Present Day Poets Will Be Studied

Organization of the Poetry Association section of the Salem League was effected last night when the group met at the residence of Mrs. Charles Jones, 604 North Church street. Otto Paulus, secretary of the group, presided. Meetings will be held regularly the first and third Thursday of the month. The motive of the work will be education, not creation, and that of the twentieth century poets will be studied during the year. It is the plan to devote two evenings to each, taking up the best of each. A partial list of poets to be studied are Rudyard Kipling, Rabindranath Tagore, A. E. Housman, Edgar Lee Masters, W. W. Law, Lowell and other contemporary poets. Those so far identified with the group are Mrs. E. E. Botzford, Mrs. Paulus, Mrs. Edna Leedy, Mrs. Blanche Jones, Professor and Mrs. C. I. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. M. Clifford. Others are invited to join. The department will meet on November 1, with Mrs. E. E. Botzford, at 213 North Church street.

Captain Flezel to Station in Portland.

Captain Earl C. Flezel, forty-four, of the 10th Cavalry, of El Paso, Texas, has been ordered to Portland where he will be military instructor in the Hill Military academy. Mrs. Flezel, formerly Barbara Steiner, nee Dickey, of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Steiner, visited in Salem during the last summer and was accompanied here by Captain Flezel for a return trip south. They will leave El Paso November 12 and are expected to arrive in Portland on November 20. It is probable that they will visit in Salem during Thanksgiving time.

Underwear

"R. A. Unions Forever!"

"I've stopped experimenting with underwear."

"My children and I have now adopted R. A."

"Now I have the comfort and the fit which I have always wanted."

"When my unions come back from the laundry they are still 36 size. No unpleasant tightness, creeping or gaping. And wear—I know from the feel of the cotton and the wonderful seams: what to expect."

"It's all R. A. at our house, both unions and the separate garments for me and the children."

Verify this experience by asking the clerk to show you R. A. Then you will adopt R. A. Underwear.

Record Crowd Is Expected To See Walla Walla Game

Walla Walla, Wash., Nov. 11.—A record crowd is expected for the Armistice day football clash on Ankeny field between Whitman college and Willamette university. The contest is the first northwest conference game here this season and is a feature of the annual Whitman home coming week-end. Sam Moyer of Spokane will referee.

Buff Wins Decision and Retains Title

New York, Nov. 11.—Johnny Buff of Jersey City retains today his bantamweight boxing title, but he had one of the hardest battles of his career last night to turn back Jack Sharkey—the New York Italian-American. Buff, though on the aggressive throughout the bout, was out-punched by Sharkey in the early rounds, but received the judges' decision after a whirlwind finish.

Girl Known Here Weds In Portland

Salem people will be interested in the account of the marriage of Miss Florence Cleveland, which took place on Wednesday in Portland. Miss Cleveland resided in Salem at one time and was general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. for two years. She has many friends in this city and the guest list for the wedding included Salem people. The account as it appeared in a Portland paper follows: The marriage of Miss Florence Cleveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cleveland, and James Thomson Donald, was solemnized Wednesday at 5 o'clock at St. David's Episcopal church, the Rev. Thomas Jenkins officiating, in the presence of about 60 guests, close friends and relatives of the bridal couple. The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Gamma Phi Beta women's fraternity, and was a student at Mills college. For two years she was general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at Salem and then came to Portland, where she was associated with the Public Welfare bureau. She also spent a year in welfare work with the American Red Cross in New York city. Mr. Donald served overseas as an officer with the Fifteenth United States cavalry. He is also a graduate of the University of Oregon and of the school of law of Columbia university. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Following the wedding ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in East Twenty-fourth street, north, after which Mr. Donald and his bride left for Yakima, Wash., where he is engaged in the practice of law.

R. Monroe Gilbert, of the Gilbert Studio and Craft Shop, spent several days this week in Portland on business.

Go To Corvallis To Attend Big Game.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Albert, Miss Mary Jane Albert and Mrs. J. C. Griffith are among those Salem people attending the W. S. C.-O. A. C. game today in Corvallis. Following the game they will drive to Nimrod on the McKenzie and spend the remainder of the week end there.

What's New On The Market

By Rex Stewart
The local egg market seems to be pretty well supplied. A dealer offering 48 cents this morning reported that he was getting a good supply, while those paying 60 cents had all they could handle. Portland prices are quoted firmer, but it is believed that locally the price has reached its peak for a time, though it may go higher later in the winter depending on weather conditions. The poultry shortage has been greatly relieved, springers being reported plentiful, with a fair supply of hens though not quite enough to meet the demand. The shortage in hens is due, perhaps, to producers holding them until the pullets reach the laying stage.

It is doubtful whether or not the over supply of cold storage turkeys in the east will affect the local Thanksgiving price. Dealers state that the demand is for fresh turkey, and a shipment of such stock brought here would not sell, and could hardly affect the price of new birds.

Bright fall salmon is on the market for seven cents a pound.

Miss Craig Goes to Corvallis
Miss Bernice Craig left this morning for Corvallis where she will attend the W. S. C.-O. A. C. football game. While there she will be a guest at the Gamma Phi Beta house.
