Bohler Prescribes All Hard Work In Preparation for Oregon Game Here Saturday

By Spike. Hard work and lots of it.

That is the prescription which Coach Roy Bohler has handed out be taken in heavy doses during the coming few days. Only five days remain before the cardinal and gold warriors lock horns with Coach Huntington's University of Oregon gladiators and the Bearcata are a long way from being prepared to give battle to such ponents. Friday will be given by Warden Compton, when he re-ser to light signal work, and thus opponents. Friday will be given

Edwards, quarter; Zeller and year has made it not worth while Irvine, halves; Socolofsky, full-to run the fruit dryer.

Taken as a whole this aggrega tion looks strong, but there are few weaknesses to be strengthened before the defense is strong enough to stop a quartet of hardplunging backs, or the offense elashing enough to gain ground consistently against a class A line

Saturday saw Bohler's first move toward the permanent organization of his team, when fans may Irvine shifted from his traditional position as quarterback to that of running mate for Captain Zeller at half. Richards was relegated to the second string and Edwards, a Portland youth, went in in Irvine's old berth. Zeller is now calling the signals. Ends Not Real Class, Selection of a pair of ends who can halt the encircing attack of a bunch of fast backs is another problem which is worry Bohler, Barnes and Patton have not yet shown real conference class and Richards, who is temporarily dis-placed from the backfield, will have to show more speed and headwork before he can displace either of the wing men.

Others on the squad who are conceded to have a look-in for first string honors are Nee and Mood hy, guards; Rookstool, Skeene and Rarey, tackies; Cramer, Michaelson, Caughian and Oliver, backs.

Heavy scrimmage and signal practice in the afternons, with blackboard chalk talks for an hour in the evenings are to be featured on Bohler's schedule for this week up to and including Thursday. Conflicts of class work and the afternoon practice period are working a hardship, as it gives Bohler only about 30 minutes each day to work with his full squad. Under this handicap he is making his offensive plans for the Oregon game as simple as possible and the retinue of plays to be used in that game will not include more than
