

Average for 1920, 5389
Population of Salem 1900, 48562
1910, 14,094; 1920, 17,673
Marion County 1920, 47,1772
Polk county, 14,181
Member of Audit Bureau of Circulation. Associated Press Fall Leased Wire

Capital Journal

OREGON: Tonight and Saturday fair and warmer, moderate westerly winds.

LOCAL: No rainfall. Max. 81, min. 49. River -1.2 feet, stationary.

Salem, Oregon, Friday, August 19, 1921

Price Three Cents OR TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS FIVE CENTS

Forty-Third Year—No. 198

BRITISH CONCESSIONS TO IRISH DECLARED FINAL

Premier Declares Peace Offers Are Most Liberal Yet

Premier Declares Rejection of Terms by Irish Leaders Will Place Responsibility for Renewal of Bloodshed Upon Them.

London, Aug. 19.—The British government in its Irish peace offer had conceded everything it was possible to concede, Premier Lloyd-George declared to the house of commons today in his expected statement on the Irish peace negotiations.

It embodied the largest measure of freedom ever offered Ireland, he said, and he hoped the Irish leaders would not reject it "and take the responsibility of renewing a conflict which would be robbed of all glory and all gratitude by its overshadowing horror."

Provision had been made, he said, for the summoning of parliament on 48 hours' notice if negotiations broke down and the prospect of peace became hopeless. He hoped, however, that reason would prevail and the government's desire for an ending of the long mis- understanding between England and Ireland would be realized.

The prime minister's words were paralleled in the house of lords by Lord Curzon, the foreign secretary, as to the government's offer having already gone to the limit. All that could be given without compromising the safety of the realm, the sovereignty of the crown and the dignity of the empire had been offered, he said.

"I want to make it clear," continued the prime minister, "that the government did not put forth haggling terms, but put forth everything they could possibly concede to purchase peace and the good will of the Irish people. In Ireland itself, so far as I can see, the doubt is not so much as to the terms but as to whether the government really means them."

"That is a question of working out the terms—of elucidation and elaboration and not a changing of the terms. The outline cannot be altered nor the basis changed."

"In view of the fact that the house is about to separate and the fact that very disquieting statements have been made, and even of a few disquieting facts, we are bound as a government to take thought of all possible contingencies, however, unpleasant they may be."

"The first is the possibility of an agreement, in which case the details will have to be thrashed out, which will take time. There is always apt to be an atmosphere of suspicion surrounding relations between two countries—a suggestion of bad faith if there is a misunderstanding on the slightest particular."

"It would thus be the duty of the executive to place a bill embodying the details and principles before the parliament for immediate action, because delay is disastrous once an agreement was reached."

"If Terms Rejected. 'I wish it was not necessary to deal with the other contingency, but we are bound to take notice of certain things which have been said. This contingency is that our terms are rejected.'"

"Were that misfortune to fall to the relations between these two islands, whose history has been so full of such unfortunate incidents, we would be faced with a graver situation in regard to Ireland than that with which we have ever been confronted."

"Whatever these terms may accomplish and may have done there is one thing they have achieved. They have defined the issues more clearly than ever before, and rejection would be an unmistakable challenge to the authority of the crown and the unity of the empire, and no party in the state could possibly pass that over without notice."

"I am using no language of menace. That would be indeed folly. Where there are so many existing difficulties, to use threatening language would be to aggravate old difficulties and create new ones."

"To Summon Parliament. 'If there is rejection, and final rejection beyond hope of negotiation, steps will undoubtedly have to be taken which the executive ought not and would wish to take without first consulting parliament and giving it full opportunity of expressing approval or disapproval of any steps we might propose to do.'"

The premier explained that the motion to adjourn was for the house to meet October 15 for formal prorogation if the negotiations were proceeding satisfactorily. If the negotiations broke down and the position became hopeless, he added, the speaker was empowered, after consultation with the government, to summon parliament on 48 hours' notice.

The executive, said the prime minister, would feel authorized to take any necessary urgency measures, but would not, therefore, delay the summoning of parliament.

61 Billion of Cigarettes in '20
Washington, Aug. 19.—Cigarettes numbering 61,859,000,000 were manufactured in the United States last year, the census bureau's annual tobacco report issued today shows. Of that number 15,334,000,000 were exported, leaving about 46,000,000,000 factory made cigarettes for consumption in the United States. Cigarettes manufactured numbered 8,720,754,000 and tobacco manufactured including chewing and smoking and snuff, totaled 413,951,000 pounds.

