Colorado Woman

Fights Vivisection Denver, Colo., Aug. 2 .- Coloralo's animals will breathe easter and onjoy more freedom if Mrs. Lenora L. Hall, attache of the tate bureau of child and animal protection, has her way.

Sending representatives into against vivisection, Mrs. Hall hopes to so enlighten the public that by the time the next legislature is convening enough pressure an be brought to bear to insure the passage of a law making vivisection filegal in Colorado. "If the public can be informed election as to what vivisoction inll, "I believe an anti-vivisection offl will be carried 10 to 1." Mrs. Hall is thoroughly equip-etween now and the next general ed with medical opinion in suport of her movement. It is said that more than 75 per ent of the berry acreage in Ho diver county is owned by Japa-1886.
