

LOCAL BRIEFS AND PERSONALS

Coming Events

* Nov. 21—Business Men's luncheon, Commercial club.
* Nov. 22—Kiwanis club luncheon, Marion hotel.
* Nov. 23—Marion County Teachers Institute, Salem high school.
* Nov. 23—Rotary club luncheon, Marion hotel.
* Dec. 4—Salem Elks club memorial exercises, Grand theatre.

Circuit Court

Divorce complaint, answer and reply filed on a change of venue from Coos county, naming A. E. Kiser as plaintiff and Roby M. Kiser as defendant.

Probate Court

Inventory and appraisal filed of the estate of Carrie M. Elwell.

Petition asking for the appointment of Elizabeth Walker as administratrix of the estate of Jas. Forbis.

Final account of the estate of James F. Parlow filed and approved.

Petition asking for the appointment of Clarence W. Keene as administrator of the estate of Josef C. Burik filed.

Marriage Licenses

Charles R. Brown, 36, Salem and Winnifred Taylor, 26, Salem.

Pantages vaudeville tonight, 6:45, 9, Grand theatre.

Denton Burdick, member of the last legislature, and his father from Redmond, spent Saturday night and yesterday in Salem as guests of the Marion hotel. They motored down to Eugene from their home to see the game between Oregon university and Oregon Agricultural college, and intended to make their return trip today if the weather would permit.

Henry Souvaine, pianist and Miss Penelope Davies, soprano, in concert at armory Wednesday night, Nov. 23rd. Tickets 50c. Seat sale all day Wednesday, armory.

Some residents in the vicinity of Capitol and Union streets were this morning forced to wade to their ankles in water if they wished to make their way about their yards. The water in that vicinity is the highest it has been in years.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Porter of Portland arrived in Salem yesterday to make their future home. Mr. Porter has been employed at a local state institution and will assume his duties today.

A bicycle which had been abandoned on Church street, near the First Methodist church, was yesterday taken to the police station by S. D. Bidwell, of 645 Perry street. Today the wheel had not been claimed by its owner.

The Northwest Lumber & Export company of Portland, capitalized at $10,000 filed articles of incorporation with the state corporation department here Saturday. The incorporators are M. E. McDermott, Maurice W. Seltz and C. D. Christensen.

Frank Miller, formerly a member of the Oregon public service commission but at the present time engaged in conducting a foundry at Albany, was in Salem Saturday. Mr. Miller said business at Albany is prosperous and he is working his plant at full capacity.

A statement submitted to the secretary of state's office by the Shell Oil company shows sales of gasoline in Oregon during October totalling 250,415 gallons with distillate sales of 2065 gallons. The statement was accompanied by a check for $5039.32 to cover the state tax on motor fuel oil sales.

An automobile driven by a man whose name was not learned was slightly damaged yesterday when it was struck by a truck piloted by S. P. Powers of route 5, according to his report to the police. The accident occurred about one half mile from Salem on the penitentiary road. No one was hurt.

Several poor families of Salem were assisted to the extent of $500 last Friday, when pupils attending the various schools of the city joined in gathering clothing and edibles. The response was generous and far exceeded the expectations of the teachers who sponsored the drive.

Fred R. Wilkinson of La Grande has arrived in Salem to pass a week or ten days. Mr. Wilkinson is a rancher and was attracted to Marion county because of weather conditions. Should he find this section of the state to his liking, he probably will dispose of his eastern Oregon farm and locate here permanently.

Clyde Whitman of Woodburn has been appointed first lieutenant of the infantry company of the Oregon national guard there to succeed Corey B. Richards, who resigned recently, according to information from the office of the adjutant general this morning. Lieutenant Whitman served overseas with the 112nd infantry.

Miss Georgia Wilson of Portland has arrived in Salem to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller.

Buy a used car at Kirkwood's.

Walter Sorensen of Eugene was in the city last night for a short visit. He will return to his home some time during this week.

Painless corn doctor's office, phone 257, 322 State street.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson of Salem are registered at the Imperial. Mr. Johnson is in the furniture business in the capital city.

All next week, Miss Larsen, 419 Court street, will display the "Elson" dresses which are manufactured in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mayo and Grant Murphy of Stayton were visitors in the city yesterday, and were registered at the Bligh hotel.

