Wife Asks $150 For Support In Divorce Case

Motion for $150 suit money and support of herself during the divorce case pending in the circuit court, was filed this morning by Lillian Mombert, defendant, in the action by her husband, Joseph Mombert, charging her with desertion.

In her affidavit Mrs. Mombert states that she is supporting herself and her mother and that her earnings will not allow her to make the trip from Spokane to Salem when the case comes to trial. She also states that her husband has refused to support her for some time.

Mombert states that his wife was dissatisfied with life in Mill City where they resided and that she left him because the town was too slow, and that she borrowed money from an old admirer to go to Spokane.

Newport Autoist Killed in Accident

Newport, Or., Oct. 7.—D. B. Waggoner, of Newport, was killed late Wednesday night when the automobile he was driving home from Agate Beach struck a deep rut, went over a grade and turned over. Mr. Waggoner's body was found beneath the car this morning at 8 o'clock by N. Luderman, a dairyman of Big Creek. The accident took place two miles north of Newport.

Mr. Waggoner apparently was driving at a high rate of speed. His machine struck a rut in the approach to the bridge and went over an eight-foot embankment, ran about 20 yards and turned over. The victim is survived by a boy, aged 8, and a girl, 10 years old. He was 43 years old and born in Hillsboro, Oregon.

Prizes Awarded

For the fourth successive year Brush college took first award on its general fair display at the Polk county fair. Their booth has been attracting an unusual amount of attention this year by reason of its attractive appearance and collective display.

The Mt. Pisgah community exhibition took second prize and the third award went to Elkins. There were five communities in competition.

Repeating his previous success William F. Lee, of the Black Hill Farm near Falls City, took first prize for the best individual display. "Uncle" Billy Wright was awarded second place.

The entire morning was devoted to judging and awarding prizes in the floral and photographic sections. In the latter Mrs. H. C. Eakin of Dallas was awarded first prize for the best collection of pictures exhibited. Russell Vashaw of Falls City, second, and Glen De Haven of Rickreall, third. For single entries Miss Lenora Preston of Dallas received the blue ribbon. Mrs. Jack Hatton of Dallas the red and Russell Vashaw the white.

In the floral department the prizes were awarded as follows: Zinnias, Mrs. Joseph Craven first; Marigolds, Mrs. Craven, first; Mrs. Alice Dempsey, second; Mrs. M. R. Black, Independence, third. Cut flowers: Mrs. Floyd Moore, first; Mrs. R. M. Black, second;

During the First 9 Months of 1921 The Capital Journal Carried 29,966 Want Ads

Not including real estate and classified directory ads, totalling 151,515 lines, and a gain over the same period in 1920, of 1854 want ads, and 12,758 lines.

This is double the number carried by any other newspaper in the Willamette Valley and proves that the Capital Journal is the recognized

Want Ad Medium of the Valley There's a Reason

It is because the Capital Journal ads bring results and pay the advertiser. They are the people's bargain counter and so recognized. They rent your rooms or your house or your farm. They buy you a home or sell yours. They get you a job or find you an employe. They sell your old articles and supply bargains from others.

While display advertising and national advertising fell off, Want Ads continued to gain—a tribute of their merit from the people.
