

LOCAL BRIEFS AND PERSONALS

Buy a used car at Kirkwood's.

Irving Baldersee of Dallas was in the city yesterday.

Miss Dora Laughlin left yesterday for Astoria.

Marion Porter, contractor of Turner, was in the city yesterday attending to business matters.

E. Burelem Thomson, United States assistant engineer, went to Portland yesterday.

Painless corn doctor's office, phone 957, 322 State street. 280

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sullivan returned from Portland yesterday after a visit there of a few days with their daughter.

A box of candy? One pound and three quarters for one dollar and a quarter. Haas' Home Made Special, The Ace, 127 N. High St. 277*

Governor Ben Olcott left for Eugene today where he attended the University of Oregon homecoming and the football game.

The well known "Elson" dresses will be shown at Larsen's Millinery, 415 State street, next Monday to Saturday inclusive. 279

Mr. George Shollenberg will pass Thanksgiving in Portland with his mother. Mr. Shollenberg is motorman on the lines of the Oregon Electric company.

All next week, Miss Larsen, 415 State street, will display the "Elson" dresses which are manufactured in Portland. 279

E. H. Pixley of Salem and Attorney Lyle McCroskey of Stayton went to Eugene today to witness their alma mater's eleven bat the O. A. C. huskies.

Halle Hart, Teresa Cox, Vesta Holt and Alice Woolley, all residents of The Dalles, were in Salem today. They visited at the offices of the state school superintendent.

Mr. Guy Harris is passing a few days in Portland visiting with his mother and other relatives. Mr. Harris is employed in the offices of the public service commission.

Fred W. Hewitt, Portland engineer, arrived in Salem today to pass the week end with friends. Mr. Hewitt resided here for a number of years prior to 1918 and has many friends in this vicinity.

Miss Gerine Smith, daughter of J. B. Smith, proprietor of a Salem tobacco store, recently underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils in a Portland hospital. Latest reports received by Mr. Smith indicated that her condition is satisfactory.

John R. Lee, at one time superintendent of the Douglas County Water & Light company at Roseburg, but at the present time employed by a large electrical concern, arrived in Salem last night to pass a few days. He will direct the installation of electrical equipment in this vicinity.

Edgar B. Piper, editor of the Oregonian; John F. Logan, former member of the state parole board, accompanied by Mrs. Piper and Mrs. Logan, arrived here last night on their way to Eugene to attend the university homecoming. They were entertained last night at the home of Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian. They are making the trip by automobile.

C. B. Clancey, who exhibited at the recent chrysanthemum show in Portland, is in receipt of a letter from H. B. Van Dusen, president of the Portland chamber of commerce, expressing the appreciation of that body for the wonderful display of flowers. As a further appreciation of his efforts, Mr. Clancey received an invitation from the house committee of the Portland chamber of commerce to attend a dinner to be given in Portland to all exhibitors at the recent show.

W. O. Larson, in charge of the piano department of the H. L. Stiff Furniture company, yesterday said he never saw such a fine class of children as there are in Salem. Mr. Larson has come in contact with 800 of Salem children in giving away small plaster of paris images of the Victor dog. More than 600 children have claimed the Victor dog and now Mr. Larson has found it necessary to order another thousand.

The move of the Methodist churches of the city, seconded by Willamette university, of "Wim-My-Chum" week has been successful, according to reports. At the Thursday evening meeting held in the First Methodist church, more than 300 were in attendance last night, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. The attendance was large. The closing exercise of the week will be held Sunday night at the First Methodist church, beginning at 7 o'clock.

For sale, a used Baby Overland at Kirkwood's, 246 State street.

The Liberty band given in the entertainment given last night at the Salem Heights school for a special rehearsal, members of the band will go to Turner next Monday night.

