Six Couples Seek Divorce Polk County

Dallas, Or., Aug. 5.—Several very interesting divorce cases have been filed recently in the circuit court in Polk county. In the past two weeks, six divorce cases have been filed which is one-half of the cases presented for hearing; and, during the same period of time, but two marriage licenses have been issued. The divorce cases above mentioned are as follows:

Iva Tillery vs. Clyde Tillery. The plaintiff alleged cruel and inhuman treatment, says that the defendant is of a quarrelsome nature and continually nags the plaintiff about small matters of no consequence; and that he frequently curses her and, on several occasions, he slapped and otherwise beat her; that he uses snuff and tobacco and is obnoxious and unclean; that he even appears dirty in public for the purpose of annoying plaintiff, quite frequently becomes intoxicated on lko and even went so far as to tell vulgar and embarrassing stories in public in the presence of the plaintiff for the purpose of annoying her.

Nash vs. Nash. The case of Myrtle Nash vs. Elms Nash also alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. She alleges frequent and excessive use of intoxicating liquor soon after their marriage and the neglecting of his business to the extent that it diminished in its returns and he took up the horse buying business and, though he made good money, he always squandered it and did not give plaintiff the necessary clothing. She had to work for herself and the liquor habit became unendurable and, therefore, she left him. However, she gave him a second chance but he soon broke his promise and she left him for the second time, which was more than a year ago. That he now resorts to drinking patent medicines and flavoring extracts and, when he becomes drunk, he is an unshyly appearing creature. The plaintiff asks for her maiden name, there being no children.

Van Doren Case. Joseph L. Van Doren vs. Edna C. Van Doren. Plaintiff alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, accuses the defendant of keeping company at night with other men; that for the past five years she would leave the home and stay away for several months, returning when she desired to, Mr. Van Doren asks for an absolute divorce.

Walter L. Badger vs. Hazel Badger. Plaintiff asks for a divorce on the grounds of infidelity. The defendant is in the state of California in a dance hall.

The case of Oliver P. Chase vs. Mildred P. Chase alleges infidelity, specifically stating that defendant has associated herself clandestinely with other men in a manner unbecoming a married woman. Mr. Chase is the city marshal of Dallas and was arrested by Mrs. Oliver P. Chase, nee Mildred P. Ebbe, on the 10th of April, 1923. Both parties are well known in Dallas and the divorce proceedings and accusations came as a surprise to many of the residents.

Marion Items

Marion, Or., Aug. 5.—Miss Lucille Kephart is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Taylor of Macleay.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Ogden are spending their vacation at Newport.

C. M. Smith has purchased the car belonging to G. W. Smith. G. W. Smith of Portland has returned home after spending a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith.

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Beckman in honor of their son, Julius, Thursday night. A large crowd attended.

An error was made in the items several weeks ago. It stated that a teacher had been hired for the intermediate school room. There has not been anybody hired.

Harvey Wright of Aumsville was in town Wednesday making arrangements for buying grain at this place. He will be represented by M. A. Barber.

Mrs. L. A. Doerfler and daughter, Virginia, are visiting her parents in Woodland, Wash.

Mrs. Conklin has returned after visiting friends in Salem.

Eugene's Chamber of Commerce Head Sends Resignation

Eugene, Aug. 5.—L. G. Monroe has resigned as secretary of the Eugene chamber of commerce, effective September 1 and will take up his work in another field after taking a short vacation. Financial depression and the policy of retrenchment on the part of the board of directors of the chamber together with opportunities in a large and broader field, are assigned as reasons for Mr. Monroe's action at this time.

Youths Admit Theft of Car At Falls City

Dallas, Or., Aug. 5.—Sheriff Orr returned late Wednesday from Willows, California, bringing with him the W. B. McKown Ford and the two young men who admit stealing the car.

The young men who confess to the crime are Lloyd Zachary, 20, formerly of Polk county, and James Rhoten, 18, lately of Portland, but whose parents live in California. They admitted the offense when captured by the Willows officers, and are still making no effort to deny their guilt. Zachary is well known, having been sent to the state reform school a couple of times from Polk county.

Stole Car at Falls City. They stole the car in Falls City at about 2 o'clock one morning some ten days ago. They struck south but lost their way by getting off the road and going to Turner. Here they threw away a valuable set of tools belonging to Mr. McKown. On the return trip Sheriff Orr attempted to recover the tools but practically everything had been picked up. It is hoped yet to locate the tools which Mr. McKown uses in his work as superintendent of the Falls City water department.

The young men who admit that they stole the McKown auto at Falls City, were taken before Justice Coad Thursday morning. They waived examination and were bound over to the grand jury. In default of $1000 bail each, they are held in jail. An effort will be made to use the old grand jury, thus having the men sentenced earlier than would be the case if it is necessary to wait until the October term of court.

In Quick Time. Sheriff Orr made the trip in surprisingly quick time. He found that from Roseburg north he was compelled to make many detours despite which he made better than 200 miles a day. The car gave good service, and there was tire trouble but once. Sheriff Orr says that he noticed that northern California has no more paved roads than southern Oregon, but that California has better upkeep on its macadam roads, and that they are good.

