Supporting the Ford proposal are the "farmer's bloc" in congress, the American farm bureau federation, the national board of farm organizations, other farm and agricultural organizations and numerous civic and business associations throughout the country.

The Ford proposal is likely to be accepted in some form, because of the strength of the agricultural bloc and for the reason that there is no alternative offered for salvage of the millions already invested. It promises cheap power, cheap fertilizer, cheap chemicals, to lower living and production costs, besides creating employment for many. It will probably be another victory for the farm bloc over reaction—at least let us hope so.
