

News Notes of Salem and Vicinity Briefly Told

Coming Events

Sept. 25—I. B. S. A. public lecture, "Millions Now Living Will Never Die." Derby building, 2:30 p. m.

Sept. 26-Oct. 2—State fair.

Oct. 1—U. of O. and Willamette university football game, Sweetland field.

Oct. 3—Opening of Salem schools.

Oct. 4—Concert, Theo. Karle, tenor, and Enrique Ros, pianist, Grand theatre 8 p. m.

Oct. 5—Northwest conference of Rotarian club executives.

Oct. 15—O. A. C. and Willamette football game here, Sweetland field.

Oct. 18—County community sing, armory.

Circuit Court
Demurrer in the case of F. G. Hobson vs. Robert Crawford, asking that the causes for suit be made clearer, filed by the defendant.

Objections to coat bill filed in the case of W. L. McElroy vs. Schumann.

Answer filed, alleging that note of $74.56 had been paid on the first cause of action, in the case of P. M. Spry vs. Marion B. Kalm.

Suit to quiet title of certain real property filed in the circuit court this morning against Josephine E. Palmer et ux, by A. A. Kilger.

Complaint for the collection of $3000 note secured by three shares of Willamette Lumber company stock, filed by the First National bank of Silverton against O. T. Ormbeck.

Probate Court
Motion and order granting administrator, Ray L. Smith, 30 days in which to file inventory of the estate of Frank A. Turner, approved by the court.

Order for closing estate and discharging Lulu H. Bush, executrix, and Frank Hughes, executor, filed in the matter of the estate of Emma P. Hughes.

Will and order for appointment of Elmer W. Purvine and Dudley J. Purvine as administrators of the estate of J. L. Purvine filed.

Order appointing Sylvia W. Jones as administratrix of the estate of S. W. Jones, and M. L. Jones, Charles Hoover and W. P. Colard as appraisers filed.

Notice—I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by my wife after this date. Edgar W. Sowers, 1283 Broadway. 231

Serve Gray Belle French pastry

Wallace Reid in the Paramount Picture, "The Affairs of Anatol," a Cecil B. DeMille Production.

WALLACE REID—Born in St. Louis, Mo., 1892. Educated in New York and graduated from the New Jersey Military academy. Spent some years in Wyoming and returning to New York watered vaudeville. Has been in motion pictures for many years and has been starred by Paramount in many pictures. Has leading role in "The Affairs of Anatol."

OREGON Theatre

WANDA HAWLEY IN "A KISS IN TIME" TOMORROW "THE AFFAIRS OF ANATOL" TODAY

Jeff sized Mutt up just about right.

Gerald Volk has received a letter from J. E. Junkin of Miami, Florida, past president of the National Editorial association, stating that the excursion planned by the association via the Canadian Pacific, to Honolulu for the World's Press congress has been changed, and will go direct to San Francisco and from there to Hawaii, consequently the excursionists will not visit Portland as contemplated. Mr. Junkin had planned to spend several days visiting Mr. Volk at Salem.

"Ad" Pierce, manager of the Marlon hotel, has added additional help to his staff at the Marlon hotel to take care of the visitors next week. Besides six additional girls for the dining room, which he borrowed from the Multnomah hotel, Mr. Pierce has arranged to have R. Balda, head of the Imperial hotel dining room, come down and assist Miss Jennie Baker in its management.

Misses Ina Moore, Mildred Garrett and Sibyl Smith, who graduated last June from Willamette university, have been visiting in Salem with friends this week end. Miss Moore will teach this year in Heppner, Miss Smith in Monmouth and Miss Garrett in Astoria.

Dr. John L. Lynch, osteopathic physician, 493 Oregon bldg. Phone 1394. 229

Professor Hewitt, who for the last several years has instructed in the department of physics in Willamette university, and who is now teaching in the department of chemistry at McMinnville college, came to Salem today on a business trip.

Frank E. Churchill, who recently returned from eastern study with Josef Thevinne and Silvio Selonto, will receive pupils in piano and pipe organ, high school credits given. Studio, Grand theatre bldg. Residence phone 1671R. 229

C. C. Cate, county agent, and O. C. Ostman, his assistant, have arrived from Medford and are busy installing the Jackson county exhibit, which is the largest ever sent, at the state fair grounds.

