Dallas, Nov. 24.—Fully 200 Dallas people turned out Wednesday evening to pay their respects to Rev. and Mrs. Albyne Eason. Rev. Eason has been pastor of the local Christian church for some months, but has just recently moved to Dallas. The affair was in the nature of an informal reception at the church, and was attended by quite a few local people not affiliating with the Christian church. Short talks of welcome were made by Rev. Frank James of the Methodist church and Rev. F. S. Thomas of the Presbyterian church, to which Rev. Eason responded. There were several special musical numbers. Those present adjourned to the basement of the church, where the ladies had prepared a fine feast for the occasion.

Mr. Boynton gave his selections in a masterful way, showing excellent talent and training. Big things have been predicted for him musically if he will continue his work. The group of numbers which he gave here in recital Tuesday evening, November 8, at the First Christian church follows: "The Victor" (Burlingame), Ario "La Donna Mobile" (Verdi), "The Devil's Love Song" (Gilberte). The last, a most difficult interpretation, was given most realistically, even to the diabolical laugh at the end.

Dance of Last Night Is Formal

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durbin were hosts last night at a lovely pre-Thanksgiving dancing party for seventy couples of their friends. The affair was given in the Shrine mosque, already so adequately decorated, and lavender chrysanthemums were used about in tall baskets and the wall vases to supply a further color note. Ferns and palms were effectively used and lent dignity to the hall. Formal in nature, the party called forth many new and handsome dancing frocks, each distinctly beautiful against the color and lights.

Only married couples were bidden by Mr. and Mrs. Durbin. Assisting about the room were Mrs. Curtis Ross, Mrs. E. F. Pearson and Mrs. Henry Cornoyer. Punch was served during the evening and late in the program there was a warm luncheon. Those included were: Mr. and Mrs. Carey Martin, Mr.
