'Bill' Reinhart and 'Hunk' Latham, both of whom call Salem their home, were the individual stars of the football game between the University of Oregon and the University of Hawaii at Honolulu Christmas, according to Mike Jay, sports editor of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin. "There were several men who stood out on the Oregon team," Jay wrote. "Bill Reinhart played in two quarters but that was enough. During that time he made three touchdowns, besides being the best ground gainer on the squad. Running through a broken field is his specialty. Another web-footer who drew the limelight was Latham at fullback. He is long and lean and nothing like his ability to pick passes out of the air has been seen here."

Germany May Get Hearing On Reparations
Cannes, France, Jan. 7.—(By Associated Press.)—Germany may be asked to send a representative to Cannes for consultation with the allied supreme council on the subject of German reparations, a leading delegate at the council meeting announced this afternoon.
The Belgian delegation has announced that it will insist on Belgium's priority to 2,500,000,000 gold marks of the German reparations.
This is regarded as an important obstacle to the British plan, which the French are disposed to accept in part.
Meanwhile, Premier Briand, Lord Curzon, British foreign secretary, and Foreign Minister Delia Toretta of Italy have been conferring regarding the treaty signed at Angora between France and the Turkish nationalists.
Meanwhile, it was learned today, the experts dealing with the subject of German reparations have agreed on a plan for partial remission of cash payments by Germany for a period of years involving the payment of 500,000,000 gold marks in cash and 1,000,000,000 gold marks in kind each year.
The solution of the Turkish problem and consideration of the Angora treaty were gone into further this forenoon when the premiers and foreign ministers held an informal discussion.
It was indicated today that great efforts would be put forth to dispose of the Angora question by Tuesday and if possible conclude the supreme council's work by Tuesday or Wednesday morning.
Many of the delegates attribute the quick results of yesterday's meeting to the example set by the Washington conference. They point out that Mr. Lloyd George's program was presented and accepted with the same suddenness and speed as the opening proposals of Secretary of State Hughes at the armament gathering.
The question of reparation will occupy almost the entire time of the conference Monday, and the delegates are hopeful that a decision will be reached at the end of one day's consideration of the subject. The experts this forenoon began discussion as to how the first billion marks paid by Germany last August should be divided.
Mexico Asked To Explain Seizure of Church Property
Washington, Jan. 7.—The state department has instructed the American embassy at Mexico City to request of the Mexican government an explanation of seizure by the municipality of Saltillo of property of the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist convention concerning which protest has been made to the department by Senator Harris of Georgia. The seizure included the property operated by the mission board as a girl's school.