Pat Conway, Billy Kennedy, all race horses shod with special attention to the horses feet. No outside shoeing while race horses are in the shop. Bring them around. Portland road near main entrance to the fair grounds. 230

Mrs. Lena Waters, teacher of piano, reduced rates to pupils enrolling this month. Residence studio 1473 Mill St. Phone 1184M. 229

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Frost of Forest Grove were in Salem last night. They are expected to remain here for the opening of the fair.

Roast or fried young chicken and all the good things that go with them in our Sunday dinner, served all day tomorrow. 229

C. A. Slost, Oakville, was a guest of the Bilgh hotel last night, but expecting to return to his home shortly.

A. J. Foster, formerly a chiropractor of Hot Springs, Ark., has opened an office at 148 North Commercial street.

Laura Grant has opened her studio for piano and kindergarten. School credits given. 236 North High, phone 1971W. 230

Mayor C. E. Gates of Medford, member of the state fair board, arrived in Salem to stay thru-out the fair season.

Breakfast served at the Gray Belle 5 until 11 a. m. commencing Monday morning. 229

Professor Sherman of Willamette university is leaving today with his family for a week end outing at Seaside.

The annual conference of Marion county H-Y clubs originally scheduled for Stayton on September 30 and October 1 and 2 has been postponed until October 7, 8 and 9, according to announcement by John H. Rudd, state secretary for county Y work and acting executive secretary for the Marion county organization, today. The change in dates, Rudd explains, was necessitated because of a conflict between the original dates and other events in which members of the conference are interested.

Kimball college will open for registration upon Tuesday next. President Hickman estimates that enrollment will about double that of last year. Several additions have been made to the Kimball faculty, Murray Keefer, a graduate of Willamette and Kimball, will instruct in Biblical languages; Rev. Kirkpatrick of the First Methodist church will lecture upon practical theology, and Professor Hertzog of Willamette will instruct in rural leadership.

Another treat by Geo. C. Will and Thomas A. Edison, on Oct. 19, Wednesday evening, at the Grand, a joint recital will be given by Helen Clark and Joseph Phillips, assisted by Thomas George, pianist. These artists are New York Metropolitan singers. 229

Leslie Sparks, a graduate and former athletic star of Willamette university, has returned to Salem and has accepted a position teaching chemistry and coaching athletics in junior high school of Salem this year. Mr. Sparks handled athletics for the high schools of Berkeley, Cal., last year.

Big dance special coming to Dreamland. Colored jazz orchestra of Spokane Grill, during fair week. Something different than ever heard before, up to date, six artists, two real colored singers. Dancing every night fair week. No raise in prices. 231*

The Epworth league of the First M. E. church gave a reception last night to the students of Willamette university. This is an annual occasion welcoming the incoming students of Willamette. The Epworth Dramatic club gave a play as the central feature of the entertainment; then, after a series of games, refreshments were served.

Sauv Louis lunch counter at the fair grounds. Inside wall restaurant on side door. Ice cream, soft drinks, noodles, rice and pork, all kinds sandwiches. Come see your best friend. Have noodles. 229*

State Treasurer O. P. Hoff returned to Salem Friday night after two weeks vacation spent in the vicinity of Hood River. Hoff did not attend the Pendleton Round up this year as had been reported but visited the Roundup city for an inspection of the eastern Oregon state hospital a week ago.

Miss Margaret Fisher, teacher of piano, specializing with children. Studio 796 N. Church St. Phone 2041M. 229

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bishop of Portland will spend the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop. They will arrive today and return Monday.

Special dance tonight. Hear that accordion played at Dreamland. 229*

John Coleman, superintendent of schools at Turner, was in town today on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Blood red Silver salmon for canning, 11c. Fitts Market. Phone 211.

Jack Lucker left today to enter the college of science of the University of Washington in Seattle. Mr. Lucker is in his senior year.

A. J. Miller was in town today on business connected with the office of the county school superintendent. Mr. Miller is principal of the Parkville school and has just returned from Blount, Mont., where he has been straightening up his affairs there in order to take charge of the work in the Parkville district.

