Bringing Up Father—By George McManus

VANDALS TRIM BEARCATS 32 TO 10

WILLAMETTE FIGHTS BUT OUTCLASSED

Same Fast and Spectacular Despite One-sided Score; Idaho Exhibits Form

By Harry N. Crain. Playing true to their traditions—fighting to the last ditch—the Willamette university Bearcats last night dropped the second of their two-game series with the University of Idaho five by a score of 32 to 10.

The best team won, but only by playing the game of its career for every one of the 40 minutes the teams were in action. The score does not tell it that way to one who did not witness the battle, but the game was one of the most brilliant exhibitions of basketball ever seen here. From whistle to whistle both teams were traveling at a terrific speed, and the endurance of the Vandals was a big factor in their victory.

Idaho's Work Pretty. No one can truthfully detract one iota from the credit due the Idaho aggregation. They earned every point chalked up to them in the score book. Their passes were bullet-like in their precision and accuracy, their floor work bewildering in its speed and judgment, and their basket shooting deadly. Except for a few technical flaws their performance might aptly be compiled under the title "Basketball—How to Play It."

There was little left to chance in the offensive that Idaho offered: when they got the ball they maneuvered until an opening presented itself. When an opening broke, the ball shot down the floor in a series of snappy passes and usually found a man on either side of the basket to receive it for an open shot. Seldom during the evening did the Vandals attempt to shoot from further away than the foul line.

Pace Is Too Fast. Sticking to their men like flies, the Bearcats held the Vandals without a field basket during the first 10 minutes, and had a shade the better of that length of time. But gradually weight and experience began to tell and Willamette's defense faltered. The wily Fox brothers and Telford commenced to breakaway from the men set to watch them, and Idaho forged steadily ahead.

Never once, even with the Vandals gradually pulling away from them, did the morale of the Bearcats waver. It is true that during the last half they fought blindly at times—but they always fought. The basket shooting of the Bearcats was as poor as that of the visitors was spectacular. While the Vandals were looping them in from every angle, the Bearcats were toasting wild with equal dexterity.

Socolofsky, Logan and Dimick were the outstanding stars for the locals on the defense, but none of the Bearcats merited more than a smattering of applause on the offense.

The lineups were: Idaho—R. Fox (6), A. Fox (16) forwards; Thompson (2), center; Gartin (4) and Telford (4), guards. Willamette—Gillette (2) and Logan, forwards; Doney, center; Dimick (6) and Socolofsky (2), guards. Substitutions—Willamette: Pat for Dimick for Doney; Doney for Gillette. Referee—Leon Fabre, Portland.

Monmouth Defeats Airle. Monmouth, Or., Jan. 21.—Monmouth high school defeated Airle last night 19 to 12 in a fast game of basketball, played in the normal gymnasium. The visitors led at the close of the first half with a score of 9 to 6. However, Monmouth came back strong, easily outplaying their opponents. Airle will play the Independence high school this evening.

Women Barred From Cleveland Boxing Contests

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 21.—Boxing bouts in Cleveland under a new ruling by Mayor Fred Kohler will be for men only, or for women only. "If women must see boxing bouts," the mayor said, "let them arrange to have them witnessed entirely by members of their own sex."

SALEM HIGH TOSSERS WIN

Scoring 20 points to their opponents 12, Salem high school defeated the Woodburn high in the game played last night at Woodburn.

At the end of the second half the score stood 10 to 9, but during the second period Salem showed some real speed, making the additional 10 points while the Woodburn hoopers scored three. The regular lineup of the Salemites was: Socolofsky and Tucker, forwards; Lennon, center; Patterson and Lillegren, guards. A. Austin of Woodburn officiated as referee.

TWO KNOCKOUTS FEATURE DALLAS LEGION SMOKER

Dallas, Or., Jan. 21.—Two knockouts and two draws resulted from the four bouts staged here Thursday night by the American Legion. Reeves Coats knocked out his opponent Nola Dimmick in the sixth round of the main event. The four-round bout between Grant Fallin and Ike Lowens ended in the first two minutes when Fallin floored his rival for the count. The third bout between Eddy Staffin and Jack Hopewell was fought to a draw. The exhibition of the Fox brothers of Independence was well received and resulted in the second draw.

