Old Stall After

Canby, Jan. 16 .- A D. Gribbie, prominent Jersey breeder, whose farm is located at Gribble Prairie, about four miles east of Canby and who contemplated retiring from the breeding business, d'sposing of his herd of registered Jersey cattle, has again entered the industry, since there was such a demand for his stock at the recent livestock show in Portland. He has succeeded in getting back several of his cows sold about three years ago, These cows, Mr. Gribble says, showed unusual intelligence when led back to the barnyard after being away about three years. When the big barn door was swung open Belinda of Lone Oak, 6 years old, purchased by Samuel Torvend of Silverton, trotted to her old stall, and soon purchased by Mr. Torvend, went Mrs. Gunda Martindale, sheriff into the barn at a rapid gait and of Allamakee, Iowa, will spring soon found her old place, and the trap that will cause the hang Mable's Minnie found her former
