Party Bids Farewell To Couple

A farewell party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nehren, who will depart on Wednesday for San Francisco, was given on Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Skeels. All gathered at 6 o'clock when a tamale supper was served. Cards was the diversions of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Nehren have made their home in Salem for about three years and their many friends here will regret to see them go. Mrs. Nehren has been sales manager of the Pulp and Paper company and in San Francisco will work somewhat similar.

Home decorations for the party were done with cut flowers. The living room was bright with a bouquet of red carnations and in the dining room pink carnations were used. Those present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jorman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferrell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nehren, Mr. and Mrs. George Skeels and daughter Maxine.

Shrine Club Plans Old Fashioned Social

As something of a departure from the usual social functions of the Salem Shrine club, a genuine old fashioned box social has been announced for Thursday evening, February 2, by the entertainment committee. Announcements, appropriate, have been sent out to all Shriners of Salem and vicinity and it is intended that all of the old time customs for affairs of this nature will be carried out in this event. There will be music and special stunts. Dancing may occupy a share of the evening's entertainment.

The entertainment committee includes Albert E. Gille, William McGilchrist, Jr., Oscar Gingrich, C. E. Wilson and E. D. Potter.

Luncheon Is Affair of Friday

Mrs. B. J. Miles and Mrs. William Cherrington were charming hostesses on Friday for luncheon and a Kensington afternoon at the Fairmount Heights home of Mrs. Miles, when members of the Past Matrons association were guests. Luncheon was served at one o'clock for the large group present. A large round table was set in the dining room and other small tables were placed in the living room. Red carnations and narcissus were used in decorations.

Following a business session, a social afternoon was spent. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Will Knight, of Portland.

Festival Is Planned At Bush Home

A two day music festival to be given near Easter time to raise funds to go toward a municipal auditorium of which Salem stands in great need, was discussed Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. N. Bush. Tentative plans were made and prominent among suggestions was the presentations of "The Creation" by a chorus of mixed voices, accompanied by the Symphony orchestra. An evening of living pictures, reproducing old masterpieces is an interesting idea and community sings and musical concerts were also discussed.

Following the work of the afternoon, Mrs. Bush served tea. Those assembled were Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Putnam, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. John R. Sites, Mrs. William Everett Anderson, Mrs. J. L. Harris, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. Frederick D. Thielson, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Mrs. J. M. Robber Killed By "Trap" Gun Is Identified

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 30.—The robber killed Friday night at the Berwick, Iowa, general store and postoffice, was identified today as Cecil McKay, aged 25, of Ontario, Canada.

Sheriff W. E. Robb says it has been definitely established that the man was killed by a trap gun which was automatically discharged when the robber pushed his way into the store.

We would feel worse about the fact that librarians report that Americans are reading fewer books if we didn't know what kind of books they read when they do.

TWINS EXPECT TO LIVE TO BE 100

Mrs. Mae Peake and Mrs. Bell Billings, reputed to be the oldest living twins in the country. They are eighty-three years old and expect to live to be 100. Their husbands fought on opposite sides during the civil war; both died about eighteen years ago, and the twin widows are now living on a fruit farm near El Paso, Texas. The sisters have lived in eight states of the union, and trace their ancestry back to the original Tarbella, of Maine aristocracy. Mrs. Peake is the mother or grandmother of thirty-eight children and a score or more of great grandchildren.

Salem Burglars Work Hard With Safe For Nothing

A large portion of hard work was all burglars got for their broken panes Saturday night when they crashed through a window at the Ward K. Richardson grocery store on North Front street, moved a heavy safe from the store to a warehouse in the rear, chiseled off the combination and gained entrance to the strong box.

The safe held no cash nor negotiable paper.

According to the police, the burglars smashed a glass in the rear of the building in order to make an entrance. They stole none of the stock.

Ship Sinks; 5 Missing.

St. Johns, N. B., Jan. 30.—The commander, five officers, the steward and five firemen of the Norwegian steamer Mod, which sank in mid-ocean a week ago, are unaccounted for, according to a wireless message received today from the steamer Melmore Head. The remainder of the crew were saved.

Somewhat the "abolishment of poison gas from the series of war tricks seems incomplete without the outlawing of propaganda in peace time.

President Harding knows how to take advice, says an admirer. But sometimes it's just as important to know how to reject it.

They say our wild west movies astonish Europe. Well, well; if the old wild westerners could see them, they would be astonished, too.
