

MEXICO LOOTER IS HERE

Chamber of Deputies Paymaster and His Chauffeur Believed In U. S.

By Louis P. Kirby.
Mexico City, Oct. 19.—Gay companions, who helped to spend but were unwilling or powerless to help in a crisis, are reported to have been the cause of the downfall of Eduardo H. Diaz, paymaster of the chamber of deputies, who disappeared with about $250,000 and is supposed to be somewhere in the United States. The young paymaster was a conspicuous and dashing figure in every gathering and was always surrounded by a crowd of friends or parasites.

He was particularly fond of gambling at the basketball games and lost considerable money in this way. These games, because of the gambling feature, as well as the dexterity of the players, always attract large crowds here. Betting is heavy, and large sums are won and lost within a few minutes.

Chauffeur Missing, Too.

When Diaz disappeared his chauffeur, also, was found to be missing. This led to the belief that the paymaster left Mexico City in his motor car. One report heard here is that he crossed the border at Laredo and is now in the United States. Another is that he is hiding somewhere in Mexico. Having failed to reach the international line in his car because of bad roads.

The disappearance of the paymaster became known when members of the chamber of deputies and persons employed in the chamber went to collect their salaries. There was not enough money to pay the salaries and this caused efforts to get into communication with Diaz. It was then learned that he had been missing from the city for several days.

Persons employed in the paymaster's office say that they were not aware that anything was wrong until it became necessary to seek Diaz to get additional money with which to meet the chamber of deputies' payroll.

New System Planned.

It is probable that a new system of paying the salaries of deputies and employes will be adopted for the purpose of more closely checking the paymaster. Diaz is not the first to get into trouble because of the loose system which enabled a paymaster to help himself to the funds at any time. Salinas, the predecessor of Diaz, was accused of carrying off a large sum, and there were other scandals.

Diaz according to his friends, was the victim of a bad system. He was left in a position to dip his hands into the treasury and, being young and pleasure-loving he soon found himself too deeply involved for escape. This, they say, caused him to take what he could and flee when he knew that exposure was near.

A checking system, friends of the paymaster say, would have saved Diaz and his family from disgrace and probably would have prevented all scandals in the past.

Legion Delegates Number Famous Men of World

One of the greatest gatherings of internationally famous individuals in American history is to mark the annual National convention of the American Legion at Kansas City the end of this month according to a letter received today by George A. White, from National Legion headquarters.

Mr. White, as a member of the national executive committee is advised that the meeting will be held regardless of railroad strikes and is requested to give the announcement publicity.

General Foch, commander of the allied armies and destroyer of the German military machine, will be the guest of honor along with Admiral Battle of Great Britain, commander of the allied navies. Both will address the great gathering of American ex-service men. General Foch will be escorted to Kansas City by General Pershing who also will appear on the program. A number of American statesmen and notables will attend including the governors of a dozen or more states.

The one-cent-a-mile rate, recently announced by all railroads will make possible a general attendance. It was stated, and efforts will be made in advance to insure the legion delegates a safe return in event of a general strike. The convention will end three days before the general tie-up of railroads has been set for, and thus all can reach their destination excepting Pacific coast delegates and those who are on railroad lines listed by the November 1 walk-out of trainmen.

Fourteen delegates have been elected to represent Oregon and an equal number of alternates to replace any who cannot go. The advance attendance estimates of the arrangements committee is 100,000 ex-service men and Kansas City is getting ready to receive and entertain that number. The convention opens October 29, and continues three days.

Petitions Asking Rathie Hanging Be Set Aside Filed

Petitions urging Governor Olcott to commute the death sentence passed upon John L. Rathie, convicted of the murder of Sheriff T. H. Taylor of Umatilla county, to life imprisonment were filed with the executive office Monday by the War Mothers of Oregon, Bonneville Post No. 56, American Legion, the War Mothers' association, Red Cross chapter and the woman's auxiliary to the American Legion of Bonneville county, Idaho. The petitions, which bear several hundred signatures point to Rathie's war record and to his act in stopping to administer to the dying sheriff as sufficient to justify executive clemency.

Governor Olcott has repeatedly asserted that he would not interfere with the death decree of the circuit court which has been affirmed by the supreme court.

Over 62,000 private wells were damaged or destroyed in France during the war.

Four Suits Brought by State Industrial Accident Commission

Suits for the collection of an aggregate sum of $325.45 have been filed in the Marion county circuit court by the state industrial accident commission against four logging concerns who stigmatized their intentions of coming under the requirements of the commission, but have not paid the necessary fees.

The largest of the suits filed is against Miles H. Edwards for the sum of $183.69 on a payroll of $4893.80 figured at 3 1/2 per cent less 10 per cent and plus $2.98 for half days worked by the members of the logging crew. The other suits are brought against William R. Smith for the amount of $29.95, Roy O. Kelly, Lou R. Nusamaker and Charles E. Boyer for $67.77, and Richard and Ralph Swartz for $33.07, all figured on the same basis with corresponding different aggregate amounts of their payrolls.

Poetic Tribute To Mistland By Charles A. Park

Charles A. Park, of Salem, president of the Oregon State Board of Horticulture, has issued the annual report of the board which is of great interest to fruit growers, as it gives all quarantine horticultural, packing and nursery laws, as well as a spray calendar and special articles on fruit diseases by experts.

In the report, Mr. Park pays the following tribute to "Mistland" comprising western Oregon: "I herewith submit my report for the term ending December, 1932, as commissioner of the second horticultural district of the State of Oregon, which district comprises the counties of Lane, Linn, Marion, Lincoln, Benton, and Polk, a section of the northern part of the Willamette valley, together with a portion of the country lying between the Willamette valley and the Pacific coast. This district is a part of the mistland of Oregon, where one of the greatest economic assets is the "Tanlac got right in behind my trouble and now I feel just fine all the time" said S. M. Curns, 297 East Baldwin St., Portland, Oregon.

"For months before I took Tanlac I had the worst kind of trouble with my stomach. I don't believe anybody ever had indigestion any more than I did. My back hurt me so too that it nearly killed me to bend over and straighten up again. "Tanlac put me on the road to health almost in a jiff. I eat three rousing meals a day now and never have an attack of indigestion. My back has quit bothering me and I am as well and strong as I ever was in my life. Tanlac is the medicine for me first, last and all the time." Tanlac sold in Salem by the Tyler Drug Store and leading druggists everywhere.

West Salem Ulster Volunteer Force Is Active

Belfast, Oct. 18.—Reports that the Ulster volunteer force was being reorganized were verified in official quarters here today. It was stated that Ulster ex-service men were enrolling.

"Why shouldn't they be, when the Sinn Feiners are drilling even in Belfast?" was the comment in official quarters.

The Ulster ex-service men's association, nearly all of whose members were volunteers in the pre-war days, is constituted on strictly party lines, no republicans or nationalists being eligible.

At Lisburn last night, 1000 of them assembled and under commandants who are ex-officers of the British army, marched in formation along a specified route. The men carried no arms during their march, although they were well equipped in this respect.
