Police Draw Lines of Evidence Closer Around Man Who Led Them to Priest's Grave: Searches for Woman and Man Accused by Hightower Are Continued

San Francisco, Aug. 12 .- A letter written Wednerday by William Hightower, held for investigation in connection with the murder of Rev. Patrick Heslin, to Dolly Mason and uncalled for at the San Francisco postoffice was opened today by the San Francisco police, with Hightower's consent.

The letter asked for further facts concerning the story of a casual visitor, who Hightower said had given Dolly Mason the information which led to the finding of the priest's grave. The police have not been able to locate Dolly Mason. The letter follows:
