

BYLAWS ADOPTED BY S.F.C.

Federation of Clubs Elects Directors Purchase of Camp Grounds Urged

The board of five directors, adoption of bylaws and purchase of a camp ground were the main items of the special election for the Federation of Clubs taken at the meeting last night in the Commercial club.

The bylaws of the federation as approved state that the governing body shall be vested in a board of directors. These directors named at the meeting last night were: Paul Wallace, American Legion; L. W. Waller, Central Labor Council; E. McCroskey, Commercial Club; L. W. Gleason, Cherrians; and F. A. Elliott, Salem Woman's Club.

The bylaws further provide that any club organized for the benefit of Salem shall be eligible for membership in the federation, and that semi-secret organizations shall make written application presented by their delegates and shall be granted admission by a majority vote of those present at the meeting.

The board of directors shall control any property in the case of the federation and shall hold office for one year, and shall have power to fill any vacancy on the board occurring between annual meetings, which will be held on the first Wednesday in November of every year.

A vote on any subject may be taken at any time deemed necessary by the president and the board of directors, by referendum submitted to various member clubs.

The financial obligations of the federation shall be met by pro-rata assessment to each member club, and the bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of those present provided notice of such a change is sent to each member club ten days prior to such a meeting. The federation will meet regularly once a month on the first Wednesday.

In discussion the purchase of the auto camp grounds it was brought out that a sufficient response from members of clubs of the federation had been received, since the federation that the only cost of the election would be the stationery, the clubs donating