We wish to thank the merchants of Salem who were so liberal and cooperative in our 10th anniversary celebration Friday eve, Nov. 18.—Salem Heights Improvement league. 277

According to telegraphic advice received by State Forester Elliott from Congressman N. J. Sinnott, Friday, an item of $150,000 has been added to the emergency appropriation bill now before congress for use in fighting beetle insect infestation in the national forests of Oregon and California.

Six or seven of the alleged traffic violators arrested in recent drives here by state officers, have signified their intention of entering pleas of not guilty and standing trial, it was announced by Judge Unruh today. Practically all of the violators were arrested because they either neglected or refused to dim their lights when meeting other cars.

The Woodmen of the World are growing rapidly in membership. At a meeting last night, held in the Elks temple, 12 candidates were initiated. During the past month the lodge has initiated more than 75. The Woodmen of the World recently purchased the Elks temple and are making several changes in the second story of the building.

All of the state institutions are making elaborate preparations for the Thanksgiving holiday. Special dinners will be served, and at some of the institutions programs will be arranged for the entertainment of the visitors. A moving picture show will be the chief attraction at the penitentiary, according to announcement made by Warden Compton. A musical program will be the feature at the state hospital.

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company has 40 men on the payroll, in setting new poles and transferring wires between Salem and Jefferson. Recently, poles were distributed for the line on the Jefferson way as far as Liberty road. With favorable weather conditions, the company hopes to complete the line by the first of the year. The camp for the 40 workers is located eight miles south of Salem.

For the weekly luncheon to be held Tuesday noon at the Marion hotel, members of the Kiwanis club will hear an address by Chas. Puchler, industrial secretary of the Pacific states. He will talk on industrial conditions in the west. Dr. E. T. Sisson, head of the department of ethics of Reed college, will speak on "The Education and the Disarmament Conference." Dr. Sisson was formerly president of the University of Montana.

Two speakers are on the program for the Kiwanis luncheon Tuesday noon at the Marion hotel. Charles Puchler, industrial secretary of the Pacific states, will speak on industrial conditions as is found in cities and towns throughout the Northwest. Dr. E. T. Sisson, who was formerly president of the University of Montana, but is now on the faculty of Reed College, Portland, will speak on the disarmament conference. Joe Adolph will give the attendance prize.

Adjusters are expected to arrive in Salem early next week to investigate the fire which recently damaged the state flax plant and its contents to the extent of approximately $17,000. More than $15,000 of the loss was confined to flax products and was fully insured. The money received from the insurance companies probably will be distributed among the growers who hold "L. O. U." certificates issued by the management of the flax plant.

Born LARUE—To Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaRue, 1145 north Fifth street, a son, Robert, Jr., weight 8 1/2 pounds.

Died KNAPP—Ruben Knapp, a former resident of Salem, died at the home of his son, Will Knapp, in San Diego, Cal., November 9. Mr. Knapp was more than 70 years of age, according to friends in Salem and had only lived in California a little more than a year. Mrs. Knapp died in Salem about three years ago.

Webb & Clough LEADING FUNERAL DIRECTORS EXPERT EMBALMERS

RIGDON & SON'S Mortuary Unequaled Service

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Coming Events

- * Nov. 21—Business Men's Luncheon, Commercial club. * Nov. 22—Kiwanis club Luncheon, Marion hotel. * Nov. 21-23—Marion County Teachers Institute, Salem high school. * Dec. 4—Salem Elks club memorial exercises, Grand theatre. * Love, the jeweler, Salem. * William Murphy of St. Paul, transacted business in Salem Friday.