The well known "Elson" dresses will be shown at Larsen's Millinery, 439 Court street, next Monday to Saturday inclusive.

At a meeting of the Mothers club of the Belle Passi school district last Friday night it was voted to serve hot lunches in the school house to the children.

"God's Country and the Law," by James Oliver Curwood at the Oregon theatre Thanksgiving.

After spending the week end visiting in Eugene, I. R. Smith, Salem merchant, returned here last evening. He made the trip by automobile.

Come and see the "Elson" dresses which are manufactured in Portland, Or., at Larsen's Millinery, 429 Court street.

C. E. Knowland and Lee Unruh enjoyed a trip to Portland yesterday. The silver thaw in Portland delayed their return until late last night.

Don't let the rain stop you. Pantages tonight only, two shows Grand theatre.

E. P. Morcom of Woodburn was in town this morning on legal business. Mr. Morcom has just returned from a trip east where he visited Washington, Chicago and his old home at Dodgeville, Wis.

John H. Rudd, executive secretary of the Marion county Y. M. C. A. returned Saturday from Medford where he attended the annual convention of the Jackson county association.

The North Howell Parent-Teachers association was formed last week at a meeting in the North Howell school house. Mrs. George W. Vinton was elected President, Mrs. Archie Weisner vice president and Mrs. Thomas Dump, secretary.

Luther J. Chapin, Paul Wallace, John H. Rudd, Ed Sociolofsky and A. L. Lindbeck, braved the elements Sunday afternoon for a motor trip to Woodburn to attend the quarterly meeting of the county committee of the Marion county Y. M. C. A. Plans for the work in this county were discussed and reports on the progress of the program were made by various department heads. Ed Sociolofsky who is heading up the "go to conference" committee in this county, reported that more than 50 Marion county boys would attend the annual older boys conference which convenes in Corvallis Friday for a three day session.

Love, the jeweler, Salem.

Department heads and state employees who have been "hoofed" it up and down stairs in the capitol building for the past two months while the elevator was laid off for repairs are now riding again. The old water power lift has been replaced by a modern electric elevator which is not dependent upon the fickleness of the state prison water supply for its power.

OREGON Theatre

House Peters

Irene Rich

In "The Invisible Power"

Clyde Cook

In "The Guide"

Hartman's Glasses

Repair and Alter. Wear them and see

HARTMAN BROS.

Salem, Oregon

State Highways
Escape Injury

Oregon's highway system has escaped the deluge of Saturday and Sunday without suffering any material damages, according to reports of resident engineers and highway patrolmen submitted to State Highway Engineer Nunn this morning.

While the water has overflowed the roads in numerous places and in some cases the gravel shoulders have been washed away the damage on the whole has been insignificant. No bridges have been lost although in a few instances the water has overflowed the structures, so far as reports received up until today indicate.

A crew of men with a steam shovel has been sent out on the highway in eastern Oregon in an effort to open up a passage through the snow which blocks the roads in certain sections but Nunn doubts the ability of the state's equipment to cope with the situation.

Hats not over $5 Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday. Special Thanksgiving prices, any hat in the store not over $5. Mrs. L. G. Curtis, 125 N. High street.

Miss Ola Clark and Miss Hazel Browne, Salem high school instructors, returned to Salem Saturday night by automobile after witnessing the Oregon-O. A. C. football game at Eugene.

Miss Garnett Peters, employed in a department store at Portland, has arrived in Salem to remain until after Thanksgiving. Her mother is employed at a state institution.

Henry Souvaine, pianist and Miss Penelope Davies, soprano, in concert at armory Wednesday night, Nov. 23rd. Tickets 50c. Seat sale all day Wednesday, armory.

John L. Rand, appointed recently as justice of the Oregon supreme court, has rented the dwelling previously occupied by C. A. Johns. The residence is located on Chemeketa street.

None of the occupants of two cars which collided on the Pacific highway near Salem Saturday night was injured, according to the report made to the police. One of the automobiles was driven by Charles Mathas of route 2, Salem, and the other was piloted by L. F. Bassett of Albany. Both of the machines were damaged.

