Y.W.C.A. Will Show Film Here

How many hours shall a woman work? This is the question, among others, pertaining to conditions of woman labor, which will be filmed before the Salem public on the evening of Thursday, October 13, at the Oregon theatre. The film is educational in nature and its showing is sponsored by the local Y. W. C. A., through the northwest office. The film is being loaned by the Women's Bureau of labor at Washington, D. C.

Other showings for the picture may be secured in the state institutions, said Miss Eva L. Scott, local girls' work secretary, who will also arrange to run it during two lunch hours at the Y. W. C. A.

The film "When Women Work" pictures in story form the working lives of two girls, one among good factory conditions, the other surrounded by bad conditions. There is a heroine, an understudy to the heroine, and there is a villain. The pictures are taken in actual factories and there is nothing faked in the movie. The film is educational in that it teaches. But it does it with a light touch and goes never over-stressing the point, so that quite unconsciously argument is seen for the 8-hour day, for equal pay, for equal opportunity and many other of the advancements and betterments which working women are demanding.

Miss Scott is requesting that as many of Salem's women as find it possible will arrange their movie date for Thursday afternoon or evening at the Oregon.

Thought His Time Had Come -- Disappointed

"I never was more surprised in my life than when I took the first dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. My stomach trouble had been of eight years' standing, sometimes so bad as to cause convulsions, followed by hemorrhage. I thought my time in this world was short, and believed it the last medicine I would ever take. It is now eight weeks since, and I am feeling better than for many years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere. (adv)

on the market next week. Walnut meats are already offered at 90 cents a pound.

Salway peaches are being offered as a special today and tomorrow at $1.35 a crate, a bargain if they are used for canning purposes.

Egg plant at present is in poor condition, but may improve next week. The prices now quoted are 12 1/2 cents. The beets offered at 10 cents a bunch or three bunches for a quarter are large and in good condition. The celery hearts are bringing 15 cents a bunch.

Poultry is in good supply, the prices remaining the same though one retailer offered 20 cents for broilers, which may be the forerunner of a general drop in prices paid to farmers.

Salem High Has 30 Out For Grid Work; Games Arranged

In their first scrimmage of the year, the 30 aspirants for the Salem high school football team got down to work last night in a manner which pleased Coach "Tubby" Hendricks and the small group of fans which appeared to give the prepper huskies the once over. Salem high school will this season present an eleven which has at least two of the essentials which go to make up a formidable machine—weight and speed.

This afternoon a better opportunity will be afforded to watch the black and red aggregation in action for scrimmage with Williamette university is to be held on the Sweetland field.

Salem's first game of the season will be held at Chemawa Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock when the locals meet up with the Indian eleven. On the following Saturday the Salem preppers will journey to McMinnville to play the McMinnville high school and October 29 is the tentative date for a clash with Albany at Salem.

One of the hardest games of the season probably will be played on November 3 at Corvallis with the Corvallis high school. Coached by "Speck" Keene, former Salem high school star, Corvallis is boasting of an eleven which expects to do much in interscholastic circles.

High school officials said this afternoon that, as yet, no agreement has been reached by which Salem will meet up with Eugene. Eugene officials have repeatedly refused to accept offers proffered by the local school.

It Saturday's game Adolph probably will start the game at right end and Dailey at left end. Moon and Ringle may be used also at the wing position. Ellis White is expected to go in at right tackle and Ralph White at left. In the guard berths Olson and Stolzeize probably will be used with Robinson a possible substitute. At center Max Jones and Caughell will probably be seen in action and Frank

Kellogg's Corn Flakes snap up fussy appetites something wonderful!

No coaxing needed these days to tempt family folks and visitor folks to eat a-plenty—not when there's a big pitcher of cold milk or cream and lots of Kellogg's Corn Flakes—and, maybe some handy fresh fruit—ready to tickle fickle palates!

Kellogg's are unlike any corn flakes you ever ate! They're the original kind—they ought to be best! No other corn flakes are so deliciously flavored; no other corn flakes retain such wonder-crispness till eaten!

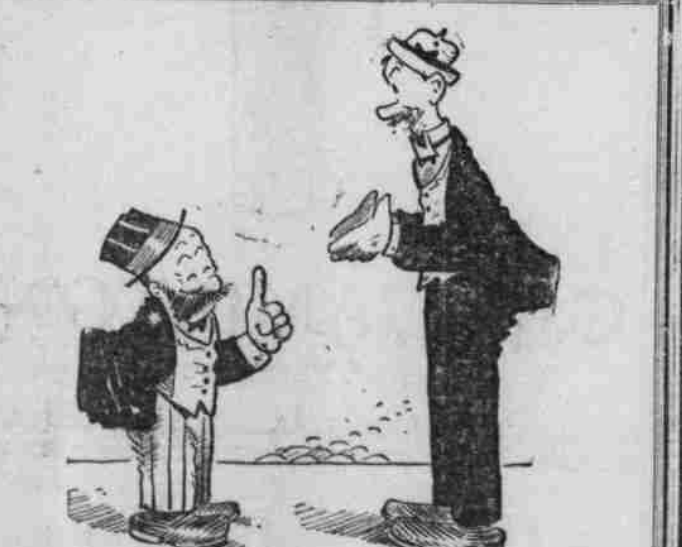

Kellogg's are always a delight to serve—and a treat to eat at any meal! In fact, you'll never know how good corn flakes can be until you know KELLOGG'S! The difference is astounding!

Do more than ask for Corn Flakes—say KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES! Don't accept substitutes!