Come and see the "Elson" dresses, which are manufactured in Portland, Or., at Larsen's Millinery, 415 State street. 279

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wieder of Portland were guests in Salem at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Rahn one day this week. "God's Country and the Law," by James Oliver Curwood at the Oregon theatre Thanksgiving. 279*

Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the First Methodist church, has accepted an invitation to deliver an address at the father and son banquet to be held Monday night at Albany. Special Thanksgiving sale on trimmed and tailored hats. Sat., Mon., Tues., Wed. Miss Larsen, 429 Court street. 277*

Carl Gabrielson of Salem and Lyle Brown of Portland, have come to Eugene to spend Homecoming week end at the University of Oregon. They are guests at the Beta Theta Pi house. Special Thanksgiving sale on trimmed and tailored hats. Sat., Mon., Tues., Wed. Miss Larsen, 429 Court street. 277*

Fred Wright, former resident of Salem but more recently of Portland, was here today conferring with local physicians. Mr. Wright sometime ago suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which he has not yet fully recovered. In an address recently before the Marion County Realtors' association, A. H. Davenport, of Indianapolis, said that when he returned home, he would carry printed matter advertising the 1925 Oregon exposition. With his wife, he is spending several weeks looking over this part of Oregon, and finds it is the country that suits them.

Lee Morelock, who recently was appointed deputy United States Marshal, will leave for Portland December 1 to assume his new duties. For the past year Mr. Morelock has served as deputy sheriff under Sheriff Oscar Bowser of Marion county. That old sign, absent for so many years in toylan, has again made its appearance here. It is probable that a number of toys sold in Salem this year will be the genuine imported article with the word "Germany" imprinted on the toy.

Carrier pigeons may be used as a means of communication in the Oregon national guard, according to announcement made here last night by George A. White, adjutant general. Pigeons are now available, Mr. White said, and can be had by the guard in return for their care and feeding. Announcement was made by the adjutant general last night that arrangements have been completed for the erection of an annex to the barn of battery A at Clackamas for the horses of that organization. Motor vehicles and forage also will be housed in the barn.

Erection of a new armory at Lebanon, out of funds to be raised by a stock company, was announced last night by Adjutant General White. The building company will be capitalized for $6000. The structure will have a floor space of 60 by 100 feet and will be utilized by the members of the hospital unit stationed at Lebanon. The shares of stock are being sold at $50 each.

W. O. Larson, in charge of the piano department of the H. L. Stiff Furniture company, yesterday said he never saw such a fine class of children as there are in Salem. Mr. Larson has come in contact with 800 of Salem children in giving away small plaster of paris images of the Victor dog. More than 600 children have claimed the Victor dog and now Mr. Larson has found it necessary to order another thousand.

The move of the Methodist churches of the city, seconded by Willamette university, of "Wim-My-Chum" week has been successful, according to reports. At the Thursday evening meeting held in the First Methodist church, more than 300 were in attendance last night, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. The attendance was large. The closing exercise of the week will be held Sunday night at the First Methodist church, beginning at 7 o'clock.

For your hemstitching, stamping and hand embroidery see Mrs. Mull, room 10 over Millers store. 277

Fred G. Price, whose brother was killed recently in San Francisco as the result of an automobile accident, returned to Salem last night. Mr. Price brought the body of his brother to Marion county for burial. He resides a few miles east of Salem.

Four "Knights of the Road" appeared at the police station late yesterday and requested beds for the night. The men were accommodated. This morning the travelers departed for the south, expecting to reach sunny California in time for Christmas.

Frank Anderson, who resides at 720 Mill street, reported to the police today that some unidentified person entered his home late last Saturday night and appropriated a gun and flashlight. Police officers arrested Frank Daniels, who was found to be in possession of the stolen articles. The flashlight and gun were returned to their owner. Daniels was arraigned before County Judge Bushey today, but hearing of his case was put over until Monday.

Work on the new terminal station, adjoining the Odd Fellows building, is progressing rapidly, and the contractor expects to have it completed and in readiness to turn over to its owners early in January. With the completion of this structure, all stages operating between Salem and Portland will arrive and depart from the new location. This will relieve congestion on State street, and at the same time provide adequate and comfortable waiting rooms for persons patronizing the automobile transportation lines.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey of Portland, arrived in Salem today to pass a week with friends. Mrs. Harvey's aunt, Mrs. O. D. Shuts, resides on a ranch a short distance north of Salem.

