What's New On The Market

By Rex Stewart

So far this week poultry offerings have been small with good hens scarce. Some dealers are offering a little above the market for hens while others are offering a premium on springs by paying 20 cents. The demand from the consumer is fair, dealers reporting that their supplies are moving but that there is tendency to hold off until Thanksgiving.

Little variety of fish will be offered for tomorrow due to the scarcity of crabs and salmon. Halibut is expected to go up very shortly though what the increase will be is uncertain. The retail price on halibut is 25 cents.

Local lettuce is said to be coming in slowly and sells for 10 cents a bunch. Bulk olives can be obtained from 40 to 50 cents a pint. Fancy packed apples are becoming scarce due to the fact that a great many are being shipped to other markets.

The student body at Willamette has voted to allow $75 to the school band in order to secure for it a capable leader, as it was felt that lack of such a leader accounts for the non success of the band.
