

WELCOME VOICED BY PERSHING

Foch Is Greeted In Name of Legion and State of Missouri by Commandeur

Manassas City, Mo., Nov. 1.—John J. Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Forces, today extended on behalf of the American Legion and his own native state, Missouri, a formal welcome to Marshal Ferdinand Foch of France, commander in chief of the allied armies.

"I most cordially greet you," said General Pershing, in an address before the national convention of the Legion, at which the French commander was the guest of honor, "not only recalling the affectionate relationship of other days, but also recognizing the patriotic unit that has grown out of those associations and the common purposes that exist that uphold more faithfully those ideals that lie at the foundation of this great republic of ours."

"Mr. LeMarshall, the American Legion is peculiarly honored by your presence here among us. We extend an equally cordial welcome to that intrepid leader of Italy's victorious armies that crushed the military autocracy of Austria, General Diaz; and to the representative of the brave Belgian army whose courage defied the staggering blows of German militarism, General Laques; and to the captain who commanded the British naval forces, whose efficiency on the seas made the land victory possible, Admiral Lord Beatty. The people of America everywhere await the opportunity to do you homage. Personally, I am extremely delighted to extend to you the greetings of the American Legion that crossed the sea to fight beside you."

General Pershing then turned his attention to the Legion and praised its campaigns for Americanism and kindred ideals. He urged the Legion to continue its efforts to bring into being a military force, "representative of the people in which any future wars will escape the results of unpreparedness that you suffered."

He urged that the Legion bend its efforts also toward obtaining all possible relief for incapacitated veterans of the war. He predicted that great good would result from the coming conference on armament in Washington and that an understanding would be reached which would lessen the chances of war.

White Ready To Fight For Party Chair

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 1.—Indications this morning were that a successor to George White as chairman of the democratic national committee may be agreed upon by the various party elements before the committee meets at noon.

Breckenridge Long of Missouri and Washington, D. C., former third assistant secretary of state, was said to be acceptable but his selection was contingent upon the resignation of Edward F. Coltra, committee man from Missouri.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 1.—Chairman George White of the democratic national committee, was prepared to make a determined fight against any attempt to depose him as head of the party's national organization at the committee meeting today to consider party matters.

Though Chairman White has stated that he would retire if any one is found on who "all elements" can agree, Daniel C. Roper, former commissioner of internal revenue, who is being put forward by the White opposition for the chairmanship is believed to have been eliminated as a possible compromise candidate. Mr. White has asserted that he would be opposed to any person who was closely allied with the candidacy of any candidate at the San Francisco convention. Mr. Roper was one of William G. McAdoo's supporters in that convention.

Possibility of a parliamentary squabble ensuing in case effort is made to oust Mr. White was discussed by the chairman last night. He pointed out that the official call made no mention of selecting a chairman.

A conference broke up early today with no agreement on the chairmanship matter.

Herbert Howell, son of W. G. Howell of Astoria and a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college, has been appointed county agent of Josephine county.

3 Generations of One Family Wreck Victims

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 1.—Three generations of a family were wiped out at Roy, near here, on Sunday when a Great Northern train crashed into an automobile, killing four persons. The dead are Mrs. E. H. Shively, 65; her son in law, Faye M. Beaver; her daughter, Mrs. Faye M. Beaver, 29, and her grand daughter, Violet Beaver, 10. The Beaver family had moved here from Seattle to live with Mrs. Shively. There were no witnesses to the accident except the engine crew of the train. All the victims met instant death, and the bodies were not recognized until late last night.

ried $2500 insurance on the building. Fire which spread to every corner of long, high-piled rows of groceries packed in paper cartons and which sent up a blinding smoke made fight extremely difficult for the score of firemen who worked steadily from 2:30 until 6 o'clock this morning to quell the blaze.

Sugar Downs Fireman.

Several of the fighters sustained minor injuries. Ben Faught, a fireman, narrowly escaped serious injury when he was struck on the back of the neck by a sack of sugar, weighting 190 pounds, which fell nine feet from the top of a pile which suddenly collapsed. Faught was knocked down but was unhurt. Chief "Buck" Hutton sustained a bad laceration on his right hand during the fighting.

Today the building was filled with debris. Windows are broken, burned boxes of groceries, canned goods, boxes of cigars, sacks of salt and sugar litter the first and second floors, and the basement, which was stocked largely with canned goods, is flooded by many inches of water. There was no fire damage in the basement. Office fixtures were ruined.

Other Buildings Saved.

City employees, headed by Street Commissioner Walter Lowe, were this morning busy in pumping the water out of the building's basement.

Efforts of the fire fighters prevented the blaze from spreading either to the hop storehouse of Clifford W. Brown, on the right of the fire, or to the Salem Iron Works, on the left. Neither of these buildings were damaged. Hundreds of bales of hops are stored in the Brown warehouse.

Mr. Baumgartner said this morning he will immediately repair the roof and other damaged parts of the building. Mr. Baumgartner was unable to say what move he will make. This morning he was endeavoring to find temporary quarters for that part of his stock which will be salvaged.

Mr. Showalter, whose home is in Charleston, West Virginia, is present in Salem visiting.

The fire was discovered and turned in by Harry Rowe, of the merchants' patrol, and Officer F. Victor, of the Salem police department.