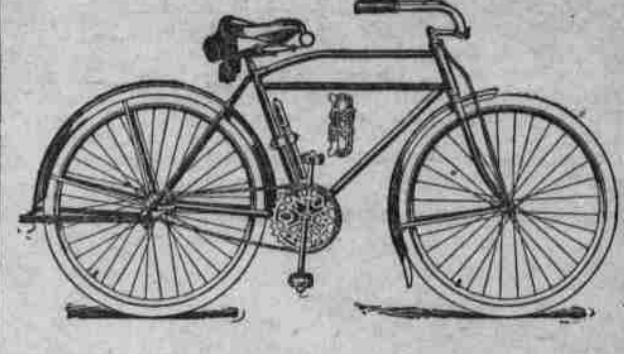

Dallas Guardsmen Tounce F Company

The winner of the Willamette valley military championship will go to Portland to meet the winner of the Portland military series for the state championship.
Paris, Jan. 7.—(By Associated Press.)—Disappointment and skepticism were the mildest emotions aroused in France by the first day's developments at the supreme council conference in Cannes, judging from the press comment. L'Esclair, which is generally credited with representing Premier Briand, says:
"Mr. Lloyd-George has spoken. He leads the way and the representatives of the allies follow as a subject follows the hypnotist. As he had announced, he subordinated the question of relations to that of the reconstruction of Europe so that Germany can find in Russia the money she owes us. It is a well known proceeding. It is that followed by all financial adventurers. When the company is unable to meet its obligations, a new one is formed in which the capital of the old one is drowned."
The newspaper concludes: "The plot is well designed. We are put to sleep so Lloyd-George can strip us at his leisure. The Pan-German concert is always up to strength; if we give up the Rhine, Alsace-Lorraine will be required of us tomorrow in the name of pacifism."
The Figaro, organ of conservative opinion, remarks: "The first results at Cannes are frankly bad. Lloyd-George wins easily all along the line—a great financial and economic conference is to be called at Turin or Genoa, where the French premier may exchange views on the reconstruction of Europe with Lenin and Dr. Wirth. Meanwhile the inhabitants of our so-called liberated regions continue to live in their huts."
U. S. Veterans' Clean-up Squad Cancels Dates
Information received late this morning by W. P. Wise, advance man for the clean-up squad from the United States veterans' bureau which was to adjust all claims of the Marlon county ex-service men and which was scheduled to be here January 13 to 17, states that the squad has been called into the district headquarters at Seattle by orders from Washington, and that all dates and publicity as to their future schedules should be cancelled.
The order not only affects squads working in this state, but in states throughout the country. It is not known as to what arrangements will be made in the future regarding the claims, the telegram cancelling all dates indefinitely.
Enters Plea Of Guilty
Mrs. Wurtzberger, in company with Elza Miles, her nephew, had walked the entire distance from Chemawa to Salem. The killing was staged in the Wurtzberger's small cottage on the government land.
The murder, Mrs. Wurtzberger said, was the culmination of a series of quarrels between her and her husband. Before they retired to their common bed on the evening of September 3 they had had a wordy battle, she explained. About 1:30 a. m. she was awakened by her asthma which had caused her much unpleasantness. She arose and proceeded to fix some medicine.
Told of Murder.
"What the hell are you doing?" she said her husband asked. She told him.
"I hope it chokes you to death," she said he replied.
Subsequently Mrs. Wurtzberger went down stairs. "I thought it over," she told officers. "In a few minutes I returned with the hammer. He was asleep. I beat him over the head several times."
Placed in the city jail here, Mrs. Wurtzberger was reluctant to discuss the killing, and appeared bored, rather than angered, at the questions which were put to her by newspaper men.
Mrs. Wurtzberger came to Salem from Douglas, Ariz., about two years ago. She and Wurtzberger were married at Dallas, Or., May 28, 1921.
The Wurtzbergers, neighbors said, were in the habit of quarreling frequently. Wurtzberger was 42 years of age.

Attempt to Probate Estate Falls Flat
Dallas, Or., Jan. 7.—The estate of Tressa M. Marx, deceased, was petitioned for probate in May, 1921, in Polk county by H. T. Burns, stating in the petition that there were two heirs at law, William Marx, residing in Clackamas county, and Ralph Marx at the time residing in Maryland. Both were over the age of twenty-one, and that the said heirs had requested him to petition for administration. Mr. Burns at the time was living on the property owned by the decedent, consisting of about 20 acres. The letters of administration were issued and the estate was about to be disposed of as Mr. Burns had petitioned the court to sell the property in question. The heirs having been served by citation to appear and show cause why the property should not be sold appeared on the scene through their attorney, Mr. Butler of Oregon City, yesterday and objected to any further proceeding. The deceased having died in Clackamas county the estate should be probated in that county, and the heirs now stated that they gave Mr. Burns no authority to proceed to probate the estate and ask the court to dismiss the petition in Polk county.
New York, Jan. 7.—The actual condition of the clearing house banks and trust companies for the week (five days) shows that they hold $56,744,170 reserve in excess of legal requirements. This is an increase of $39,577,950 from last week.