No damage resulted from an automobile collision which occurred at the corner of Court and Liberty streets about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Delbert Moore of route 2, told the police that his car, moving east on Court was struck by a machine licensed in the name of A. Beranleau. Neither of the car's occupants sustained injuries.

Letters received in Salem recently indicate that C. A. Johns, who sometime ago was named associate justice of the supreme court of the Philippine Islands, is much pleased with his new office. Mr. Johns said that the trip to Manila was enjoyable and that neither he or Mrs. Johns were sick. Mr. Johns' son, who accompanied his father abroad, already has secured a good position and will remain in Manila until next spring.

With the opening of the Canby-Barlow section of the Pacific highway to traffic Sunday morning motorists are now afforded a solid ribbon of pavement from Salem to Portland with the exception of a short strip on either side of the bridge across the Pudding river at Aurora, according to State Highway Engineer Nunn.

Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, secretary of the Marion County Realtors' association, has received a letter from the realty board of Redmond, Ore., asking for information regarding the multiple listing system which the local organization adopted here some time ago.

J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools, left Saturday for Hood River where on Monday morning he will address the teachers of that county. Monday afternoon Mr. Churchill will speak before the teachers at The Dalles, while on Tuesday he will address the teachers at Eugene. Wednesday the school superintendent will be in Albany, where he will participate in the program arranged for the teachers' institute of Linn county.

Frank Davey, whose face is as familiar in Salem as the state capitol, is in Portland with Mrs. Davey and they are stopping at the Imperial. Mr. Davey is working for the state insurance commissioner and is here to investigate insurance conditions. He has been a member of the state legislature and has held many positions with the state government since the days when he was known as the "Sage of Burns" and held the government land office there—The Oregonian.

The bureau of biological survey, United States department of agriculture, calls attention to the fact that under federal law all packages in which wild ducks, geese and other migratory game birds are transported must have the name of the shipper and of the consignee and an accurate statement of the numbers and kinds of birds contained therein clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof. Sportsmen shipping game birds without proper marking are liable to prosecution in the federal court and the birds to seizure and condemnation.

For sale, a used Baby Overland at Kirkwood's, 246 State street.

Council to Decide Fee for Taxi Men at Tonight's Meet

Although the ordinance providing for a new fee for taxi drivers may not be read for the third time tonight, recommendation

Way Down East

LIBERTY

TONIGHT

6:45 8:45

If you don't get here by 7:30 don't think you have missed it, another show at 9:00.

The Biggest Vaudeville Bill we have shown

PANTAGES Vaudeville

CARL ROSINI & CO. CREATORS OF MYSTERY

Genevieve May & Co. CHUNG HWA FOUR

CHAS. GERARD DOROL BLAIR & CO.

A NIGHT IN DIXIE

SONGS AND SAYINGS FROM THE LAND OF OLD BLACK JOE

Matinee 50c

Positively The Biggest Vaudeville Show Ever In Salem

Evening 75c

GRAND

Where The Big Shows Play

Webb & Clough

LEADING FUNERAL DIRECTORS

EXPERT EMBALMERS

RIGDON & SON'S

Mortuary

Unequaled Service

State Highways

Escape Injury

Oregon's highway system has escaped the deluge of Saturday and Sunday without suffering any material damages, according to reports of resident engineers and highway patrolmen submitted to State Highway Engineer Nunn this morning.

While the water has overflowed the roads in numerous places and in some cases the gravel shoulders have been washed away the damage on the whole has been insignificant. No bridges have been lost although in a few instances the water has overflowed the structures, so far as reports received up until today indicate.

A crew of men with a steam shovel has been sent out on the highway in eastern Oregon in an effort to open up a passage through the snow which blocks the roads in certain sections but Nunn doubts the ability of the state's equipment to cope with the situation.

Hats not over $5 Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday. Special Thanksgiving prices, any hat in the store not over $5. Mrs. L. G. Curtis, 125 N. High street.

Miss Ola Clark and Miss Hazel Browne, Salem high school instructors, returned to Salem Saturday night by automobile after witnessing the Oregon-O. A. C. football game at Eugene.

Miss Garnett Peters, employed in a department store at Portland, has arrived in Salem to remain until after Thanksgiving. Her mother is employed at a state institution.

