Sonora
THE INSTRUMENT OF QUALITY
SOUND AS A BELL

It has always been the philosophy of this institution that one cannot play every instrument in the band. That is why we have preached exclusively the gospel of Victor Quality. We are not now changing our philosophy, but proving it. Our devotion is to a principle, not a name. That principle is Quality. For many years its only synonym was Victrola. Today it is also Sonora. That is the reason for our recent purchase of the entire stock of the Myrtle Knowland Music Store which gives us the exclusive Sonora agency in Salem. The Victrola still stands for Quality—there has been no change. But its historic isolation is challenged. A pupil has drawn level with the master and supremacy has company. We need not descend to comparisons. As children look equally good to their mother, so ours look equally good to us. It is a case of doubled, not divided devotion. We neither like the Victrola less nor the Sonora more. We simply must recognize and respond to the ever-increasing demand for the superb Sonora.