What's New The Market
By Rex Stewart
Bakers' flour slumped 15 cents on the barrel yesterday in the western market following a drop in wheat prices east. This reduction may be followed by a decrease in price to grocers, but it is hardly enough to expect much decline to the consumer.
Farmers are consuming their eggs in preference to selling them at the low price of 28 cents and offerings have been rather slack the last two days. If the 23 cent buying price continues much longer there ought to be a reduction from the 35 cent retail quotation for dealers have about cleaned up the eggs they paid high prices for before the slump came Tuesday.
The buying price of potatoes in this section has been $1.50 a hundredweight for sometime. There has been a good supply up to now with grocers turning down recent offerings. There is no anticipation of a drop in price either wholesale or retail.
Irish Accept
motion, Harry Boland arose to speak against the treaty.
Mr. Boland, just back from the United States, asked for a vote of thanks for "the magnificent support America has given us."
America Favors Treaty.
No one knew better than Michael Collins, declared Boland, that there were 5000 men in America eager to fight for Ireland and that many such men had come back to Ireland and fought valiantly.
Boland said he would have to admit that sentiment in America favored the treaty, but many subscribers to the Irish loan would regard adoption of the treaty as a betrayal of their sympathy and support. He declared acceptance of the treaty would be suicide for Ireland.
Ireland, he continued, never has been and never could be beaten. If the treaty were adopted she could never again ask the world for support in the fight for freedom.
Boland was enthusiastically applauded when he took his seat.
Surprise Spring.
Joseph McGrath of Dublin, supporting the treaty, created a sensation by stating that when he and Boland went to Gairloch, Scotland, on their last trip as messengers in the negotiations with Prime Minister Lloyd-George, Boland told him he was going to America on behalf of Eamon DeValera to prepare the people of America to accept "something short of a republic."
Replying to McGrath, DeValera said that because he wanted to be honest with the American people he had told Boland to let them know he might not secure the "isolated republic" which was Ireland's ideal, but that his external association plan would give Ireland complete independence.

Vick Brothers Report Business Outlook Bright
Contrary to the general impression that business is on the bum, Vick Brothers report that automobile sales are good. Better than a sale per day is being made and prospects were never better for future sales.
A carload of Overland Fours were unloaded this week and all but one have been delivered to purchasers. Enclosed cars are selling better than open models at this season of the year as people are beginning to appreciate the comforts of the enclosed car.
Light cars are still holding the lead in sales as is only natural on account of price.
'Salvation Nell' to Be Screened Here
'Salvation Nell,' adapted from the famous Edward Sheldon stage play of the same name, with Pauline Starke and Joe King in the leading roles, will be the First National attraction at the Liberty theatre next week, commencing Sunday.
The production is said to be the most pretentious yet made at the Whitman Bennett studio. It was filmed under the direction of Kenneth Webb, who was responsible for some of the recent screen successes starring Lionel Barrymore. Dorothy Farnum, who had previously been writing continually for Constance Talmadge, prepared the scenario for 'Salvation Nell,' which as a gripping story of love, pathos and pluck with New York's famous East Side as the interesting setting.
Anxiety felt by relatives of little Marvin Sharp, three years of age, when he was reported to have wandered away from home yesterday, was short lived for Marvin was found within a few hours. Assistance of the police was asked for in locating the lad.
At the Bligh.
Another dandy four-act vaudeville bill now appearing at the Bligh theatre consists of Leonard Foster in cowboy costume doing many difficult tricks with the rope or lariat, rope juggling, spinning, knot tying and rope jumping in a graceful and easy manner which proves entertaining and interesting. O'Neill and O'Neill, two clever comedians, both with ready wit and an abundance of comedy songs and laughable patter put over in a splendid manner.
Dancing Wilbur a versatile pair of novelty dancers in a choice selection of dancing numbers, displaying graceful movement and wearing many pretty and costly costumes. Violan Duo, in a revue of popular songs at the piano and musical numbers on the novelty invented and made by Miss Harlett Tryon, in selections which are splendidly woven into a very classy entertainment.
'Winners of the West,' the new idea continued feature opens its first chapter on this show. It is a great picturization of the famous trail breaking expedition of Captain John C. Fremont to the California gold fields in 1845.
Hoot Gibson, the popular young western star of Pendleton Oregon Roundup fame, will be seen in his latest five-reel western feature of friendship and fights, love and laughter, 'Action.'
This program will be at the Bligh today and tomorrow only.
