

VICTIM SINKING RAPIDLY

Mildred Hanan, Shot by Former Chum, Is Declared Near Death By Physicians

New York, Sept. 24.—Miss Mildred E. Hanan, daughter of the late Alfred P. Hanan, shoe manufacturer, who was shot early yesterday by Mrs. Grace Laws, her former chum, was reported by surgeons today to be sinking rapidly. Peritonitis was said to have set in as a result of one of the three wounds inflicted as she was leaving the apartment of a friend in Brooklyn with John S. Borland.

The motive—or motives—back of the shooting remained somewhat clouded in mystery. The theory of jealousy because of Borland's attentions to Miss Hanan, advanced by the police was repudiated by Borland, by Miss Hanan and by Mrs. Laws' sister, Mrs. M. E. Dittmar, in San Francisco. They expressed the belief that she had been temporarily deranged by use of drugs and liquor.

Mrs. Laws blamed "high life" and liquor which she said was "driving her crazy." In a letter to Miss Billie Williams, a friend, which was found in her handbag, but the letter hinted at a "truth" back of these causes.

Miss Hanan admitted she had quarreled recently with Mrs. Laws, though she did not give the cause of the quarrel. She said the quarrel had resulted in Mrs. Laws leaving the Hanan apartment where she had lived.

And Miss Dorothy Gottschalk, before whose home the shooting occurred, told of a dinner with Mrs. Laws, the evening preceding the tragedy, at which Mrs. Laws declared "every time I had anything sweet in life, it has been taken away from me." Then she cried:

"I have been a friend, a friend." Miss Gottschalk said Mrs. Laws denied, however, that she was in love with Borland, or jealous of his attentions to Miss Hanan.

5 Bands Already Signed for State Fair Music Lovers

No less than five bands will be on duty at the state fair grounds next week to furnish entertainment for the thousands of visitors, it became known today.

H. M. Stoudenmeyer's band, of Portland, is expected to arrive in Salem tomorrow and will remain at the grounds during the entire week. Concerts will be given morning, afternoon and night, the first one to begin at 11 o'clock Monday morning near the entrance to the grounds.

The other four bands will come from McMinnville, Roseburg, Whitson and Newberg.

Stately Oak Near Entrance to Fair To Be Illuminated

One of the features of the elaborate electrical display on which electricians are now working at the state fair grounds, will be the effect will be particularly striking the giant oak tree near the entrance to the grounds—a tree under which countless thousands of fair visitors have passed. Hundreds of colored bulbs are to be strung through the branches and those in charge declare that the effect will be particularly striking from the wide pavement which faces the main gateway.

Electricians have virtually completed their work in wiring the race track and new buildings.

Indians Arrange for Big Display at Fair Grounds

Representatives from the Chemawa Indian school today were putting on the finishing touches to their section on the second floor of the agricultural building at the state fair grounds.

Chemawa has been assigned the entire west end of the building, and one-third of the north side. Every department of the school will be shown in the display which is held to be one of the most interesting of its kind on the grounds. Articles ranging in type from manual training exhibits to canned fruit and needlework will be shown.

All men dressed in white for the occasion are eligible to march in the procession as boosters for Albany and the Linn county fair which is to follow the state fair.

The Hubarians will be admitted free to the fair grounds and all public entertainments under state management, as guests of the Salem Cherrians.

British Have Gone Limit In Irish Tangle

Dundee, Scotland, Sept. 24.—Winston Spencer Churchill, minister for the colonies, speaking here today, said that the British government had gone to the utmost limit possible in its offer to the Sinn Fein, and that if it was rejected the government had not anything else to give. "We have reached the end of our tether," he declared.

London, Sept. 24.—British recognition of Irish claims of independence as a preliminary condition to a conference were never asked by the Sinn Fein, declared Arthur Griffith, a member of the delegation chosen at Dublin to confer with Prime Minister Lloyd-George in an interview with the Daily Mail's correspondent in Dublin yesterday. He added that entering the conference without previous guarantees or conditions would not imply British recognition of the Sinn Fein's claims.

"Our entrance to a conditional conference," he went on, "would not give Ireland any fresh international status.

"The Sinn Fein has offered to enter the conference for the purpose of finding a solution which would terminate the quarrel between Ireland and England. The only thing that mattered would be the final agreement."