Henry Souvaine, pianist and Miss Penelope Davies, soprano, in concert at armory Wednesday night, Nov. 23rd. Tickets 50c. Seat sale all day Wednesday, armory.

John L. Rand, appointed recently as justice of the Oregon supreme court, has rented the dwelling previously occupied by C. A. Johns. The residence is located on Chemeketa street.

None of the occupants of two cars which collided on the Pacific highway near Salem Saturday night was injured, according to the report made to the police. One of the automobiles was driven by Charles Mathas of route 2, Salem, and the other was piloted by L. F. Bassett of Albany. Both of the machines were damaged.

No damage resulted from an automobile collision which occurred at the corner of Court and Liberty streets about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Delbert Moore of route 2, told the police that his car, moving east on Court was struck by a machine licensed in the name of A. Beranleau. Neither of the car's occupants sustained injuries.

Letters received in Salem recently indicate that C. A. Johns, who sometime ago was named associate justice of the supreme court of the Philippine Islands, is much pleased with his new office. Mr. Johns said that the trip to Manila was enjoyable and that neither he or Mrs. Johns were sick. Mr. Johns' son, who accompanied his father abroad, already has secured a good position and will remain in Manila until next spring.

With the opening of the Canby-Barlow section of the Pacific highway to traffic Sunday morning motorists are now afforded a solid ribbon of pavement from Salem to Portland with the exception of a short strip on either side of the bridge across the Pudding river at Aurora, according to State Highway Engineer Nunn.

Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, secretary of the Marion County Realtors' association, has received a letter from the realty board of Redmond, Ore., asking for information regarding the multiple listing system which the local organization adopted here some time ago.

J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools, left Saturday for Hood River where on Monday morning he will address the teachers of that county. Monday afternoon Mr. Churchill will speak before the teachers at The Dalles, while on Tuesday he will address the teachers at Eugene. Wednesday the school superintendent will be in Albany, where he will participate in the program arranged for the teachers' institute of Linn county.

Frank Davey, whose face is as familiar in Salem as the state capitol, is in Portland with Mrs. Davey and they are stopping at the Imperial. Mr. Davey is working for the state insurance commissioner and is here to investigate insurance conditions. He has been a member of the state legislature and has held many positions with the state government since the days when he was known as the "Sage of Burns" and held the government land office there—The Oregonian.

The bureau of biological survey, United States department of agriculture, calls attention to the fact that under federal law all packages in which wild ducks, geese and other migratory game birds are transported must have the name of the shipper and of the consignee and an accurate statement of the numbers and kinds of birds contained therein clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof. Sportsmen shipping game birds without proper marking are liable to prosecution in the federal court and the birds to seizure and condemnation.

For sale, a used Baby Overland at Kirkwood's, 246 State street.

Council to Decide Fee for Taxi Men at Tonight's Meet

Although the ordinance providing for a new fee for taxi drivers may not be read for the third time tonight, recommendation

SPECIAL SESSION IS ISSUE

Governor Refuses To Make Statement On Request to Aid Portland Fair Boomers With Special Tax

With legislative orgy of 1920 still fresh in his memory to warn against another special session of the lawmakers and the decisive vote of Portland Saturday arguing for a chance to submit the proposed world's fair tax to a vote of the people of the whole state, Governor Olcott is this morning verily between the devil and the deep blue sea.

While the governor this morning insists that he has nothing to say on the proposed special session and "no comment to make" on the speculation that a special session will be called opinion here is that he will decide upon the plunge into the "deep blue" and convene the legislators sometime early in January.

However, it is not expected that his call will be based entirely on the necessity for getting the world's fair tax problem before the people of the state. In fact this will likely be made a secondary consideration in the call should it be issued, as it probably will be.

It is known that the problem of conserving Oregon's highways from the ravages of heavy trucks has been worrying the governor for some time and it is rumored that he has upon a recent occasion declared that the solution of this problem would be in itself sufficient justification for the expense of an extraordinary session of the legislature.

Members of the Marion county delegation are divided as to the wisdom of a special session, some favoring the move to place the question of the fair tax before the people although themselves opposing the proposed tax, others favoring the proposed tax and still others, unalterably opposed to both the special session and the proposed fair tax.