Cloudburst Wipes Out Adobe City

200 Families Lose Homes at Hatch, N. M.; Mud Houses Crumble in Flood.

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 19.—Flood waters which wiped out virtually every building in the town of Hatch, N. M., yesterday, rendering more than two hundred families homeless and destroying thousands of dollars worth of property, still were several feet deep in the town today, according to messages received by the El Paso Herald.

Heavy cloudbursts throughout this section early yesterday and Wednesday night caused rivers and creeks to rise high and rushing torrents were sent through rich farm lands and through Hatch.

Suffer from Exposure. Women and children of the town are suffering from exposure, according to H. F. Fieldness of Hatch, who telephoned the conditions to the El Paso Herald today. He asked that physicians be sent to take care of them immediately.

Fieldness said over the telephone he was standing in a foot of water in a telephone booth in one of the five buildings yet standing in the town.

"Over 200 people have been rendered homeless by the flood, and they are suffering," he said. "We must have food and bedding from the outside for our people who were able to save but little of anything when they had to flee."

Keas Crumble Rapidly. The houses were almost all adobe and they crumbled rapidly when the water came down from Chiswell and flooded the town. The water receded only a few inches.

Hundreds of persons in the upper El Paso valley, who were forewarned, drove their stock from the lowlands into the foothills.

There was a continuous all night procession of men, women and children moving from the valley into the hills, carrying provisions and household furniture.

Many slept on the hillside and along the high road ways without any bedding.

Crater Lake Trip Postponed

Postponement of the proposed tour of Crater Lake and the Josephine caves by seventy five residents of the Willamette valley towns, among whom were several Salem people, has been made necessary, according to a letter received this morning by T. E. McCroskey, secretary of the Commercial club, from S. B. Vincent, manager of the Oregon Tourist and Information bureau, Portland.

Mr. Vincent's letter states: "I was advised by the Oregon bureau of mines, that due to rush of business and to unexpected developments in the Oregon bureau of mines that it will be impossible for us to have the services of one of the geologists of that bureau in connection with the proposed visit to the Josephine caves and Crater Lake."

"I have, therefore, after consulting with Mr. Parkes, of the Oregon bureau of mines, determined to call off the excursion and have notified the various organizations interested to the effect."

Panther Springs at Automobile

Randon, Or., Aug. 18.—While returning from Rogue river Saturday night in an automobile, Joe and Mike Stankavich were attacked by a large panther. The boys were coasting down the mountain between Brush creek and Hubbard's creek, when the animal jumped out of the darkness, striking the hood. Falling to get a foothold, the animal jumped again, landing in front of the car and as the automobile passed, jammed the front wheels for an instant, almost turning it off the road. The driver speeded up and got away. Five large salmon were strapped to the car and it is supposed the panther had smelted them.

Jay H. Upton of Prineville has been appointed chief of staff for the state of Oregon for the Spanish War Veterans.

Clean Fair Promised By Police

Games of Chance Put Under Ban by Chief Moffitt; Twenty Men Needed for Jobs.

All forms of gambling, including doll and knife rackets, candy boards and other games of chance are to be barred from the Oregon state fair grounds during the fair this year, Chief of Police Moffitt announced this morning.

For the first time in history the policing of the fair grounds will be done by the Salem police force, because of the extension of the city limits last year to include the fair grounds, and the city police officials are perfecting their plans accordingly.

To Add Twenty Men. Twenty extra officers are to be added to the local force during the week for the task of patrolling the grounds alone and at least two special officers will be added to the regular city force, Chief Moffitt announced.

Separate headquarters will be maintained at the fair grounds, with Sergeant Davis in charge, and arrangements have been made with the fair board for two offices in the administration building. These headquarters will be equipped with telephone connection with all of the buildings on the grounds and with regular city police headquarters by direct wire.

Men to Be in Uniform. The work of patrolling the fair grounds will be divided into two shifts of 12 hours each, the long shift being from 12 o'clock noon until midnight. The shift between midnight and noon will be split into two watches of six hours each. The night patrol, from midnight to 6 a. m. will consist of eight men. All but six of the 20 extra men on fair grounds duty will be in uniform.