VIKINGS ARE TOO SPEEDY FOR OREGON

University of Oregon, Eugene, Jan. 21.—The varsity went down to defeat here last night before the University of Washington in the first of the series by a score of 46 to 19. The northerners took the lead from the first, Oregon never threatening. The guarding of Oregon was all that kept the score from being larger although the Oregon forwards missed many shots.

The first period ended, 21 to 12, with the Vikings in the lead. In the second half the Vikings came back with renewed speed and played a superb offensive, forcing down the Oregon defense time after time. Many of their points were scored from long and seemingly impossible angles. Lewis and Crawford of the visitors vied for honors in hooping the long shots from different angles.

Francis Beller played a brilliant game at guard for Oregon, scoring three field goals and proving a strong factor in breaking up the passing of the Vikings. Burnett, in the other guard position, played a consistent game and broke up many Washington shots. Andre was responsible for five of the Oregon points.

With seven minutes to go both coaches sent in entirely new teams and it was then that Oregon began to get in some effective scoring.

Deaf School Boys Defeat Chemawa Reserve Quintet

By a score of 35 to 16 the deaf school basketball team defeated the Chemawa reserves in a game played Thursday night in the gymnasium of the deaf school. The lineup for the team was as follows: Chemawa—C. Evans (1) and N. Evans, forwards; Dupoe (15), center; Grim and Mynik, guards. Deaf School—Taylor (6) and Calimont (19), forwards; Heath (10), center; LaFave and Tyler, guards.

COMPANY F TO PLAY TONIGHT

The company F basketball team will meet the Woodburn headquarters company at the Salem armory tonight at 8 o'clock. The Woodburn soldiers have a good team and the Salemites are going in to recapture the honors snatched away from them by the visitors a week ago.

Manager Bert Ford of Salem expects to keep substituting fresh material all the time tonight and will occupy a forward position himself. The rest of the team will be comprised of Byers, Hendricks, Crossman and Daly, guards; Schmidt, Cochran and Mason, center; Ringler and Remington, forwards.

Legion To Hold Smoker; Four Bouts Listed

Free to ex-service men throughout the county, whether a member of the organization or not, a boxing exhibition of four bouts of four rounds each, will be staged with a big feed on the night of January 25 in the armory by the American Legion.

"Dubs" Mulkey of Monmouth has been matched with "Spike" Croissant of Salem for a bout and they are expected to put on a first class exhibition, though fans don't need to expect a knockout. The event isn't staged for that purpose.

Dan Healy and Daly, both of Salem, are slated for an equal number of rounds and are both in the same class. They gave an exhibition of their skill previously before Salem fans in a preliminary of one of the company F smokers.

The Fox boys of Independence have also consented to be present, while "Battling" Syverson will enter the ring if Harry Plant, who has been placed in charge of the bouts by Joe Minton, commander of the Legion, can find a suitable opponent for him. Paul Hendricks will be asked to referee. All ex-service men are asked to attend.

Oregon Freshmen Defeat Chemawa

Eugene, Or., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Chemawa basketball men fell before an attack of the University of Oregon freshman quintet here last night. The game was hard-fought, but the score of 49 to 25 is a fair indication of the babes' superiority.

San Francisco, Jan. 21.—Johnny Couch, pitcher for the last two years of the San Francisco baseball club, has been traded to the Cincinnati Reds for four players, so far unnamed publicly, it is announced here. The deal was arranged for Couch at his request. The pitcher was with the Detroit Americans in 1917.

Silverton Legion Team Is Winner

Silverton, Or., Jan. 21.—Thirty-nine to seventeen in favor of Silverton was the score in a basketball game played here Thursday night between the American Legion quintet of this city and Chemawa.

Herman Quall and Wilber Scott of Silverton were high point men, annexing 12 counter each. Chemawa tossers were outplayed throughout the session. In a preliminary session, Silverton high school girls defeated the Dallas girl tossers. The score was 16 to 3.

FEW CHANGES IN GOLF RULES ARE TO BE ACTED ON

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Delegates to the annual meeting of the Western Golf association to be held tonight indicated that while there might be some discussion as to rules and policies for the coming year, no definite action was expected as the executive committee had authority to make any necessary changes whenever deemed necessary. President Albert R. Gates of Chicago and most of the other officers of the Western association will be re-elected tonight, as there is no opposition. The tournaments, it is predicted, will be awarded as follows: Amateur championship, Hillcrest club, Kansas City; open championship, Oakland Hills, Detroit; junior championship, Olympia fields, Chicago.