While the county will spend as much as the Ford is worth in bringing about its recovery and punishing the thieves, the fact that Polk county is active and will go the limit in catching automobile thieves will doubtless lessen this species of crime within the county.

Harvey O'Bryan Insurance Man Crosses Divide

Harvey O'Bryan, for years one of the best known insurance men in Portland, and prominent in club life and civic activities, died at the state hospital Wednesday. The body was shipped to Portland yesterday and taken to the establishment of Finley & Son. Funeral services will be held Saturday at Portland. The Elks' lodge will be in charge and will conduct their full ritual ceremony.

Mr. O'Bryan came to Portland in 1887 from Mankato, Minn. His insurance business was said for a long time to be the largest in Portland. About a year ago he suffered a collapse and since has been under treatment at Salem.

He was 56 years old and is survived by his mother, Mrs. Emma Gray of Portland; his widow and one son, Jack O'Bryan. The family home was at 1177 East Ankeny street.

Girls Reserve Rooms Early At Corvallis

Corvallis, Aug. 5.—Co-eds will live in the halls for one year before moving into any sorority house which may elect them, according to the rule which has been suspended for two years, now in effect. A greater interest in hall activities will be the result of the enforcement of this plan, believes Miss Sybilla Hadwen, director of dormitories. A central hall committee organized last year will do much to promote social activities and contests of various kinds among the girls. Clubs and social groups among the hall girls will be encouraged, with organization so complete as to include every individual.

The new hall is completely filled, the last deposits having come in several weeks ago. Ninety more places are available in Cauthorn and Waldo halls, more than 400 having been already secured from the three halls. Indications show that more girls than ever before will be in college the coming year.

Army Gas Masks Used by Albany Fire Fighters

Albany, August 5.—Use of regulation United States army gas masks saved the Knights of Pythias building, Lyon and Third streets, from a disastrous fire and possible destruction.

Fire broke out in the basement among a pile of refuse. On the arrival of the fire department, the smoke was so dense that penetration with the usual safeguards was impossible for the firefighters. Hastily donning the gas masks, Chief Russell Bussard, V. E. Harkins, a volunteer, and another member of the department went into the basement and extinguished the smoldering blaze with the chemical apparatus. No great damage was done.

Tokio, Aug. 5.—Owen D. Young, the vice-president of the General Electric company of America has been decorated with the 4th class order of merit and an order of the Rising Sun, in recognition of services to the cause of wireless telegraphy in Japan.

Ocean Boats To Pay Gasoline Tax

An opinion written by Attorney General Van Winkle for Secretary of State Kever holds that gasoline and other motor fuel sold within the state to be used in operation of boats upon the high seas beyond jurisdictional limits of the state are subject to payment of the state tax. The law, the opinion points out, exempts from payment of the tax only such fuels as are sold for exportation from the state to any other state or nation.

Indian Enemies Smoke Peace Pipe

Pentagon, Ont., Aug. 5.—Friendliness existed today between the hereditary Indian foes, the Hurons and Iroquois, whose "feathered chiefs" buried the hatchet yesterday and smoked the pipe of peace in the presence of a great multitude gathered on the shores of Pentagon bay for the tercentenary celebration of the coming of the pioneer Champlain.

The ceremony ended a feud that began 371 years ago. Chief Ovide Stout of the Hurons said to Big Chief Andrew Stant, leader of the Hohawk tribe of the six nations: "Now we go kill moose together;" when they puffed at the pipe of peace and burst the war hatchet beneath a huge red boulder.

Aitchison Likely To Be Reappointed

Washington, Aug. 5.—Rumors circulating here for several days that Interstate Commerce Commissioner Clyde B. Aitchison will soon resign appear to be unfounded.

Aitchison is now in the west. Reports have said that he probably would not be reappointed, his term expiring late this year. Senator McNary today stated that he believes Aitchison will be reappointed. "I feel sure that the shipping board will not be considered related in any way to the interstate commerce commission," he said, "nor does the appointment of another commissioner from Washington state mean that an Oregon man must be displaced. He does not represent one state alone, but is a man of the west who has particular qualifications and grasp of transportation problems. I feel assured there is no justification for reports that the president is unfriendly, and see no reason why his reappointment may not be expected."

Arkansas Agility

Calico, Ark., Aug. 5.—Amos Wyatt, local city marshal, combines the agility of a stooper with his other abilities for capturing elusive gamblers. Recently he spied three young men retreating to a cave on the banks of White river. To approach the mouth of the cave meant no arrests. He scaled the surrounding cliffs and

Reeves Indicted In Burglar Trust

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Melville Reeves, sometimes known as "the skyscraper burglar" has been indicted by the federal grand jury here in connection with the arrest of John W. Worthington and the other charged with composing a "trust" that engineered many recent mail robberies and disposed of stolen securities valued at more than $5,000,000.

Two federal agents left today for a western city whose name was kept secret, bearing a warrant for Reeves whose bond has been fixed at $10,000.