"The same police restriction will apply to the fair grounds as are regularly enforced in the city," Chief Moffitt said. "This is our initial attempt at policing the grounds and we are going to make a complete success of it if such a thing is possible. The games of chance, use of liquor and other complaints that have been made against fair week practices on the grounds in previous years will not be tolerated."

To Enlarge City Force. To handle the additional traffic and large crowds down town during fair week, two motorcycle men working out of regular headquarters will be on duty at all hours at headquarters to speed up service on emergency calls, Chief Moffitt announced.

Chief Moffitt, who will exercise general supervision over both stations, said that he is now ready to receive applications for the extra jobs on the force during fair week. Salem men will be given preference in appointing men.

California Man Is Dead

J. M. Manson of San Francisco, who had been in the city barely a couple of days, died suddenly last night about nine o'clock at the Baker apartments from the result of heart trouble. The man was somewhere between the age of 50 and 60 years. He had opened a bank account in the city and indicated that he expected to remain here for some time.

Little is known concerning the stranger, and communication from F. L. Durant of Elgin, Ill., whom the stranger asked to be notified in case of any accident, has not as yet been received. The body is in charge of Rigdon and Son, undertakers.

Cargo Of Booze Seized In Frazier

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 19.—Whiskey valued at several thousand dollars was seized at the mouth of the Fraser river, near here, when provincial police officers surprised a party of men who had delivered two truck loads of liquor to be loaded on a scow. It was reported here today. Officials here believe the whiskey was to have been exported to the United States.

Growers Sell Three Carloads New Prune Crop

Sale of three carloads of prunes at the opening prices announced by the association yesterday was made this morning by the Oregon Growers' Co-operative association. Buyers are active and are taking all sizes at the figures quoted.

Several large buyers are in the market for several hundred tons of small prunes of the 1921 crop. Opening prices have been quoted to these buyers but it looks as though orders would be given to some independent packers who are buying prunes at low prices from independent growers and are thus able to sell at a slightly lower figure than the association's price and still make a profit.

Neuner Refuses to Comment on Local Brumfield Clues

Aside from declaring that information furnished him by Chief of Police Moffitt might assist him in locating the "woman" whom it is believed may throw some light on the Brumfield murder case, should the information materialize, George Neuner, district attorney of Douglas county, who spent last night and most of today in

Mummy Hand Pharaoh's Daughter Left to Institute

* Peoria, Ill., Aug. 19.—* The "right mummy hand of* Pharaoh's daughter who rescued Moses from the waters* of the Nile" was left to Bradley Polytechnic institute, according to the will of the late Mrs. Annie E. Petherbridge, filed this afternoon* for probate.*

Pupils On Decrease In High Grades

Figures compiled in the office of the county school superintendent of the attendance in the different schools throughout the county show a marked decrease in attendance after the pupils have passed the eighth grade.

The total attendance this year in the eighth grades was 913 of which 463 were boys, and from the first to the ninth grades the attendance of male pupils is much larger than that of the girls.

In the ninth grade the situation is reversed, there being 346 boys registered against 260 girls. By the time twelfth grade is reached the attendance of girls is almost double that of the boys and shows a decrease of almost 75 per cent from the attendance in the eighth grade. The number in the twelfth is 93 boys and 151 girls.

The average daily attendance in the schools was $359, and the number of pupils completing the eighth grade this year was 317 boys and 256 girls. No report is available as to how many completed the high school courses.

In the teaching staff, of the county there are 64 males, and 126 females.

Rate Increase Critics Unfair Says Engineer

Critics of the recent telephone rate increases have been unfair in that they have used only such facts as would bolster up their case, according to Leonard A. Andrus, Portland consulting engineer.

Andrus, on the witness stand in the rate rehearing this morning, explained that he had become interested in the stories circulated about the excessive profits earned by the American Telephone & Telegraph company because he is a stockholder in that company. In order to satisfy himself as to the correctness of these reports, he stated, he had voluntarily made an analysis of the balance sheets and earnings statements of the Bell and American systems, which findings he had incorporated in an exhibit presented at the hearing today.

This analysis, he declared, "proves that the American company is not earning excessive profits and that the reserves and surplus are not unduly large in relation to the investment as gauged by those of other concerns who are leaders in their respective lines."

