, he said.

Famine relief in Russia, Mr. Hoover said, would be handled directly by the American relief association, though the cooperation of the Red Cross and other organizations would be sought.

Transportation is Needed
 The principal difficulty the relief association would encounter, Mr. Hoover thought, would be the breakdown in the Russian transportation system. Food distribution among the children and the sick would be limited to those areas to which transportation facilities were available, he said.

Grain Returns Set New Record

A check for $29,458 was deposited with State Treasurer Hoff this morning by the grain inspection department of the public service commission. The amount represents collections for grain inspections during July and is said to be approximately twice as large as the ordinary monthly deposit, indicating the rapid and radical expansion experienced in the business of this department.

Increasing popularity of Portland as a grain shipping center has been directly reflected in the business of the state's grain inspection department which, it is explained, anticipates an even greater increase in grain inspections following the final determination of the Columbia basin grain rate case which is believed to have been settled through the action of the interstate commerce commission in ordering the institution of the freight rate differential Friday.

Divorce Decree Denied Hawley

 over, because of plaintiff's failure to establish one particular charge against defendant the defendant was granted a divorce and the custody of the child and Marjorie Hawley, at the age of twenty-two, was, by decree of the trial court, divested of all interest in the property of Willard Hawley turned over into the world penniless and deprived of the comfort of the little child that she went down into the valley of the shadow of death to mother. Is that decree equitable?

Remedy Not Given.
 "In their acts of criminality and recriminations, the parties hereto have overlooked the principle that a divorce is a remedy for the innocent against the guilty and not a relief for wrong against wrong."

"It was the duty of the plaintiff to prove the averments of cruelty alleged in her complaint, by clear and satisfactory evidence before she would, under any condition be entitled to a decree of divorce."

After a careful study of the entire record we are convinced that the plaintiff utterly failed in her attempt to prove that the defendant committed the offense alluded to in paragraph 20. (Criminal and unnatural conduct.)

"The defendant must establish the allegation in his cross-complaint by the same degree of proof required of the plaintiff. In other words, before he is entitled to a divorce, he must establish to the satisfaction of the court by a clear preponderance of the evidence that the alleged charge of cruelty was false and made maliciously and without proper cause."

Other Cases Decided.
 Chief Justice Burnett and Justices Bean and Johns concur in the opinion of Justice Brown.

Plane Will Peddle Gospel Over Oregon; License Is Sought

Its a long step from the day of the old circuit rider to carrying the gospel message about throughout the land with a faithful old horse as his means of locomotion, to the modern day method of spreading the gospel by the air route. But it has been taken.

Application was filed with the secretary of state's office here today by the Apostolic Faith Mission, 712 Schuyler street, Portland, for an air-craft license. The application is filed by R. Robert Crawford and the plane is a Curtis JN-4-D, with a capacity of a passenger and pilot.

Mrs. Zane Grey Says Author was

 meet and a splendid conversation. She sat and chatted about the work of her husband since their marriage back in 1905, soon after his first novel was published. Although she writes a little herself, she is only interested in the writing of her husband with whom she has worked throughout his career as an adviser and critic.

"I think Mr. Grey is a born writer," she said. "Through his college work in the University of Pennsylvania he studied for the dentistry, and received nothing more than the background of a general education which would equip him for the writing profession."

"He loves the west," she continued, "and is guided more by his natural interest than by any artificial technique in constructing and finishing his stories."

"Will he try to write outside of his present field?" It had been intimated that many authors have a desire to try stories different from the usual type of their writings. "He may, Mr. Grey is deeply interested in moral problems. But it is certain that he will not turn to the social novel; it is too much apart from his nature. He is at present fishing on the Catalina islands and every year he gets out in the same way from the mountains or deserts, away from everybody."

Has Been Here Before.
 Mrs. Grey was in the Willamette valley three or four years ago when Zane Grey gathered material for his novel "Desert of Wheat," and later spent some time in the mountains of the state. "Oregon is a lovely state," she said.

The conversation had drifted to other authors and authors' hobbies, but the big touring car was already waiting at the curb and Loren was hopping up and down in the doorway impatiently, eager to get on the road. So Mrs. Grey had to go.

When the car swung out from the curb Loren was smiling, happy, with a little hand eagerly clutching the door of the car. Once more he was on his way to home in California—and duty.

YOUR UNDERTHINGS

Go Far Toward Setting Off Your Dress

THE beautiful woman pictured here did not become so by chance. She was wise enough to realize that good health, correct body poise, and a stylish figure result from wearing BON TON corsets made with the patented O-L-C clasp. Let us tell you fully about this modern invention.

It will be a revelation to the stouter ladies of this vicinity to know that we have added to our already large stock of under garments the Mildred Stylish Stout Svelt-line System Undergarments. They are reinforced where wear is greatest.

Drawers have fitted yoke bands which eliminate fullness and make proper foundations for straight line fronts. The adjustable button bands fit properly without draw strings. Curved button backs fit neatly regardless of the position of wearer. Double materials between the legs reinforce the garments where wear is the greatest. These seams are reinforced by extra tape sewed twice.

There are many other advantages and we would suggest that you inspect this new line to see for yourself what modern science has produced.