Possession of Booze Charged to Jack Wikoff

Jack Wikoff, a resident of route 9, Salem, was arrested yesterday

Articles were also filed as follows:

Klamath Rodeo & Fair Ground association, Klamath Falls; $25,000; J. N. Givan, A. M. Collier and Clyde Bradley.

Advertisers Service company, Portland, $10,000; Frank R. Miller, Sam F. Hornstein and Dora M. Miller.

Resolutions of dissolution were filed by the Columbia Packing Co. of Astoria.

Shortly after December 1 the new box factory and by-products plant of the Pelican Bay Lumber company of Klamath Falls will start operating. Fifty men will be employed.

tions will be made which probably will determine the amount of the license fee, aldermen said today. The ordinance committee, which has a bill drafted, will ask for time in which to make amendments, it was stated.

The ordinance at present in effect, which was drafted with a view to protecting local taxi men during the state fair, calls for a license fee of $100. The new ordinance, which has passed two readings, provides for a fee of $25—$10 more than the fee required prior to the last fair.

Aldermen said today that more than $25 probably will be charged if the ordinance is amended.

Chiefly business of a routine nature will be before the council tonight.

Died

HILBORN—At the residence, 344 North 23d street, Saturday evening, Nov. 19th, Ira Luther Hilborn, age 50 years, husband of Millie E. Hilborn, father of Mrs. E. W. Hunter, Miss Fay Hilborn, M. Dale Hilborn and Nile W. Hilborn, all of this city.

Funeral services will be held from the Rigdon mortuary Tuesday, Nov. 22 at 2 o'clock, concluding service City View cemetery.

MITCHELL—In this city, Monday, Nov. 21st, Emanuel Mitchell, age 65 years, a former resident of Portland. The body will be forwarded to Portland for funeral services and interment by Rigdon mortuary.

Webb & Clough

LEADING FUNERAL DIRECTORS

EXPERT EMBALMERS

RIGDON & SON'S

Mortuary

Unequaled Service

Flax Growers
Get Big Order

An order for 50 carloads of up-holstering from flax grown for seed, was placed this morning with the Willamette Valley Flax & Hemp Growers' association which was formed here last week.

The price offered was $100 a ton, which means that about $50,000 will be paid for 500 tons of next year's crop if the association cares to accept the order.

The association held its first meeting last week and adopted by-laws and constitution, delaying the election of officers until the next meeting November 26.

Trial of Forrest Brown on Today

The trial of Forrest Brown, of Polk county, on a charge of possessing intoxicating liquor, was scheduled to be held in Judge G. E. Unruh's justice court here this afternoon. Brown was arrested here recently after he had been chased for three blocks by Walter W. Birtchet, Salem policeman.

Brown will be tried by jury. His arrest came after he had broken a bottle in front of a pool hall on south Commercial street.

by Officer W. W. Birtchet and was charged with having liquor in his possession.

One hundred dollars bail demanded by Police Judge Earl Race for his release was furnished by Wikoff.

He is cited to appear in the police court this afternoon.

TODAY

and Til Wednesday Night

D. W. GRIFFITH'S

Masterpiece

WAY DOWN EAST

LIBERTY

TONIGHT

6:45 8:45

If you don't get here by 7:30 don't think you have missed it, another show at 9:00.

The Biggest Vaudeville Bill we have shown

PANTAGES Vaudeville

CARL ROSINI & CO. CREATORS OF MYSTERY

Genevieve May & Co. CHUNG HWA FOUR

CHAS. GERARD DOROL BLAIR & CO.

A NIGHT IN DIXIE

SONGS AND SAYINGS FROM THE LAND OF OLD BLACK JOE

Matinee 50c

Positively The Biggest Vaudeville Show Ever In Salem

Evening 75c

GRAND

Where The Big Shows Play

TOMORROW
WEDNESDAY

A Story with a plot stranger than "Trilby" and "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" combined.

Whether you believe in Hypnotism or not don't miss this Picture

Constance Binney

"THE CASE OF BECKY"

From David Belasco's Famous Stage Success

OREGON

Consistently Good Pictures

TONIGHT—
A Big Double-Header
AMATEUR NIGHT
Singing, Dancing, Music and Fun Galore

Also
COUNTRY STORE
Bring the Kids and