"In demanding a return to the old rates, local subscribers are asking the American company stockholders to extend charity to the people of Oregon to the extent of the annual deficit on the operation of the telephones in this state," Andrus contends.

Previous to taking up the work with the supreme court, Mr. Turner was associated with C. M. Inman of this city in a law firm here. He was educated at Willamette university where he attended the law school. While connected with the supreme court he re-

Frank A. Turner Passes Away At Residence Today

Frank A. Turner, for the past 30 years a resident of Salem and Oregon state supreme court reporter since August, 1908, passed away at his home at 335 North Capitol street, shortly after noon today, at the age of 76 years, after an illness of several weeks.

The deceased is survived by a son, Rex A. Turner of Seattle, a daughter, Miss Joy Turner of Salem, and a sister, Mrs. Alice Miller, of California. His wife died in this city a couple of years ago.

The body is in charge of the Rigdon undertaking parlors. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

Bay State Mob Tries To Lynch Negro Prisoners

Barnstable, Mass., Aug. 19.—A mob of nearly 200 men and women carrying ropes early today stormed the local jail, threatening to lynch three Cape Verde island negro prisoners charged with highway robbery and criminal assault on a young white woman at Buzzard's Bay.

At 2:30 this morning 25 automobiles whose occupants included women, as well as men, drove up to the local jail. They demanded the three negroes, John Dies, Benjamin Gomez and Joseph Andrews, from Sheriff Irving L. Rosenthal. There were shouts of "let's get them" as the mob approached but when the jail defenders fired in the air the crowd halted.

Postmistress Held For Murder

Miss Lena Clarke & F.W. Millmore.

Miss Naomi Millmore.

Miss Lena Clarke, Postmistress of West Palm Beach, Fla., is being held at that city charged with the alleged slaying of Fred W. Millmore, of Chicago. Millmore was found in his hotel room at Orlando, Florida, drugged, which, it is alleged, later caused his death.

Miss Clarke is also charged with stealing $32,000 in cash from the mails. Miss Clarke is said to have killed Millmore, according to the police, because he refused to sign a statement admitting responsibility for shortages in the accounts in the postoffice. Search is also being conducted for a West Palm Beach banker, Miss Naomi Millmore, daughter of the victim, is said to have given the police much information tending to clear up the mystery.

Thieves Using Auto Truck Rob Home; Leave Range

Everything But Stove and Dining Table Stolen From House of Mrs. Wm. Patrick During Night; Family on Vacation.

Under the cover of darkness sometime Wednesday or Thursday night, thieves operating with a motor truck entered the home of Mrs. William Patrick, a half mile north of Selma in Polk county, on the Wallace road, ransacked the place and removed everything in the house with the exception of the kitchen range and dining room table, according to Chief of Police Verden M. Moffitt of Salem, who was called by Polk county officials to assist in the case this morning.

Just what the value of the articles taken by the thieves will amount to the officers are unable to estimate, as Mrs. Patrick and her daughter, Rose Bodayle, are at Newport, where they went several days ago to spend their vacation.

During the absence of Mrs. Patrick and Miss Bodayle a friend, Byron Gibson, employed by the Postal Telegraph company in Salem, has been going to the Patrick place each day to see that everything was all right. This morning he found the place ransacked and reported the theft to Sheriff John Orr at Dallas, who sent Deputy Sheriff Imhah to investigate.

Investigation revealed the tracks of the truck where it had been drawn up beside the fence in front of the house. The fence had been broken down, indicating that the thieves had carried the furniture and other articles out of the house and across the yard.

When Mrs. Patrick left she had the electric power turned off, and the burned matches with which the floors are strewn indicate by what light the thieves worked. Everything of value in the house was taken, including furniture, dishes, silverware, clothing and other articles.

Most of the stolen articles were new the officers believe, as Mrs. Patrick but recently moved into the house from her former home in Dallas.

Neighbors neither saw the truck or the thieves and have been unable to throw any light on the case.

Growers Sell Three Carloads New Prune Crop

Salem, refused to comment on his presence in the city or on the Brumfield case, from the angle of local developments or otherwise.