Salem High School is represented in the College of Commerce and Business Administration of the University of Southern California by Mr. Wayne Wilkinson, who is enrolled in Spanish, English, Chemistry, and Economics.

The parents of the boys of Kenton Troop No. 5 Boy Scouts met with them at the Leslie M. E. church last evening and after a short program of entertainment organized a permanent Parents Association with the election of officers as follows: President Mrs. F. L. Douglas, Vice President F. D. Kibbe, Secretary G. C. Bottorff.

"Why do girls leave home?" is a misnomer in the mind of Miss Elizabeth Turner, welfare worker, who arrived in Salem last night to pass a few days conferring with state officials. "Why don't parents keep their girls home?" is the question that should have the consideration of parents, Miss Turner said. Miss Turner said she had been engaged in welfare work for many years, and had become convinced that the waywardness of children is due to the parents rather than the child. After performing her mission here Miss Turner will leave for San Francisco and other California cities.

Monday will be a busy day in Justice Unruh's court. Three of the several alleged traffic violators arrested by state officers Thursday night for failure to dim their lights, have pleaded not guilty and will stand trial. Two of the defendants will allege that their cars are equipped with lights which they are not required to dim to comply with the Oregon statutes. Another defendant will base his case on the grounds that he is a resident of California, and was not acquainted with the Oregon traffic laws at the time of his arrest.

Stephen N. Duray, who has been spending the past eight months in California, returned to Salem today. Mr. Duray will make his home with his daughter, who resides 12 miles north of Salem. While in California Mr. Duray was employed by the Southern Pacific railroad company. Altho pleased with his experiences in California Mr. Duray said he prefers the Oregon climate to that of the southland.

More than 90 Salem people left here by train this morning for Eugene where they passed the day attending the homecoming ceremonies of the University of Oregon. The majority of those going to Eugene from Salem are former students at the university.

James Fratton Smith, who several years ago owned a small ranch between Salem and Jefferson, arrived here this morning from Spokane. Mr. Smith said he had tired of the long winters in Washington and expected to relocate in this section of the Pacific coast.

Seymour N. Collins, who claims to be one of the pioneer miners in the state of Idaho, is passing a few days in Salem. He is registered at a local hotel. Mr. Collins is 83 years of age. In the summers he prospects for ore, while in the winter he makes his home with relatives and friends in Oregon.

Circuit Court

Complaint to quiet title to certain real property filed by G. E. Thomas vs Virginia C. McKinney. Decree filed in favor of the plaintiff in the suit of A. A. Kuinger vs Joseph E. Palmer. Divorce complaint filed by Leola H. Withrow against Harold H. Withrow.

Complaint to recover $360 damages filed by Oliver Newton vs Harvey Feller. Plaintiff alleges that position of Daniel Dow, stallos, is unlawfully in the possession of the defendant.

Inventory and appraisal of the estate of Sarah Elizabeth Drake giving personal property valued at $3724.85. Order for hearing of final account filed in the estate on December 19, filed.

Marriage Licenses William L. Powers, 30, Salem and Eva G. Perkins, 36, Salem. Carle Abrams and family went to Eugene this morning by automobile to attend the University of Oregon home-coming.

Fruitland Nursery has sales yard in back of office, 540 State street south of court house. 277*

Three squads of state traffic officers, operating in connection with automobiles driven by Salem residents have been patrolling the roads in either direction from this city the past few nights. Practically all of the arrests resulting from the drive had to do with the refusal of neglect of the drivers of the motor vehicles to dim their lights. Lights, more than any other agency, have contributed to the many automobile accidents in Marion county during the past few months. Local courts fixed the minimum fines for this offense at $20, and not a few of the men arrested have signified their intention of standing trial.

All of the state institutions are making elaborate preparations for the Thanksgiving holiday. Special dinners will be served, and at some of the institutions programs will be arranged for the entertainment of the visitors. A moving picture show will be the chief attraction at the penitentiary, according to announcement made by Warden Compton. A musical program will be the feature at the state hospital.