The regular annual rally day of the Live Wives of the Leslie M. E. church will be held tomorrow, according to A. C. Boharstedt, class teacher. The class will meet at the home of Mr. Boharstedt for dinner, and it is expected that 25 or 30 new members will be taken in. The program of the year work of the class has already been planned.

Local members of the Whitney Boys' chorus, to sing at the state fair, are making good progress, according to reports. Some very talented boys have already appeared for rehearsal, but more members are desired and boys between the ages of 6 and 21 may join by going to the armory Tuesday evening at 7:30 when rehearsal of choruses will be held.

For corns and callouses phone 442. 229*

Judge Chas. A. Johns, who recently was appointed chief justice of the supreme court of the Philippines, will leave for Manila following the auction of his household effects a week from Tuesday. He has resided at 895 Chemeketa street for the past several years doing his incumbency as supreme court justice, and the auction will be held at the residence.

Slight damage resulted from a collision yesterday in which automobiles driven by Andrew Laing of Corvallis and J. R. Colgan of Jefferson, figured. Mr. Laing was moving north on Commercial and Mr. Colgan was headed east on State when the crash occurred. Neither of the drivers was injured.

A. C. Smith of this city, who last night notified the police that his car had been stolen from in front of the Marlon hotel, today reported that it had been found. The machine had been driven about 60 miles, he said.

Twida Head of Klamath Falls was a visitor in the city today. C. T. Mudge of Portland is in Salem on business. Mr. Mudge, who is associated with a machinery company, will be in charge of an exhibit at the state fair next week.

Men who said their names were U. S. Anderson and M. L. Burns were given beds in the city jail last night.

The assessed valuation of business property in The Dalles will be $1,000,000 greater this year than last.

Died
ASPINWALL—Gladys May Aspinwall passed away at her home seven miles northeast of Salem, on September 22, at the age of twenty four years.

The funeral will be held from the Webb and Clough chapel Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Rev. Lovell officiating. The burial will be in the City View cemetery. She leaves her husband, Mark Aspinwall, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Aspinwall and her brother, Alvin Van Cleave.

W. T. Rigdon and Lloyd T. Rigdon

W. T. Rigdon & Son
Leading Undertakers

Webb & Clough
LEADING FUNERAL DIRECTORS
EXPERT EMBALMERS

Special Merchants
Lunch 35c
Sunday Chicken Dinner
Hours 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.
Extra
American Dishes
A La Carte Service at All Hours
Open 11 a. m. to 1 a. m.
Ice Cream and Soft Drinks
Chop Suey Noodle
NOMKING CAFE
Upstairs at
142 1/2 North Commercial Street

700 Boys—Whitney Boys Chorus
The Largest Boys' Chorus in the World
STATE FAIR GROUNDS
Sunday Afternoon, October 2, at 3 p. m.

SOLOS * * * * * MAGNIFIED
DUETS * * * * * BY THE
SEXTETTES * * * * * MAGNAVOX
AND THE MOST WONDERFUL
CHORUSES
Ever Heard on This Continent

Admission, 50c. Autos, 50c. Grandstand 25c Extra
Local Representative, Miss Genevieve Gilbert, Commercial Club

Announcing

THE SEASON'S MOST LAVISH PHOTOPLAY

WALLACE REID
ELLIOTT DEXTER
THEO. ROBERTS
THEO. KOSSLOFF
MONTE BLUE
RAYMOND HATTON

Cecil B. De Mille's
PRODUCTION

GLORIA SWANSON
BEBE DANIELS
WANDA HAWLEY
AGNES AYRES
POLLY MORAN
JULIA PAYE

"The Affairs of Anatol"

A real-life story pulsing with thrills and clad in a thousand beauties. Acted by the greatest cast of noted players ever brought together on the screen.

THE GREATEST PICTURE in east and rich investiture ever made since the photoplay began.

Special Music
Introducing
L. CARLOS MEIER
on the
WURLITZER

OREGON

FOUR DAYS
Starting Tomorrow
—PRICES—
Matinee or Evening
Adults 50c
Children 25c
Including War Tax
Tomorrow—2, 4, 5, 45,
7:30 and 9:15 p. m.