

Japanese Liner Sunk In Storm Cape Flattery

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 27.—The freighter Yessie Ivan was heading toward Yokohama today with the crew and passengers of the Japanese ship Fukui Maru reported sunk last night in a hurricane 1500 miles west of Cape Flattery, Wash. Radio messages picked up here last night described the wreck, but gave no details and further words was lacking this morning.

Pershing Will Welcome Foch

New York, Oct. 28.—Racing top speed the liner George Washington was expected to arrive at quarantine by 11 o'clock this morning—in ample time to permit General Pershing to head the welcome party that will greet Marshal Ferdinand Foch, when the famous generalissimo of the allied armies arrives for a tour of America. Marshal Foch's steamer, the Paris, was reported early this morning as nearly 100 miles behind the George Washington. An army tug went down the bay to take General Pershing off at quarantine.

Florida Storm Damage Is Set At 5 Millions

Tampa, Fla., Oct. 25.—Property damage in that section of the Florida peninsula swept Tuesday by the tropical hurricane is estimated at $5,000,000 by insurance men here who have been analyzing reports reaching Tampa from other sections. The damage in Tampa is estimated at between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000. The known death list today stood at five, which included two at St. Petersburg and three in Tampa and vicinity.

Umpqua Broccoli Men Organize To Find Cash Market

Roseburg, O., Oct. 27.—An organization to be known as the Umpqua Valley Broccoli Growers, Inc., was authorized today by the receipt of a charter and permission to sell stock, which will be disposed of to members at the rate of one share for each acre of broccoli represented in the organization.

The organization is in the nature of a co-operative exchange and has as its purpose the creating of a cash market at Roseburg for the Umpqua valley broccoli crop. Many growers are dissatisfied with the present method of shipment, which has caused them to stand heavy losses in the past, and are desirous that a local market be established. They have correspondence from buyers willing to buy the crop here for cash, and this plan probably will be followed in disposing of the 122 crop. At the present time growers representing 240 acres have signed up with the exchange. The present estimate on the coming crop is 200 cars.

Deputies Fight Gun Battle With Bandits; One Dead

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Oct. 27.—Sheriff's deputies on guard in a store here, about 5 o'clock this morning, engaged in a gun battle with a gang of robbers who broke into the place. One robber, not fully identified, but believed to be a well known police character, was killed. Sheriff W. A. Gronewag has identified the man killed in the battle here early today as James Blankenship, 25. The dead man figured in the Omaha court house riots two years ago and was indicted for arson in that connection but was never prosecuted. Another man named Joe Stanley was captured.

Shantung Case Probe Refused

Peking, Oct. 28.—Dr. Yen, the Chinese foreign secretary, has refused the demand of certain public bodies for an explanation of his alleged desire, expressed to Yuki-cho Hata, the Japanese minister, to enter into negotiations with regard to the Shantung controversy and of the statement that Chinese officials had confidentially sent to the Japanese government terms for a settlement of the issue. Mr. Yen denied the charge. He said the Chinese government would shortly issue a statement to the newspapers in an endeavor to clear the government of the charges.
