Sir Ernest Shackleton, Dies On Antarctic Voyage; News Delayed Three Weeks

Buenos Aires, Jan. 29.—(By Associated Press.)—More than three weeks elapsed between the death of Sir Ernest Shackleton, the British explorer, and its announcement to the world, made yesterday when the body arrived at Montevideo. The delay, La Nación's Montevideo correspondent telegraphs, was ascribed by Captain L. Hussey, who accompanied the body, as due to a series of wireless mishaps.

Sir Ernest died aboard the steamship Quest, on which he was making another Antarctic voyage, while anchored off South Georgia island on January 5. His body was taken to Montevideo on the first leg of the trip home aboard the Norwegian steamship Professor Cruvel.

Captain Hussey bore a death certificate made out at South Georgia island, reading: "I, Alexander Mackin, certify to my best knowledge and belief that the cause of death was atheroma in the arteries of the heart. Before death he had not suffered an infectious or contagious disease."

This certificate was signed by Dr. Mackin, as surgeon of the expedition. The body arrived at Montevideo in an hermetically sealed zinc shell, covered with wood.

Captain Hussey told La Nación's correspondent that the Quest arrived at South Georgia island with her main wireless plant out of commission, due to damage by heavy storms during the voyage, which otherwise was uneventful. Sir Ernest had been in the best of health throughout the trip. The day before his death he landed on the island to supervise the purchase of provisions and returned to the ship apparently well. After supper he went to the cabin and talked with his companions.

At 2:30 on the morning of January 5, he felt sharp pains in his back and called the doctor, who had hardly begun preparing remedial when the explorer died without uttering another word.

When asked why the Quest did not inform the Falkland Islands with her minor wireless set, Captain Hussey said it was not sufficiently powerful. The wireless equipment of the Professor Cruvel also was out of order, he declared.

Highlanders File Answer to Suit of Bennett for $1,200

Answer to the $1200 suit brought by J. A. Bennett against the Royal Order of Highlanders was filed in the circuit court, alleging that the defendants had paid $400 of the sum due on the beneficiary's certificate.

Bennett stated in his complaint that he paid $100 annually into the order under the agreement that he was to get back after twenty years in like installments and that he has now paid the full amount and that the lodge refuses to continue its policy of paying back the money.

The lodge states that since the plaintiff took out his certificate there has been a change in the laws of the order, making the sum payable only in case of death.

Hooper Says Rail Board Needs Power

New York, Jan. 30.—The only practicable, effective and just method the government can set up for the adjustment of railroad labor controversies is adjudication by a joint tribunal, whose decisions shall be enforceable by suitable penalties, Ben W. Hooper, public member of the United States railroad labor board, told the civic federation in an address here today.

This was added by Mr. Hooper to his other five propositions looking toward equitable settlement of railroad disputes. These were: "That efficient and uninterrupted transportation is indispensable to the public welfare."

"That the carriers and their employees jointly owe such transportation to the public."

"That the federal government has the right, as a matter of contract, public policy and police power, and owes to the people the duty to insure such transportation."

"That the government's duty and the people's rights are violated by permitting railroad controversies to be settled by economic warfare."

"That, if railway employees are deprived, for the promotion of the common good, of the legal right to strike, some other remedy of equal or superior efficiency must be provided."

"If the congress of the United States would confer upon the railroad labor board the power to enforce its decisions, there is not a railway in the United States that would not be brought into prompt compliance with the rulings of the board."

An Army Marches On Its Stomach, Said Napoleon

The Great Corsican Knew That Success in Life Depends Upon Your Strength, Energy and Endurance

By Harrison Vaughn
When Napoleon led his victorious armies through Europe, his worst enemies were not the nations defending themselves against his smashing onslaught; but he was confronted by the graver question of how to provide nourishing and strengthening food for his soldiers.

The Great Corsican realized long over a century ago, as has every commanding general since, that men's bodies must be perfectly nourished if they are to retain their natural strength, energy and vigor; in fact, that the very health of the human being is regulated almost entirely by the stomach. Under-feeding, insufficient nourishment, means loss of flesh, anaemia, lack of red blood and subsequent weakness of the entire system.

What such people need to enable nature to bring back their strength and vigor, restore their lost weight and put them in fighting trim, with rich, red blood coursing through their veins is Taniae, the powerful reconstructive tonic and body builder.

A man or woman suffering from sour stomach, bad breath, biliousness, indigestion, or gas on stomach, is unfitted either for physical or mental labor. Sufferers from these ailments find life a burden; they look on the world through blue glasses, the joy and rewards of the vigorous, happy, normally healthy person is not theirs. Their troubles embitter them against the world, destroy their ambitions and make their lives dull and unhappy.

How foolish to continue in this conditions when every hand throughout the length and breadth of the land, people by the thousands are daily testifying to the remarkable powers of Taniae in conquering stomach troubles. This powerful reconstructive medicine builds up the weak and the despondent; gives them new hope and happiness and a new lease on life.

Taniae's name has been praised by hundreds of thousands. Testimonials from every corner of the United States and Canada have shown conclusively that even in cases where patients had almost given up all hope and where men and women had believed themselves doomed to a life of misery and suffering, Taniae has overcome their troubles and brought back health, energy and happiness in their lives.

If you are not "fit as a fiddle" in the morning and don't feel better than when you went to bed; if your breath is offensive and you have that bad taste in your mouth your body is not being nourished properly. What you need is Taniae to restore you to normal so Nature can bring back the flesh you've lost, put the bloom of health in your cheeks, the spring of energy in your step and the sparkle of happiness and contentment in your eye.

NOTE.—Taniae Vegetable Pills are essential and vitally important part of the Taniae treatment. You cannot hope to get the most satisfactory results from Taniae without first establishing a free and regular movement of the bowels. Taniae Vegetable Pills are absolutely free from calomel and are sold on a positive guarantee to give satisfaction.

Taniae is sold in Salem by the Tyler Drug Store and by leading druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Lenine To Attend Genoa Conference

London, Jan. 30.—Nikolai Lenine, Russian soviet premier, has telegraphed the Italian foreign office that he will attend the Genoa economic conference, says a Central News dispatch from Rome today.

British Fast Evacuating Irish Posts

Dublin, Jan. 30.—(By Associated Press.)—British evacuation of Ireland is proceeding more speedily than was anticipated. Each day sees a large number of troops leave Dublin and other ports. Departure of the Dublin garrison is due to begin this week.

It is taken for granted that the new Irish army will be established promptly and green uniforms are being manufactured on a large scale.

It is noteworthy that the evacuations of the British has occurred everywhere without manifestation, there being no sign either of rejoicing or regret.

The transition from one government to another has been rapid, but criminals have done their best to take advantage of any confusion arising from the change. There have been daring bank robberies and holdups throughout the country and even in Dublin city, but the new government is dealing vigorously with the criminal element.

Although the evacuation of British troops is to be completed, it is only from southern Ireland. For the purpose of the treaty in this respect, northern Ireland counts as though it were England, and accordingly large bodies of troops are fulfilling the promise to evacuate simply by marching across the border into Ulster.

The Black-and-Tans are nking home from Ireland. After this it is to be merely a family quarrel.
