Former Proteges Of Bohler Will Appear With Whitman Five

In the eyes of two members of the Whitman college basketball squad, which is to meet the Bearcat in a two-game series Thursday and Friday nights of this week, Coach Roy Bohler, Willamette mentor, will appear in a relation to them far reversed from that which he held when they first knew him.

Chandler, Missionary guard, and Schroeder, substitute on the Whitman lineup, first met up with Bohler when the Bearcat coach was in charge of the Walla Walla high school team, of which they were members. It was under Bohler that they learned the rudiments of the loop game.

Thursday's game opens the intercollegiate basketball season for Willamette and ushers in a series of at least nine home floor games for the Bearcats, a series which will bring some of the strongest fives on the coast to the city.

As yet the Willamette schedule has not been completed and Coach Bohler is still hopeful of arranging two more games with O. A. C., duplicating last year's four-game schedule with the Aggies. Conflicts in open dates have so far

FIVE RECORDS BROKEN BY UNITED STATES AVIATORS DURING WAR

The feat of Stinson and Bertaud marks the fifth world's record made by American airmen during 1921. Lieutenant McCready, of the Army on September 28 drove an airplane to the height of 37,800 feet. Lieutenant Commander David McCullough in a Loening monoplane flying boat made an altitude of 19,500 feet, carrying four persons. Bert Acosta drove a Curtiss Navy racer in Omaha last September for 150 miles at an average of 176.3 miles an hour. Sergeant Chambers of Fort Sill, Lawton, Oklahoma, on November 1 dropped 26,000 feet in a parachute in eighteen minutes. The Navy dirigible C-7, piloted by Lieutenant-Commander R. F. Wood, on December 2 made three flights with the first use of helium. So 1921 has been a record year for American aviation.

HOOTCH HOUNDS, BEWARE!

Dr. Amy Kankonen, the twenty-three-year-old Mayor of Fairport, Ohio, issues a warning to all bootleggers in her immediate vicinity to beware. In her own laboratories she is conducting chemical analyses of all contraband home brew. She is perhaps the youngest as well as the only woman Mayor in the United States. She was elected on a "dry ticket" and means to maintain a dry condition in the city of which she is Chief Executive. The photo shows the fair Mayor at work, testing home brew in her own laboratories.

Legion Posts Will Explain Compensation

Chicago, Jan. 10.—National Commander Hanford MacNider of the American Legion issued instructions last night to all Legion posts to present the case of adjusted compensation for ex-soldiers before chamber of commerce in every city of the United States in connection with the referendum on that question now being conducted by those bodies.

The campaign is to begin immediately as the chamber of commerce of the United States, which submitted the referendum to its members, has set the time limit in the voting at February 1.

Legion leaders, dwelling upon the fight the national chamber has waged upon the pending bill, declare the measure has not been understood.

Commander MacNider in a letter to Joseph H. Defrees, president of the chamber of commerce of the United States, which was made public last night, said that "opposition to this measure lies principally in ignorance of what the bill really calls for. There is a cash payment option, it is true, but it is taken care of by small payments, several months apart. The other four features of the Legion bill (insurance, vocational aid, or assistance in acquiring land or a home) your organization does not mention."

Harriman Must Resign Is Order

Washington, Jan. 10.—W. Averell Harriman, son of the late E. H. Harriman, was required by an order of the interstate commerce commission Monday to resign his place as director of the Illinois Central railway and subsidiary lines, or of the Baltimore & Ohio.

Mr. Harriman may retain, the commission ruled, all of his places as director and officer of the Union Pacific system and its affiliated corporations, but cannot hold similar authority in the corporation of both the other two railroad systems named.

Cornelius Vanderbilt, the commission also held Monday, may retain his directorate in the Delaware & Hudson, but must resign from the board of the Illinois Central or from the board of the Missouri Pacific.

Legion leaders, dwelling upon the fight the national chamber has waged upon the pending bill, declare the measure has not been understood.

Commander MacNider in a letter to Joseph H. Defrees, president of the chamber of commerce of the United States, which was made public last night, said that "opposition to this measure lies principally in ignorance of what the bill really calls for. What's New On The Market

A break in the egg market east, showing a five cent drop in Chicago and Kansas City prices, is evidence that the market price here is about right, though coast shippers could not afford to ship east at the present prices paid producers. It is further evidence that the market price may still go down, though there is a local scarcity which has kept quotations up above the market level. Raising the price to the producer, however, will not increase the supply and will perhaps necessitate a drop later which may prove more disastrous to poultry men.

The drop in the east may be accounted for by the open weather conditions prevailing there and the number of people who have gone into the poultry business due to the cheapness of wheat, causing a greater supply than has been experienced for some time and subsequent reduction to the consumer.

The onion market is looking stronger with the wholesale price of five cents and the retail price of seven still quoted. Fine looking mustard greens for 10 cents and spinach greens at 15 cents were offered today by retailers.