Acting on information from Chief of Police Moffitt that a woman having correspondence with a Roseburg man, supposedly Dr. Brumfield, had spent some time in Salem just previous to the Russell murder, for which Brumfield has been arrested, Mr. Neuner stopped off in Selma last night on his way to Roseburg from Portland, where he met Brumfield when he was returned from Canada.

This morning Neuner and Chief Moffitt were in conference twice, but no information concerning either session was given out.

Cut Taxes On Cereal Beverages

House Committee Makes 4 Cents Tax—Good Roads Bill Passes—Wood Bill

Washington, Aug. 19.—Elimination of taxes on proprietary medicines was agreed upon today by the house ways and means committee, which approved more than sixty changes in the republican tax bill.

Subsequently the majority members of the committee voted to reduce the tax on cereal beverages from the proposed six cents a gallon to four cents, and to bring fire and marine insurance companies under the 1 1/2 per cent corporation income tax on the same basis as life insurance companies.

Road Bill Passes. The federal aid roads bill, appropriating $75,000,000 for construction, one-third of which would be immediately available, was passed today by the senate.

By a vote of 28 to 22 the senate adopted an amendment to the federal aid road bill, reducing from $100,000,000 to $75,000,000 the amount available for construction in the next year.

Wood Bill Defeated. The administration bill designed to permit Major General Leonard Wood to become governor general of the Philippines, without retaining as an active officer of the army, was laid on the table today by the house military committee without a record vote. Committee members were said to have held it would be a dangerous precedent to establish.

Practically all committee members were reported to have favored tabling the measure which makes it certain that the bill will not come to vote in the house.

No criticism of General Wood was expressed at the committee session it was said, members agreeing that he would make an excellent governor and should accept President Harding's offer. The opinion was reported to be equally general, however, that it would be a dangerous precedent to permit army officers, without resigning their commissions, to accept civilian posts.

General Wood, it was argued, should retire from the army if he wished to accept the island post.

Frank A. Turner Passes Away At Residence Today

Frank A. Turner, for the past 30 years a resident of Salem and Oregon state supreme court reporter since August, 1908, passed away at his home at 335 North Capitol street, shortly after noon today, at the age of 76 years, after an illness of several weeks.

The deceased is survived by a son, Rex A. Turner of Seattle, a daughter, Miss Joy Turner of Salem, and a sister, Mrs. Alice Miller, of California. His wife died in this city a couple of years ago.

The body is in charge of the Rigdon undertaking parlors. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

Bay State Mob Tries To Lynch Negro Prisoners

Barnstable, Mass., Aug. 19.—A mob of nearly 200 men and women carrying ropes early today stormed the local jail, threatening to lynch three Cape Verde island negro prisoners charged with highway robbery and criminal assault on a young white woman at Buzzard's Bay.

At 2:30 this morning 25 automobiles whose occupants included women, as well as men, drove up to the local jail. They demanded the three negroes, John Dies, Benjamin Gomez and Joseph Andrews, from Sheriff Irving L. Rosenthal. There were shouts of "let's get them" as the mob approached but when the jail defenders fired in the air the crowd halted.

Chief Warden James Boland warned the mob back, shouting that at the first attempt to attack the jail they would "be shot down like rats."

The warning had its effect, but the crowd remained outside the jail nearly an hour and a half before dispersing.

Dies and Gomez were held in $15,000 bail each yesterday and Andrews was to be arraigned today. All three have been identified by Miss Gertrude Butler and William Eldredge as the men who held them up and criminally assaulted Miss Butler at Buzzard's Bay early in the week.

A crowd yesterday attempted to get John Dies from the Wareham lockup, but dispersed when the police fired over their heads.

Premier Declares Peace Offers Are Most Liberal Yet

Premier Declares Rejection of Terms by Irish Leaders Will Place Responsibility for Renewal of Bloodshed Upon Them.

London, Aug. 19.—The British government in its Irish peace offer had conceded everything it was possible to concede, Premier Lloyd-George declared to the house of commons today in his expected statement on the Irish peace negotiations.

It embodied the largest measure of freedom ever offered Ireland, he said, and he hoped the Irish leaders would not reject it "and take the responsibility of renewing a conflict which would be robbed of all glory and all gratitude by its overshadowing horror."

Provision had been made, he said, for the summoning of parliament on 48 hours' notice if negotiations broke down and the prospect of peace became hopeless. He hoped, however, that reason would prevail and the government's desire for an ending of the long mis- understanding between England and Ireland would be realized.