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company has 40 men on the payroll, in setting new poles and transferring wires between Salem and Jefferson. Recently, poles were distributed for the line on the Jefferson way as far as Liberty road. With favorable weather conditions, the company hopes to complete the line by the first of the year. The camp for the 40 workers is located eight miles south of Salem.

For the weekly luncheon to be held Tuesday noon at the Marion hotel, members of the Kiwanis club will hear an address by Chas. Puchler, industrial secretary of the Pacific states. He will talk on industrial conditions in the west. Dr. E. T. Sisson, head of the department of ethics of Reed college, will speak on "The Education and the Disarmament Conference." Dr. Sisson was formerly president of the University of Montana.

Two speakers are on the program for the Kiwanis luncheon Tuesday noon at the Marion hotel. Charles Puchler, industrial secretary of the Pacific states, will speak on industrial conditions as is found in cities and towns throughout the Northwest. Dr. E. T. Sisson, who was formerly president of the University of Montana, but is now on the faculty of Reed College, Portland, will speak on the disarmament conference. Joe Adolph will give the attendance prize.

Adjusters are expected to arrive in Salem early next week to investigate the fire which recently damaged the state flax plant and its contents to the extent of approximately $17,000. More than $15,000 of the loss was confined to flax products and was fully insured. The money received from the insurance companies probably will be distributed among the growers who hold "L. O. U." certificates issued by the management of the flax plant.

Born LARUE—To Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaRue, 1145 north Fifth street, a son, Robert, Jr., weight 8 1/2 pounds.

Died KNAPP—Ruben Knapp, a former resident of Salem, died at the home of his son, Will Knapp, in San Diego, Cal., November 9. Mr. Knapp was more than 70 years of age, according to friends in Salem and had only lived in California a little more than a year. Mrs. Knapp died in Salem about three years ago.

Webb & Clough LEADING FUNERAL DIRECTORS EXPERT EMBALMERS

RIGDON & SON'S Mortuary Unequaled Service

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Probate Court

Inventory and appraisal of the estate of Sarah Elizabeth Drake giving personal property valued at $3724.85. Order for hearing of final account filed in the estate on December 19, filed.

Marriage Licenses William L. Powers, 30, Salem and Eva G. Perkins, 36, Salem. Carle Abrams and family went to Eugene this morning by automobile to attend the University of Oregon home-coming.

Fruitland Nursery has sales yard in back of office, 540 State street south of court house. 277*

Three squads of state traffic officers, operating in connection with automobiles driven by Salem residents have been patrolling the roads in either direction from this city the past few nights. Practically all of the arrests resulting from the drive had to do with the refusal of neglect of the drivers of the motor vehicles to dim their lights. Lights, more than any other agency, have contributed to the many automobile accidents in Marion county during the past few months. Local courts fixed the minimum fines for this offense at $20, and not a few of the men arrested have signified their intention of standing trial.

All of the state institutions are making elaborate preparations for the Thanksgiving holiday. Special dinners will be served, and at some of the institutions programs will be arranged for the entertainment of the visitors. A moving picture show will be the chief attraction at the penitentiary, according to announcement made by Warden Compton. A musical program will be the feature at the state hospital.

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company has 40 men on the payroll, in setting new poles and transferring wires between Salem and Jefferson. Recently, poles were distributed for the line on the Jefferson way as far as Liberty road. With favorable weather conditions, the company hopes to complete the line by the first of the year. The camp for the 40 workers is located eight miles south of Salem.

For the weekly luncheon to be held Tuesday noon at the Marion hotel, members of the Kiwanis club will hear an address by Chas. Puchler, industrial secretary of the Pacific states. He will talk on industrial conditions in the west. Dr. E. T. Sisson, head of the department of ethics of Reed college, will speak on "The Education and the Disarmament Conference." Dr. Sisson was formerly president of the University of Montana.