Car Of Oregon Apples Leaves For New York

A solid car of Winter Banana apples was shipped to New York yesterday by the Oregon Growers. The apples were of good size, more of them coming in the 100 size than in any other and most of the apples were 183s and larger.

In most sections of the country the Winter Banana has a delicate blushed cheek, but in Oregon the apple takes on an attractive bright red color that nearly covers the entire apple. This feature makes the Oregon apple a very desirable one from the standpoint of the retail merchant and it is expected that the apples will bring a good price on the eastern market.

What's New On The Market

By Rex Stewart

Supplies of poultry have been good this week, but there has been no change in price. Evidently poultry raisers have been holding their chickens expecting to get top prices during fair week, but by doing so have only created an over supply. It is an old trick of the poultry market to go down when eggs are on the rise, and while prices have remained firm throughout the week on poultry, if the supply keeps up and the price of eggs increase, there will undoubtedly be a drop. Retail prices today were: Broilers, fully dressed, 48 cents per pound; hens, 38 cents.

Shippers have met the high competitive buying price on eggs set earlier in the week by retailers and are now offering 40 cents. The fight may carry the price of eggs here next week to 50 cents a dozen retail.

The huckleberry season is about over, and the housewife who is thinking of canning had better act quickly. In crates the price is 20 cents a pound, the average weight per crate being about 25 pounds.

Cauliflower is in fair supply, but not very good and is high at 25 cents a head. While squash has been on the market for some time there is little demand even at four cents a pound. The green corn season is about over, but is maintaining its price of 25 cents a dozen.

Concord grapes fell to 50 cents a basket yesterday, but ought to go still lower before the season ends.

Ledoux Seeks To Split Dividends of Profiteers

New York, Sept. 24.—Urban Ledoux today announced that he would go to Washington tomorrow and appeal to President Harding to publish a list of war profiteers with the hope that they would split half of their earnings with destitute and unemployed war veterans. The request will refer to those who made more than 100 per cent profit.

"I may take some human document along with the hope of procuring an interview in the White House, where the president can hear from the bottom of the men's hearts, their story," Ledoux said.

Hiring and Firing Help Expensive

Chicago, Sept. 24.—It costs $100 to "hire and fire" and office clerk, according to figures made public by the National Employment Board. It was also shown that employers lose $50 by discharging a common laborer, ranging from a trucker to a machine hand.

These figures were gathered in a survey which included cost of time spent in interviewing, selecting, examining, training and watching the "new employe." It also included the losses the company must bear until he learns his duties.

Powder River Cry By Veterans Is Again Heard

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 24.—The cry of "Powder river le'er buck!" rallying cry of the 91st (Wild West) division, echoed here again today as veterans of the division from Pacific coast and intermountain states gathered for their second annual reunion and convention.

At noon today a "flying circus" was to perform in honor of the veterans and this afternoon the visitors were to be guests at the Los Angeles-Seattle Pacific coast league baseball game. Tonight William J. Coyle, lieutenant of Washington, Governor D. W. Davis of Idaho, Brigadier General Charles Muir, commander of Camp Lewis and Rear Admiral John A. Hoogerwert will be speaker at a "zero hour banquet."

Entrance of the division into the Meuse-Argonne offensive will be commemorated tomorrow by memorial services for the division's dead.

"Severe storm moving rapidly southeast from the North Pacific. Strong southeasterly, shifting to southwesterly winds this afternoon, tonight and probably Sunday."

The highway between Hillbary and McMinnville will be completed this week and opened to travel.

Autoists Wreck Farmers Fences

Quincy, Or., Sept. 24.—Living on the Pacific highway looks like a wonderful privilege to those who live on mud roads, but Franklin B. Matthes, a farmer, whose place is six miles north of Salem, believes that residents along the way pay dearly for the privilege of pavement. He has never complained when a number of persons entirely unknown to him stopped for water, for the use of the telephone, to secure gasoline, to be hauled out of trouble or to ask for food, but he believes that the limit of gall was reached when an automobile party, evidently under the influence of too much "moonshine," wrecked a couple of his fences last Saturday night and made away without an apology.

The machine which was traveling south had cut straight across the pavement and broken down a field wire fence, after which the intruders had cut a new closely woven poultry fence with wire cutters, filled a drain ditch with oak posts from a convent pile, and made their exit through the barnyard, leaving all gates open.