The prime minister's words were paralleled in the house of lords by Lord Curzon, the foreign secretary, as to the government's offer having already gone to the limit. All that could be given without compromising the safety of the realm, the sovereignty of the crown and the dignity of the empire had been offered, he said.

"I want to make it clear," continued the prime minister, "that the government did not put forth haggling terms, but put forth everything they could possibly concede to purchase peace and the good will of the Irish people. In Ireland itself, so far as I can see, the doubt is not so much as to the terms but as to whether the government really means them."

"That is a question of working out the terms—of elucidation and elaboration and not a changing of the terms. The outline cannot be altered nor the basis changed."

"In view of the fact that the house is about to separate and the fact that very disquieting statements have been made, and even of a few disquieting facts, we are bound as a government to take thought of all possible contingencies, however, unpleasant they may be."

"The first is the possibility of an agreement, in which case the details will have to be thrashed out, which will take time. There is always apt to be an atmosphere of suspicion surrounding relations between two countries—a suggestion of bad faith if there is a misunderstanding on the slightest particular."

"It would thus be the duty of the executive to place a bill embodying the details and principles before the parliament for immediate action, because delay is disastrous once an agreement was reached."

"If Terms Rejected. 'I wish it was not necessary to deal with the other contingency, but we are bound to take notice of certain things which have been said. This contingency is that our terms are rejected.'"

"Were that misfortune to fall to the relations between these two islands, whose history has been so full of such unfortunate incidents, we would be faced with a graver situation in regard to Ireland than that with which we have ever been confronted."

"Whatever these terms may accomplish and may have done there is one thing they have achieved. They have defined the issues more clearly than ever before, and rejection would be an unmistakable challenge to the authority of the crown and the unity of the empire, and no party in the state could possibly pass that over without notice."

"I am using no language of menace. That would be indeed folly. Where there are so many existing difficulties, to use threatening language would be to aggravate old difficulties and create new ones."

"To Summon Parliament. 'If there is rejection, and final rejection beyond hope of negotiation, steps will undoubtedly have to be taken which the executive ought not and would wish to take without first consulting parliament and giving it full opportunity of expressing approval or disapproval of any steps we might propose to do.'"

The premier explained that the motion to adjourn was for the house to meet October 15 for formal prorogation if the negotiations were proceeding satisfactorily. If the negotiations broke down and the position became hopeless, he added, the speaker was empowered, after consultation with the government, to summon parliament on 48 hours' notice.

The executive, said the prime minister, would feel authorized to take any necessary urgency measures, but would not, therefore, delay the summoning of parliament.

Sinn Fein Await Action of Premier

Dublin, Aug. 19.—Sinn Fein leaders today centered their attention on London, awaiting the expected statement of the Irish negotiators by Premier Lloyd-George in the house of commons and the government's reply in the house of lords to the recent invitation by the Marquis of Salisbury for an official expression on this subject. Meanwhile the rank and file of the deputies were engaged in committee work on Irish internal affairs.

The Oath had put off discussion of the reply to the British prime minister's peace offer until Monday.

Fannie Lee Hurt When Motorcycle And Car Collide

Fannie Lee was stunned and bruised and Omar Coffel, a Western Union messenger was shaken up when the motorcycle upon which they were riding collided with an automobile driven by C. E. Bladley, route 7, Salem, at the corner of Church and Chemeketa streets about six o'clock last evening. Bladley was driving east on Chemeketa and Coffel south on Church street when the accident occurred. Broken handle bars and a mashed front wheel on the motorcycle and a bent running board on the car were the extent of the damages to the machines.

Miss Lee was riding on the gasoline tank of the motorcycle when the accident took place, according to the police report made by Sergeant Ellis, and it was at first thought that her injuries might be serious. She was rushed to the Deaconess hospital, but returned to her home this morning.

Husband and Wife of Dead Man and Woman Arrested

Waco, Texas, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Beesie Keyes, and W. T. Aven are under arrest at McKinney, Texas, charged with the murder of the woman's husband, Leslie Keyes. Aven's wife died mysteriously prior to the killing of Keyes, whose mangled body was found on a railroad track near here the night of August 6 after a freight train had passed. The authorities announced today the bodies of Mrs. Aven and Keyes would be exhumed for examination.