Two speakers are on the program for the Kiwanis luncheon Tuesday noon at the Marion hotel. Charles Puchler, industrial secretary of the Pacific states, will speak on industrial conditions as is found in cities and towns throughout the Northwest. Dr. E. T. Sisson, who was formerly president of the University of Montana, but is now on the faculty of Reed College, Portland, will speak on the disarmament conference. Joe Adolph will give the attendance prize.

Adjusters are expected to arrive in Salem early next week to investigate the fire which recently damaged the state flax plant and its contents to the extent of approximately $17,000. More than $15,000 of the loss was confined to flax products and was fully insured. The money received from the insurance companies probably will be distributed among the growers who hold "L. O. U." certificates issued by the management of the flax plant.

Born LARUE—To Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaRue, 1145 north Fifth street, a son, Robert, Jr., weight 8 1/2 pounds.

Died KNAPP—Ruben Knapp, a former resident of Salem, died at the home of his son, Will Knapp, in San Diego, Cal., November 9. Mr. Knapp was more than 70 years of age, according to friends in Salem and had only lived in California a little more than a year. Mrs. Knapp died in Salem about three years ago.

Webb & Clough LEADING FUNERAL DIRECTORS EXPERT EMBALMERS

RIGDON & SON'S Mortuary Unequaled Service

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Salem, Oregon

Probate Court

Inventory and appraisal of the estate of Sarah Elizabeth Drake giving personal property valued at $3724.85. Order for hearing of final account filed in the estate on December 19, filed.

Marriage Licenses William L. Powers, 30, Salem and Eva G. Perkins, 36, Salem. Carle Abrams and family went to Eugene this morning by automobile to attend the University of Oregon home-coming.

Fruitland Nursery has sales yard in back of office, 540 State street south of court house. 277*

Three squads of state traffic officers, operating in connection with automobiles driven by Salem residents have been patrolling the roads in either direction from this city the past few nights. Practically all of the arrests resulting from the drive had to do with the refusal of neglect of the drivers of the motor vehicles to dim their lights. Lights, more than any other agency, have contributed to the many automobile accidents in Marion county during the past few months. Local courts fixed the minimum fines for this offense at $20, and not a few of the men arrested have signified their intention of standing trial.

All of the state institutions are making elaborate preparations for the Thanksgiving holiday. Special dinners will be served, and at some of the institutions programs will be arranged for the entertainment of the visitors. A moving picture show will be the chief attraction at the penitentiary, according to announcement made by Warden Compton. A musical program will be the feature at the state hospital.

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company has 40 men on the payroll, in setting new poles and transferring wires between Salem and Jefferson. Recently, poles were distributed for the line on the Jefferson way as far as Liberty road. With favorable weather conditions, the company hopes to complete the line by the first of the year. The camp for the 40 workers is located eight miles south of Salem.

For the weekly luncheon to be held Tuesday noon at the Marion hotel, members of the Kiwanis club will hear an address by Chas. Puchler, industrial secretary of the Pacific states. He will talk on industrial conditions in the west. Dr. E. T. Sisson, head of the department of ethics of Reed college, will speak on "The Education and the Disarmament Conference." Dr. Sisson was formerly president of the University of Montana.

Two speakers are on the program for the Kiwanis luncheon Tuesday noon at the Marion hotel. Charles Puchler, industrial secretary of the Pacific states, will speak on industrial conditions as is found in cities and towns throughout the Northwest. Dr. E. T. Sisson, who was formerly president of the University of Montana, but is now on the faculty of Reed College, Portland, will speak on the disarmament conference. Joe Adolph will give the attendance prize.

Adjusters are expected to arrive in Salem early next week to investigate the fire which recently damaged the state flax plant and its contents to the extent of approximately $17,000. More than $15,000 of the loss was confined to flax products and was fully insured. The money received from the insurance companies probably will be distributed among the growers who hold "L. O. U." certificates issued by the management of the flax plant.